ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

The Annual Investment Report (AIR) of the Ector County Independent School District (School District) for the year ended June 30, 2022 is submitted for your review and approval. This report will consolidate the investment requirements that are mandated by the Public Funds Investment Act, Texas Government Code (Chapter 2256). Included are reports on investment balances and investment income, along with required investment policy review and approval of training sessions from independent sources and selection of broker/dealers, and selection of investment officers for the 2021-2022 fiscal year.

INVESTMENT REPORT

The School District investment portfolio, at amortized book value, shows an increase of approximately $2.9 million, from $157.0 million in FY 2020-2021 to $159.9 million in FY 2021-2022. The general fund investments increased approximately $4.3 million from the prior year primarily due to increase in federal funding. The school nutrition fund increased approximately $1,800.00 due to cumulative interest earnings. The debt service fund decreased $663,000 due to planned early payoff of bond. The medical trust fund investments decreased $2.3 million due to timing on claims. The increase in the worker's compensation fund by approximately $14,500 is due primarily to cumulative interest earnings. The insurance recovery fund increased by approximately $1.5 million from $12.9 million in fiscal year 2020-2021 to approximately $14.4 in fiscal year 2021-2022 as a result of a hail damage claim recovery.

Interest rates increased during the 2021-2022 twelve-month period. Using the TexPool interest rates as a benchmark, the 2021-2022 average earning rate was 0.1969%, an increase from .0882%, the average rate for fiscal period 2020-2021.

INVESTMENT POLICY

As required by the Public Funds Investment Act, Texas Government Code {2256.005(e)}, the governing body of an investing entity shall review its investment policy and strategies not less than annually. 2. Invest more than 25 percent of the funds invested in corporate bonds in any one domestic business entity, including subsidiaries and affiliates of the entity.

A district subject to these provisions may purchase, sell, and invest its funds and funds under its control in corporate bonds if the board:

1. Amends its investment policy to authorize corporate bonds as an eligible investment;
2. Adopts procedures to provide for monitoring rating changes in corporate bonds acquired with public funds and liquidating the investment in corporate bonds; and
3. Identifies the funds eligible to be invested in corporate bonds.

The district investment officer, acting on behalf of the district, shall sell corporate bonds in which the district has invested its funds not later than the seventh day after the date a nationally recognized investment rating firm:

1. Issues a release that places the corporate bonds or the domestic business entity that issued the corporate bonds on negative credit watch or the equivalent, if the corporate bonds are rated "AA-" or the equivalent at the time the release is issued; or
2. Changes the rating on the corporate bonds to a rating lower than "AA-" or the equivalent.

An eligible entity's cost of or payment under a hedging contract or agreement may be considered an operation and maintenance expense, an acquisition expense, or construction expense of the eligible entity; or a project cost of an eligible project.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

A1/P1 Rating: "A1" is the highest short-term rating category assigned by Standard & Poor's, while "P1" is the highest short-term rating category for Moody's Investor Service. Securities that have been assigned both an A1 and a P1 rating are considered to be of high credit quality. Standard and Poor's designates certain securities within the A1 category with a plus sign (+) indicating that the issuer of the security has an extremely strong capacity to meet its financial obligations.

Accrual (or Accrual Basis): The most common form of accounting, which reports income when earned and expenses when incurred. Accrual accounting may be contrasted to accounting on a cash basis, in which income is reported when received and expenses are reported when paid.

Accrued Interest: The accumulated interest due on a security as of the last interest payment made. A security is always sold with the accrued interest included. Investors who buy securities in the secondary market will be required to purchase any interest on the securities that has accrued prior to settlement. This is because the previous owner of a security earned the income, but will not receive future coupon payments.

Agency: In securities trading, the term Agency refers to a federal government agency that issues securities, other than the U.S. Treasury, i.e. the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLB).

Agency Discount Note: A note that has been issued by a U.S. governmental-related agency other than the U.S. Treasury.

Amortization: The accounting practice that gradually reduces the cost or book value of an asset through periodic charges to income, such as: (1) the portion of the cost of a limited-life or intangible asset charged as an expense during a particular period, or (2) the reduction of debt by regular payments of principal and interest to retire the debt by maturity. The purpose of amortization is to reflect an asset's resale or redemption value.

Automated Clearing House (ACH) System: A domestic electronic funds transfer system.

Banker's Acceptance (BA): (1) Short-term, non interest-bearing notes sold at a discount and redeemed by the accepting banks at maturity for face value. BA's are generally created based on a letter of credit issued in a foreign trade transaction. (2) A money market instrument that is used to finance import or export transactions. BA's are essentially checks. They represent a bank's promise and ability to pay the face or principal amount on the banker's acceptance on the stipulated maturity date. Maturities for BA's are generally less than three months. Any BA purchased by a public entity must have a stated maturity of 270 days or less, must be accepted by a bank organized and existing under federal law, and the short-term obligations of the bank must be rated not less than A1/P1. Similarly to a treasury bill, a BA typically does not have a coupon, is issued at a discount, and matures at par (face value).

