To whom it may concern:

I Debbie Ground have decided to resign early due to poor management and working conditions. I know this is short notice but I've tried to hang in there as long as I could out of respect for my coworkers and in hopes that something would change. It's hard going to work every day and not knowing what kind of work environment I'll be walking into. I believe that the direction management has taken makes for poor working environment and have seen no improvement over these 9 months that I've worked there. Therefore I do not see a future for me as an employee of the childcare program. I thank you for the opportunity.
