

Follow Up to Question
from the February 28, 2017,
Organization, Education, and Policy Committee Meeting

re: Student Discipline

Question: Does Collin College share information with peer institutions in the event there is a SOBI (Strategies of Behavioral Intervention) matter with a student who is being expelled from Collin College?

Answer:

If a peer institution contacts Collin College and the matter is related to safety or health, or if there is an educational reason within Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Collin can share information with peer institutions.

Kim Davison
Sr. Vice President of Organizational Effectiveness 972-985-3781
kdavison@collin.edu