Basis Point (BP): The smallest unit of measurement used in quoting yields on bonds and notes. One basis point is .01%, or one one-hundredth (1/100) of a percent of yield (.01% or .0001). One hundred basis points equals 1%.

Benchmark: The performance of a predetermined group of securities, individual security, or an index used to compare risk and performance to a managed portfolio. A good benchmark should be verifiable, easy to understand, and appropriate to the investment portfolio to which it is being compared. Typical benchmarks used in the public sector include three-month, six-month, and one-year Treasury bill averages over the same measurement period. The benchmark selected should have a similar maturity to the investment portfolio under examination.

Book Entry: The name given to securities whose ownership and transfer occurs on a computer system rather than the physical delivery of a security. This system eliminates the need to physically transfer bearer-form paper, or to register securities by using a central depository facility/bank.

Book Value: The value at which the security is carried in the financial records of an investor. A security's book value reflects the price at which the security was originally bought, plus the net amortization/accretion up to that point in time. In the case of assets subject to reduction by valuation allowances, book value refers to cost or stated value less the appropriate allowance. Sometimes a distinction is made between gross book value (the value before deduction of related allowances) and net book value (which designates the value after the deduction). In the absence of any modifiers, however, book value is understood to be synonymous with net book value.

Broker: An individual who brings security buyers and sellers together in return for a commission or fee. The broker takes no position in a securities trade, and does not act as a principal or own securities. A broker will assist an investor in buying and selling treasuries, agencies, commercial paper and other authorized investments.

Commercial Paper: Defined as unsecured short-term obligations with maturities ranging from one to 270 days issued by banks, corporations, and other borrowers to investors with large temporary cash positions. This type of investment is usually issued at a discount and carries a zero coupon. The accounting process for commercial paper is identical to the accounting process for a treasury bill.

Committee on Uniform Securities Identification Procedures (CUSIP): Assigns codes to securities for the purpose of identification. These codes are often referred to as a security's CUSIP number (a nine-digit, alpha/numeric identification number).

Compensating Balance: The amount of money that a bank requires a customer to maintain in a non-interest bearing account, in order to waive bank fees.

Credit Risk: A type of investment risk. The risk that the issuer of a security will default or fail, or that the issuer's credit rating will be lowered. If one of these events occurs, part or all of the invested principal in the security could be lost. Credit risk exposure can be affected by a concentration of deposits or investments in any ONE type of investment.

Current Yield: The annual interest rate divided by the current market price. Current yield is what a bond is actually yielding today as opposed to the yield to maturity or coupon rate.

Custodial Agreement: A written contract establishing the responsibilities of a custodian who holds collateral for deposits with financial institutions, investment securities or securities underlying repurchase agreements.

Delivery vs. Payment (DVP): This occurs when securities are delivered with an exchange of money or payment for the security.

Discount: (1) The difference between the purchase price (cost) of a security and its par (face) value. This discount represent the income to be earned on the security, and will be accreted over the life of the security. (2) A security selling below the original offering price shortly after the sale is also considered to be a discount. (3) In the context of bonds payable and investments, the amount by which par value exceeds the price paid for a security.

Discount Securities: Non-interest bearing money market securities that are issued at a discount and redeemed at maturity for the full face value.

Face Value: (1) The par value or maturity value of a security. (2) The redemption value printed on the face of the certificate. (3) The amount of the issuer's liability stated in the security document.

Fair Market Value: The price a willing buyer would purchase the security from a willing seller in a bona fide arm's length transaction.

Federal Funds Rate: The rate of interest at which banks with excess reserves charge other banks lacking these reserves for overnight loans in order for the bank in need to meet their reserve requirements. This important overnight rate determines, in large part, the rate at which overnight repurchase agreements will trade. When the Federal Reserve "raises rates", the target federal funds rate is increased and other short-term security yields will follow. Since investment pools and money market funds invest heavily in short-term securities, their interest rates often approximate the federal funds rate at any given time.

Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB): A banking institution that regulates and lends money to savings and loan associations, cooperative banks and other mortgage lenders in a manner that is similar to the Federal Reserve's relationship with commercial banks. The FHLB system is made up of 12 regional banks. The FHLB system raises money by issuing notes and bonds. It lends money to savings and loans and other mortgage lenders, based on the amount of collateral the borrowing institution can provide. The FHLB issues both callable and noncallable agency securities as well as discount notes.

Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLMC): The FHLMC, otherwise known as "Freddie Mac" is a publicly chartered agency that buys qualifying residential mortgages from lenders. It repackages these pooled mortgages into new securities that are backed by the pooled mortgages, provides certain guarantees, and then resells them in the open market. They issue both callable and noncallable agency securities as well as discount notes.

Federal Housing Administration (FHA): The federally sponsored agency that insures lenders against loss on residential mortgages.

Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA): The FNMA, otherwise known as "Fannie Mae", is a federal corporation that operates under the auspices of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). This corporation is the largest single provider of residential mortgage funds in the U.S. FNMA is a private stockholder-owned corporation that purchases a variety of adjustable mortgages and second loans in addition to fixed-rate mortgages. It purchases conventional and insured mortgages from governmental agencies such as the FHA and VA. Its securities are highly liquid and widely accepted. FNMA issues both callable and noncallable agency securities as well as discount notes.

