Other Considerations:

NextBee Media charges a flat platform license fee of $4,500.00 monthly (during active projects only), rather than by project.
NextBee Media's product is a more robust gaming design. Also, they offer a built-in assessment with the analytical tools.
NextBee Media offers more gaming platforms, resembling known games such as Jeopardy and Wii.
Nextbee Media's gaming design and style will appeal to the newer generation of employees.
MNK Infotech charges the proposed cost per each project. For example, 3 gaming projects would total $231,000.00.
MNK Infotech's graphics design and gaming functions are not as rich and full-bodied.
