

CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECTDuty to Report

Teachers and school administrators, and paid athletic coaches who have reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect have a legal duty to report to the nearest office of the Department of Health and Social Services immediately. The reporting duties are individual and cannot be delegated to another individual.

Reporting Procedures

1. Any employee may report known or suspected child abuse or neglect, by telephone to the nearest office of the Department of Health and Social Services. This phoned report must be followed by a faxed or electronically submitted written report of harm.
2. If contact cannot reasonably be made with child protective services and immediate action is needed to protect the child, the employee shall make the report to a peace officer.
3. In addition to reporting to child protective services, employees may report harm from known or suspected child abuse or neglect to local law enforcement if the harm is believed to have been caused by a person not responsible for the child's welfare or if the employee is unable to determine who caused the harm or whether the person believed to have caused the harm has responsibility for the child's welfare.
4. School employees are required to cooperate and collaborate with child welfare agencies and law enforcement to provide the pertinent information needed to protect the health and safety of children.
5. School district employees should not contact suspects, nor should the victim be interviewed beyond the initial information disclosed.

Legal Responsibility and Liability

1. School employees are not civilly or criminally liable for filing in good faith, a required or authorized report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect, or for participating in related judicial proceedings.
2. A mandated reporter who fails or refuses to report an instance of child abuse or neglect, and knew or should have known that the circumstances gave rise to the need for a report, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

3. When two or more mandatory reporters have reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect, and when there is agreement among them, the report may be made by any one of them who is selected by mutual agreement, and a single report may be made and signed by the person selected. However, if any person who knows or should know that the person designated to report failed to do so, that person then has a duty to make the report.
4. The duty to report child abuse is an individual duty and no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit such reporting duties. Furthermore, no person making such a report shall be subject to any sanction.

(cf. 5145.11 - Questioning and Apprehension)

Confidentiality

All school employees are required to protect students' rights to privacy and confidentiality. As such, all information and reports regarding child abuse or neglect shall be treated as confidential and shall be maintained in a safe place. No employee shall make available, or allow access to the written information to other students, staff or members of the public, except as required by school rule, Board Policy or law. The principal/site administrator shall maintain the confidentiality of all reports of child abuse and neglect received, other than making the reports available to the appropriate agencies to which the reports were initially made. The principal/site administrator shall make provisions to protect and to maintain as confidential, the identity of the employee or employees making the report.
