	Note:	For information related to the selection process and accounting of instructional materials, as this term is defined by state law and rule, see EF (LEGAL)CMD and EFA (LEGAL), AND EFB (LEGAL) .
	The District shall provide a wide range of instructional resources library materials for students and faculty that support student achievement and present varying levels of difficulty, diversity of appeal, and a variety of points of view. The Superintendent shall ensure that librarians and other designated professional staff select library materials in accordance with District policy and administrative regulations. Although professional staff members may select instructional resources for their use in accordance with District policy and administrative regulations, the ultimate authority for determining and approving the curriculum and instructional program of the District lies with the Board.
Objectives	In this policy, "instructional resources-library materials" may include includes both instructional materials and library books printed and electronic library acquisitions and other supplementary materials maintained in a campus library. Library collections should include materials that enrich and support the state and local curriculum. Collections should also provide materials of high interest to encourage student reading and learning for enjoyment. Instructional materials are considered as textbooks, supplemental materials including digital resources, and written content used in classroom instruction. Library materials may be used to enhance the instructional program, for formal and informal teaching and learning processes, and for voluntary inquiry and self-selected reading. Library books, however, are primarily used for voluntary inquiry. The primary objectives of instructional resources are to implement, enrich, and support the District's educational program.
	acquire i	rd shall rely on District professional staff to select and nstructional materials and library books materials that a selection criteria outlined in this policy. ÷
	stue	ich and support the curriculum, taking into consideration dents' varied interests, abilities, learning styles, and turity levels.
		nulate growth in factual knowledge, enjoyment of reading, ary appreciation, aesthetic values, and societal standards.
		sent various sides of controversial issues so that students e an opportunity to develop, under guidance, skills in critical analysis and in making informed judgments in their daily lives. Represent many ethnic, religious, and cultural groups and their contributions to the national heritage and world community. Provide a wide range of background information that will enable students to make intelligent judgments in their daily lives.

Selection Criteria	Library materials shall be chosen in accordance with guidelines adopted by the Texas State Library and Archives Commission. Library materials shall also comply with the Children's Internet Protection Act (CPIACIPA), including technology protection measures. [See CQ series]. In the selection of library materials, librarians and other professional staff shall ensure that the materials: In the selection of instructional resources, professional staff shall
	ensu	ure that the resources:
	1.	Enrich and support the curriculum, taking into consideration students' varied interests, abilities, learning styles, and maturity levels. Support and are consistent with the general educational goals of the state and District and the aims and objectives of individual schools and specific courses consistent with the District and campus improvement plans.
	2.	Stimulate growth in factual knowledge and enjoyment of reading.
	3.	Develop a balanced collection presenting multiple viewpoints related to controversial issues so that students have an opportunity to develop, under guidance, skills in critical analysis (see EMB regarding instruction about controversial issues).
	4.	Represent many ethnic, religious, and cultural groups and their contributions to the national heritage and world community.
	5.	Meet high standards for artistic quality and/or literary style, authenticity, and educational suitability. significance, factual content, physical format, presentation, readability, and technical quality.

	6.	Are age appropriate for the school level. subject area and for the age, ability level, learning styles, and social and emotional development of the students for whom they are selected.
	7.	Are free of "harmful material" as defined by Texas Penal Code § 43.24(a)(2) or "obscene" material images portraying sex acts (reference as defined by Texas Penal Code § 43.21(a)(1)(B).
	8.	Include accurate and authentic factual content from authoritative sources for nonfiction works.
I	9.	Have a high degree of potential user appeal and interest.
	10.	Are designed to help students gain an awareness of our pluralistic society.
	11.	Are designed to provide information that will motivate students and staff to examine their own attitudes and behavior; to understand their duties, responsibilities, rights, and privileges as citizens participating in our society; and to make informed choices in their daily lives.
	12.	Are integral to the instructional program, are appropriate for the reading levels and understanding of students, reflect the interests and needs of the students and faculty, are included because of their literary or artistic value and merit, and present information with the greatest degree of accuracy and clarity [see EF (REGULATION) for selection processes including local campus review and District Selection Committees].
	pers reco of in acco with	ninistrators, teachers, library media specialists, other District sonnel, parents, and community members, as appropriate, may ommend instructional resources for selection. Gifts or donations astructional resources library materials shall be evaluated ording to these criteria and accepted or rejected in accordance this policy and CDC(LOCAL). [See also EFB GULATION)].
	rem repl	ection of resources is an ongoing process that includes the oval of resources no longer appropriate and the periodic acement or repair of resources that still have educational value e EFB (REGULATION)].
Parent Consideration and Permissions	libra libra libra	eneral, a student is afforded the opportunity to self-select ary materials as part of literacy development and the ary program. District staff may assist a student in selecting ary materials; however, the ultimate determination of ropriateness remains with the student and parent.

