

Planned Course Statement

English Language Development (ELD) Class

NCES 01008

Course Title: English Language Development (ELD)	Grade level: 9-12
Length of Course: 2 semesters	Credit Area: Elective
Prerequisite: ELL identified student	Amount of Credit: 1 credit
Materials: National Geographic Inside the U.S.A. (Newcomer); Systematic ELD; HMH English 3D

Course Description:

Designed to accommodate high school students who are developing English Language Proficiency in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. The course is aimed at creating an English language base that will support progress in mainstream curriculum. ELD classes may also include an orientation to the customs and culture of the diverse populations in the United States.

Course Goals:

Students will advance in competency in reading, writing, speaking, and understanding interpersonal and academic English, until they can use English effectively in regular classroom settings and are prepared for the state required exit exam.

Assessment Strategies:

Formative, summative, and state testing will be included. Formative and summative testing will come from curriculum sources and research based language development assessments. State testing includes the ELPA which is used to assess On Track to English Language Proficiency (OTELP).

Accommodations and Modifications:

Since students bring a wide range of age and skill levels to this class, groupings are flexible and respond to the needs of any given class.
