

Board Report
Christine Ketterling
Federal Programs Director
February 6, 2024

ACCESS Testing

We have officially begun the testing for our annual English Learner Proficiency Assessment. The window opened January 29, 2024 and will close on March 7, 2024. This is always a challenging testing window as we have approximately 180 students who must complete all 4 parts of the assessment. Our team works hard to ensure that students are in very small groups for each portion of the assessment.