

Early Bird Learning Center

School Board Communications
March 2014

Week of March 3rd - Wow, another snow day!! I think the kiddo' are tired of "old man winter". We are all ready for warmer weather!

Week of March 10th - Spring Break - Relax and enjoy!!!

Week of March 17th - Welcome back from a very relaxing Spring Break. Spring finally arrived this week- yeah!!!! Teddy Bear Portraits dropped in to take the spring portraits for the daycare and daycare staff. Parents should prepare their pocket books for those adorable pictures when they come in.

Not only does EBLC have some cute little critters, our caterpillars have arrived and have already started eating. We can't wait to watch them spin their chrysalises and emerge as beautiful butterflies.

Preparation has begun for our spring program and open house. The maintenance department worked diligently during spring break to build our PVC pipe room dividers for us to decorate as backdrops. Teachers are creating wonderful backdrops for their class performances. Students are practicing their songs and preparing their movements for our "Rock and Rhyme" show on Tuesday, March 25th.

The Book Fair arrived and is set up for shopping. We will have family night on Tuesday, March 25th after our "Rock and Rhyme" show. This evening is also our Open House. Parents and students are invited to come visit their child's classroom and see all of the great things they are learning at EBLC.

Week of March 24th - "Rock and Rhyme" time is the theme for our open house this week. Students will be in costume and singing their favorite nursery rhyme songs. Also, Scholastic Book Fair will be here all week for everyone to shop.

"Play is often talked about as if it were a relief from serious learning. But for children, play is serious learning. Play is really the work of childhood."

- Fred Rogers

More great quotes at supersimplelearning.com