

Lemont High School

Students of the Month

February 2026

Andrea Alvarez
Freshman
Art

The Art Department tabbed Andrea Alvarez as the Freshman Student of the Month. A high honor roll performer, Andrea most enjoys English I Honors, Integrated Math I Honors, and Drawing & Painting I. She was a member of the girls' cross country team in the fall, and expects to be part of the girls' track and field squad this spring. Her teachers describe her as an excellent student and artist. Andrea creates beautiful work and pushes herself to improve and grow as an artist. She has shown great success across all the media she has worked with, quickly picks up on new tools and techniques to add detail to her projects, and continually pushes herself and perseveres through challenges. In the future, Andrea hopes to become an architect or engineer. She enjoys running in her free time.

Maxamus Carncross
Sophomore
Physical Education

Maxamus Carncross was selected as the Sophomore Student of the Month by the Physical Education Department. Maxamus is an honor roll student whose favorite class is Woods I. In his first year on campus after arriving as a transfer student, he has joined the wrestling program and hopes to be part of the boys' volleyball program this spring. Maxamus consistently demonstrates a strong commitment to Physical Education through effort, a positive attitude, and respect for his peers. He models good sportsmanship, actively participates in all activities, encourages his classmates, and challenges himself. In the future, Maxamus hopes to become a firefighter. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing and participates in activities with the Boy Scouts.

Emma Tkach
Junior
Family & Consumer Sciences

The Family & Consumer Sciences Department cited Emma Tkach as the Junior Student of the Month. Emma is a high honor roll student who most enjoys science classes, including Anatomy & Physiology Honors. She is described as a positive light in the Family & Consumer Sciences Department. Not only is she active in class, but she also serves as Vice President of the Baking Club. Emma demonstrates strong teamwork and is a wonderful advocate for real world professionalism and career competency skills. She is a member of both the softball program and Student Council, and earned induction to the National Technical Honor Society. Emma plans on studying kinesiology or sonography in college. She enjoys babysitting, hanging out with friends, cooking, and playing softball.

Teagan Lee
Senior
World Languages

Teagan Lee was named the Senior Student of the Month by the World Languages Department. A high honor roll student, Teagan's favorite subject areas are French, forensic science, and ceramics. Her growth in French class over the last four years embodies excellence and commitment. She distinguishes herself through her excellent classroom contributions, which significantly enhance classroom dynamics and foster a collaborative environment. Teagan has held leadership positions within the Speech Team, Drama Club, Color Guard, National English Honor Society, International Thespian Society, and Tri-M Music Honor Society, and is a member of the National Honor Society. She contributed to The Spark literary magazine and was a journalism conference champion. Teagan plans on studying forensic science or biochemistry in college. She enjoys fashion, musical theater, and spending time with family and friends.
