In accordance to Board Policy EMI (Local) Miscellaneous Instructional Policies: Study of Religion, EG (Local) Curriculum Development, EFA (Local) Instructional Resources: Instructional Materials Selection and Adoption, and EFFA (Local) Instructional Materials Selection and Adoption: Textbooks; the Superintendent recommends the establishment of a committee of teacher's and District professional staff to select and recommended instructional resources and textbook(s). The community and all other groups who wish to express concerns and opinions will be invited to participate at committee meetings and public viewings.

The committee will be composed of the following:

- High school principals
- High school Language Arts department heads
- One teacher from each high school Language Arts department
- High school Social Studies department heads
- One teacher from each high school Social Studies department
- Language Arts Curriculum Coordinator
- Social Studies Curriculum Coordinator

The Chairperson for this committee will be selected by the Superintendent.
