

Beaverton School District 48J

Code: IGBAC
Adopted: 3/14/05
Orig. Code(s): IGBAC

Special Education – Personnel Development

The district shall implement procedures to ensure personnel development which may include use of the comprehensive system of personnel development established by the Oregon Department of Education, as appropriate. The district takes measurable steps to recruit, hire, train, and retain personnel, who are appropriately licensed and endorsed by Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC), to provide special education and related services to children with disabilities.

District personnel are appropriately and adequately prepared to implement special education and related services and have the content knowledge and skills to serve children with disabilities, consistent with Teacher Standards and Practices TSPC Requirements.

The district's plan for providing personnel development programs in the district is found in Board policy GCL/GDL - Staff Development.
