Disclaimer of Liability and Responsibilities

Region 10 Education Service Center (ESC) shall be responsible solely for facilitating communication with participating schools, organizing and scheduling visits, reserving dates at Camp James Ray, and issuing invoices to schools for their scheduled day(s) at Camp James Ray.

Region 10 ESC shall not be held liable or responsible for any incidents, injuries, illnesses, property damage, or weather-related events occurring during the school's visit to Camp James Ray. All on-site operations and staff at Camp James Ray are managed exclusively by the Circle Ten Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Region 10 ESC has no managerial or supervisory role over the camp facilities, staff, or activities, and disclaims any liability arising therefrom.

Neither Region 10 ESC nor Circle Ten Council shall be held liable for any medical emergencies, injuries, illnesses, or other health-related incidents involving students, chaperones, faculty, staff, or other school representatives during their time at Camp James Ray.

The participating school campus and/or Frisco ISD shall retain full responsibility for the following:

- Supervision and management of student behavior at all times,
- Addressing all student medical needs, accommodations, and emergencies,
- Communication with faculty, staff, students, parents/guardians, chaperones, and transportation personnel (e.g., bus drivers),
- Ensuring that school personnel and/or parent chaperones lead and accompany student groups to all scheduled activities,
- Provision and management of any required food items or meals during the camp experience.

By signing below and participating in programming at Camp James Ray, Frisco ISD acknowledges and accepts the above-stated responsibilities and waives any claim against Region 10 ESC and Circle Ten Council for incidents outside the scope of their explicitly stated duties.
