

EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES OF LAFAYETTE SCHOOL CORPORATION
EMPLOYEES AND BOARD MEMBERS

~~Relatives of employees and board members shall not be given preferential treatment, nor shall they be discriminated against during the process of selecting personnel. If a relative of an employee or board member is selected as the best applicant as the result of the selection process, then such person may be employed. Relatives working in the Lafayette School Corporation shall file a conflict of interest disclosure statement with the board.~~

Relatives of employees and Board members shall neither receive preferential treatment nor be subject to discrimination during the personnel selection process. If a relative of an employee or Board member is determined to be the most qualified applicant through the established selection process, that individual may be employed. All relatives employed by the Lafayette School Corporation shall file a conflict-of-interest disclosure statement with the Board.
