II. Consent Agenda

Mr. Baldwin moved to approve the CAP minutes from June 14, 2022. Mr. Davis seconds the motion. Motion carried unanimously.

III. Action Agenda

III.1. Consideration of Charter Amendments

III.1.a. Consideration of Act 1240 Digital Learning Plan for Southside Charter High School and Southside Jr. High

Presenter: Tally Harp, DESE District Support

Description: The Charter is requesting consideration of an Act 1240 Digital Learning Plan.

Ms. Harp spoke about the expedited review process that DESE employs to review Act 1240 Digital Learning Plans for the benefit of the new panel members.

Southside is hoping to add 7th and 8th grade to their digital learning plans. Dion Stevens spoke on behalf of the district and offered comments to clarify the request.

Motion to approve the amendment was made by Mr. Baldwin. There was a second by Ms. Saricini. Motion carried unanimously.

III.1.a. Consideration for Cross County High School A New Tech School Amendment Request

Presenter: Dorie Summons, Public Charter School Director

Description: Cross County High School A New Tech School is requesting a waiver for Class Size and Teaching Load and Rules Governing Standards for Accreditation.

Ms. Summons presented on the part of DESE. Mr. Stephen Prince and Ms. Searcy presented on behalf of the district.

Mr. Prince is requesting a waiver of class size and teaching load for their incoming freshman class. This has been a historically large class within the district. Mr. Prince spoke about other initiatives that can support teachers should larger classes become a reality for the district.

Waiver is requested through the current cycle of the charter which is through June 2026.

Ms. James (DESE) indicated that applicant would need to add an additional statute to waive.

Motion was made by Ms. Newton to approve the amendment request. There was a second by Mr. Davis. Motion carries unanimously.

IV. Adjournment

Ms. Saricini moved to adjourn, seconded by Ms. Newton. Motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 9:24 a.m.