Federal Reserve Bank (or the Fed): Any one of 12 federally chartered banks established to maintain reserves, issue bank notes, and lend money to member banks.

Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB): Established in 1984 as an arm of the Financial Accounting Foundation, it is responsible for developing standards of financial accounting and reporting with respect to the activities of state and local governments.

Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA): The GNMA, otherwise known as “Ginny Mae” buys VA and FHA mortgages, then issues bonds that are secured by pools of these mortgages. An investor in this type of bond receives monthly payments of principal and interest that represent monthly mortgage payments by homeowners.

Investment Pool (or Local Government Investment Pool): A professionally managed pool of funds composed of cash deposits from a large group of cities, counties, school districts and local governments. In Texas, the ability to pool assets was created under the Local Government Cooperation Act. The pool manager purchases a portfolio of securities with the deposits and each pool participant owns a pro rata share in the portfolio.

Investment Portfolio (or Portfolio): The holdings of stocks, bonds, cash equivalents, or other assets by an individual, corporation, or institution.

Investment Risk: The total of all risks associated with an investment security.

Market Value: (1) The price at which a security is trading and could presumably be purchased or sold. (2) The current value of a security, which is determined by multiplying its par (face) value by the current market price. The unrealized gain or loss on a security can be calculated by subtracting the book value from the market value.

Master Repurchase Agreement: To protect investors, many public investors will request that repurchase agreements be preceded by a master repurchase agreement between the investor and the financial institution or dealer. The master agreement should define the nature of the transaction, identify the relationship between the parties, establish normal practices regarding ownership and custody of the collateral securities during the term of the investment, provide remedies in the case of default by either party and clarify issues of ownership. The master repurchase agreement protects the investor by eliminating the uncertainty of ownership and hence, allowing investors to liquidate collateral if a bank or dealer defaults during the term of the agreement.

Maturity (or Maturity Date): This refers to the date when the principal amount of a security or debt becomes due and payable.

Money Market Account: A savings account that generally earns interest at a higher rate than a regular savings account. Money Market accounts have a required minimum balance and other restrictions.

Money Market Fund: (1) A mutual fund that is invested in short-term investments. (2) An open end investment company (mutual fund) that invests in money market instruments. It is a highly liquid investment that pays money market rates of interest.

Net Asset Value Funds (NAV): A mutual fund whose share values fluctuate with changes in market prices. A net asset value fund seeks to offer a higher yield than a constant dollar fund (money market fund) by purchasing longer maturing securities. These net asset value funds experience market fluctuations due to the risk of the longer securities. These fluctuations will subject the investor to a higher level of market price and volatility risk than a constant dollar fund.

Public Funds Investment Act (PFIA): This act is Chapter 2256 of the Texas Government Code and details the state law governing the investment of public funds.

Ratings: Ratings are (1) designations used by investors or by services to give relative indications of credit quality. (2) In the context of bonds, a rating is normally an evaluation of credit-worthiness performed by an independent rating service.

Repurchase Agreement (REPO): An investment agreement involving the purchase of a security with a simultaneous agreement to repurchase that security at a specified price and date. REPO's may be used to earn income on idle cash at or near the federal funds market rate. A holder of securities sells them to an investor with a repurchase agreement. The buyer is in effect lending the seller money for the period of the agreement. The term of the repurchase agreement is structured to compensate the buyer. Dealers often use repurchase agreements to finance their positions. The exception occurs when the Fed is said to be doing repurchase agreements, in this instance it is lending money; i.e., increasing bank reserves. Repurchase agreements should always be governed by an executed PSA Master Repurchase Agreement between the investor and the dealer to reduce both these types of collateral risk.

Settlement Date: The purchase or sale date during which money actually changes hands.

Treasury (or Treasuries): A general term referring to U.S. Treasury securities.

Treasury Bill (T-Bill): A marketable, short-term, noninterest bearing, security that is issued by the U.S. Treasury at a discount to finance the national debt. They are issued to mature in three months (90 days), six months (180 days), or one year (365 days).

Treasury Bond (T-Bond): A marketable, long-term, fixed interest bearing, security that is issued by the U.S. Treasury as a direct debt obligation of the government with a maturity of more than 10 years.

Treasury Note (T-Note): A marketable, medium-term, coupon bearing, security that is issued by the U.S. Treasury as a direct debt obligation of the government with a maturity of 2 to 10 years.

Weighted Average Maturity (WAM): The common term, usually expressed in number of days, which represents a weighted average of the remaining term to maturity of all of the assets in an investment pool or securities portfolio. A longer WAM is generally indicative of more market risk. The maximum WAM for AAA-rated money market pools in Texas is 60 days. An SEC money market fund may have a 90-day WAM.

Yield: Yield is the return, expressed as a percentage, a security will earn as a result of both the coupon rate and any discount or premium paid. A yield will exceed the coupon if purchased at a discount (and vice-versa).
