Conference Team - The IB

IB Global Conference, New Orleans 2019

The IB community will be gathering in New Orleans, USA, from 18–21 July 2019 for a global conference centered around the theme “Generation IB”.

Join educators from around the world to showcase collaborative skills and innovative ideas surrounding the mission of the International Baccalaureate. Meet and collaborate with IB practitioners from around the globe to find unique approaches to global issues such as education and literacy, social justice, health, environment and citizenship.

The IB Global Conferences allow you to stay engaged with the latest trends in international education, gain professional development, network with educators from around the globe and explore new partnerships with education partners and influencers. You'll gain personal connections and leave inspired and energized to contribute to Generation IB.
