Hello,

It has come to my attention that a teacher at the middle school has been granted leave in order to pursue a dream as a golf caddy? It seems as though other teachers are filling in the class while he is away. Does this mean, as taxpayers, we are paying double so this teacher can galavant across the globe on a whim? Where is the transparency? There are zero notes on this sign off for his leave of absence and nothing mentioned in previous meetings. Transparency on this matter should be addressed as well as acknowledgment by the board as to why this was allowed.

Thank You
