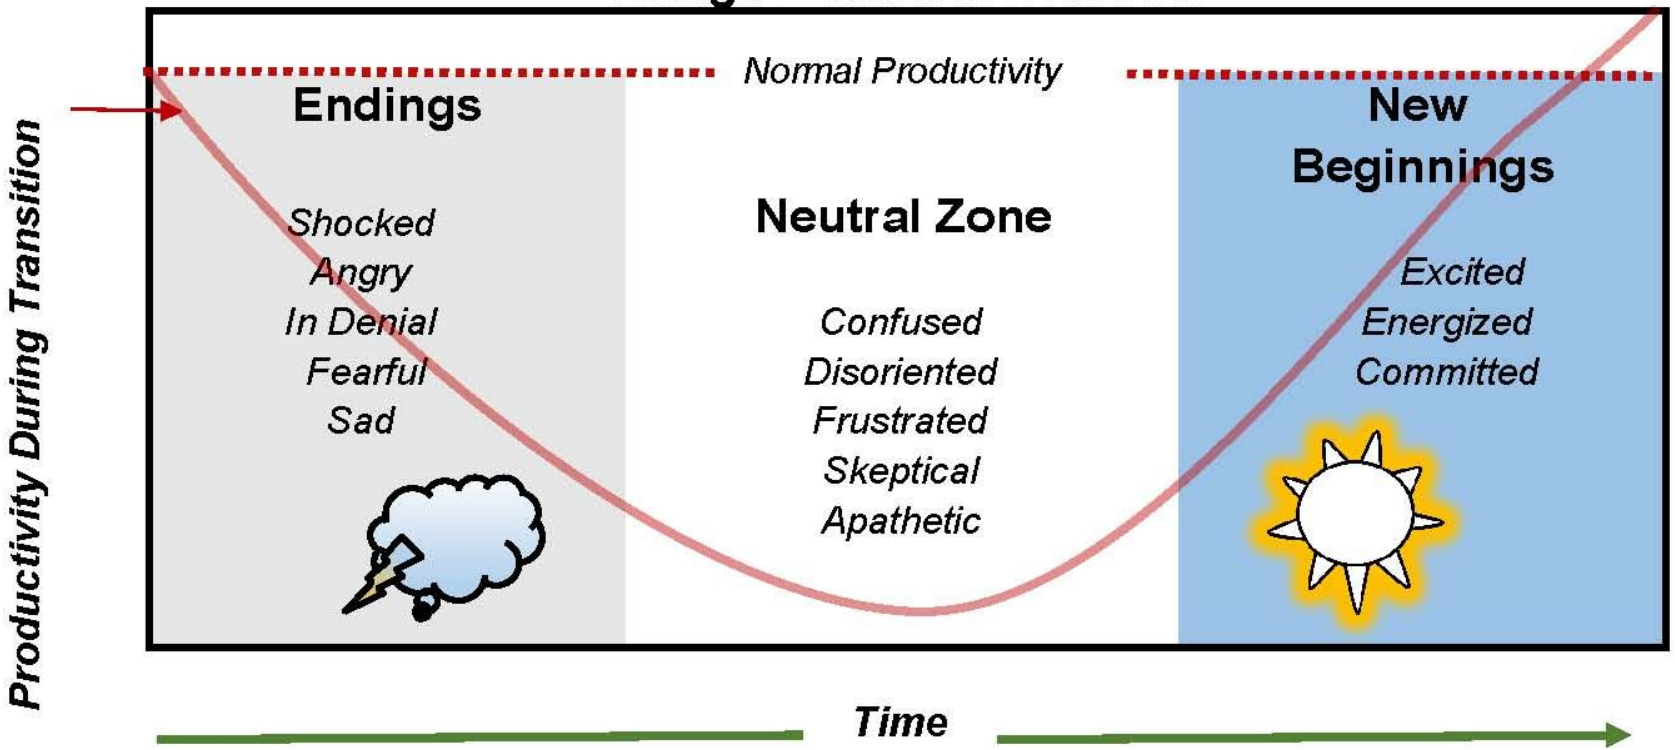
Bridges' Transition Model



Adapted by Career Vision from
Managing Transitions: Making the Most of Change (W. Bridges, 1991).

Purpose	Picture
The purpose of this change is to realign media programming and ensure that Each and Every student is able to reach their full potential and thrive.	Edina students will experience a cohesive and engaging media literacy experience that promotes digital citizenship, technology innovation, inquiry and research all while instilling a love of reading.
Plan	Part
Use the processes and protocols in implementation science to define, design and implement the aligned programming.	The Media Specialists will define, design and implement the library lessons and logistics.

New Beginnings:

Each and Every student receives:

- 30 min. Media lesson every week with licensed media specialist
- Book checkout every week (embedded in lessons)
- Opportunities for individual checkout as needed with a media assistant

In progress:

- Co-teaching and collaboration
- Cohesive media lessons and logistics
- Alignment to content areas (Benchmark Advance)
