What is American Indian Education?

Roseville American Indian Education is a district-wide program with the goal of promoting cultural awareness, academic advocacy, and community connection for our American Indian students and families.

Why do we provide American Indian Education?

American Indian Education Act of 1988., MN Statute 124D.72
Policy, 124D.74 American Indian Education Programs, 124D.78
Parent and Community Participation, 124D.81 American Indian Education Aid

Who is eligible to participate in Roseville Indian Education?

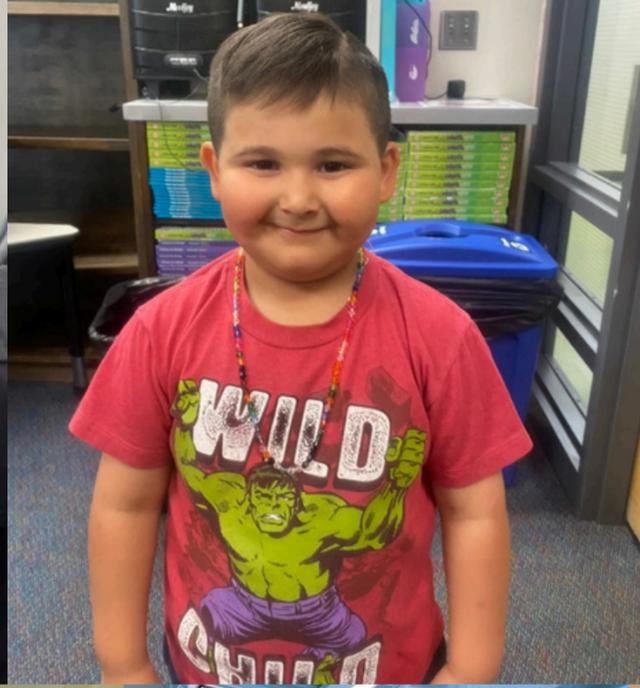

All students who identify as North American Indian on synergy

Affinity Groups at Elementary Level

Affinity Groups at the Elementary Level happen Bi-weekly for 30-40 minutes. Students are provided with a cultural learning experience. This year's lessons included seven grandfather teachings, Indigenous beading, and Dakota colors.

Affinity Groups at Secondary Level

Students meet weekly in grade-level large, small, or school-wide groups. Cultural lessons include discussions on tribal sovereignty or advanced beading techniques.
