Boys & Girls Basketball for Babb

To Whom it may concern:

With great sadness I am writing this letter is to inform the School Administration of my official resignation. The reason I am resigning is due to the fact I have had a conflict with my schedule with work and the schedule with the practices.

In working with the Babb Elementary students, I have had the Privilege to claim the title of their coach. Furthermore I have had the honor to work with very hard working, respectful students. Again it has been a great honor I will always cherish, and I know without a doubt the next Coach will succeed and continue to value the Babb Elementary students and staff, also the Browning schools we have played. I will deeply miss the students and experiences I have had being the Babb Mustangs Coach.

Sincerely,

Starla Cassidy