DATE ISSUED: pending discussion

	Parents have access to view library log of books currently checked out by their child through the district's library management system.
	Parents may submit a written request to the campus librarian in order to restrict a book for their own child's access.
	Inter-Library-Loan (ILL) checkout options are provided for students who wish to borrow a book from a different campus. This may include books at higher or lower grade levels. Parents who do not wish for their child to have this access shall submit a written request to the campus librarian.
	While ebook collections shall be provisioned using the same selection criteria as library books, ebook checkouts cannot be limited in the same way they occur in libraries. Parents should consult with their child regarding ebook checkout selections.
Secondary Course Reading Selections	Parents/guardians shall be provided notice of required reading selections for course work in grades 6-12. If a parent files a written objection on religious or moral grounds, their student shall be provided an alternative reading option as appropriate.
Controversial Issues	District professional staff shall endeavor to maintain a balanced collection representing various views when selecting instructional resources onrelated to controversial issues to foster critical thinking skills and encourage discussion based on rational analysis. Resources shall be chosen to clarify historical and contemporary forces by presenting and analyzing intergroup tension and conflict objectively, placing emphasis on recognizing and understanding social and economic problems. [See also EMB regarding instruction about controversial issues and EHAA regarding human sexuality instruction.]
Challenged Resources	A parent of a District student, any employee, or any District resident may formally challenge a library material an instructional resource used maintained in the District's educational program on the basis of appropriateness. that the material fails to meet the standards set forth in this policy.
Guiding Principles	The following principles shall guide the Board and staff in responding to challenges of instructional resources library materials:
	<ol> <li>A complainant may raise an objection to an instructional resource a library material used in a school's educational library program, despite the fact that the professional staff</li> </ol> selecting the resources were qualified to make the selection, followed the proper procedure, and adhered to the objectives and criteria for instructional resources library materials set out in this policy.

	2.	A parent's ability to exercise control over reading, listening, or viewing matter extends only to his or her own child as set forth in Texas Education Code Chapter 26 .
	3.	Access to a challenged resource shall not be restricted during the reconsideration process except as allowed in EF (LEGAL) or if copies of the book are needed for the Reconsideration Committee process. The District may deny access to a child if requested by the child's parent.
	libr inte libr	e major criterion for the final decision on challenged resources ary materials is the appropriateness of the resource for its nded educational use. No challenged instructional resource ary material shall be removed solely because of the ideas ressed therein.
Informal Reconsideration	The school receiving a complaint about the appropriateness of an instructional resource, a library materials shall try to resolve the matter informally using the following procedure:
	1.	The principal or designee shall explain the school's selection process, the criteria for selection, and the qualifications of the professional staff who selected the questioned resource library material.
	2.	The principal or designee shall explain the intended educational purpose for the library material of the resource and any additional information regarding its use.
	3.	If appropriate, the principal or designee may offer a concerned parent an alternative library material instructional resource to be used by that parent's child in place of the challenged material resource.
l	4.	If the complainant wishes to make a formal challenge, the principal or designee shall provide the complainant a copy of this policy and a form $EFB$ (EXHIBIT-A) to request a formal reconsideration of the resource.
Formal Reconsideration	an i sha rece	omplainant shall make any formal objection to library material nstructional resource on the form provided by the District and Il submit the completed and signed form to the principal. Upon eipt of the form, the principal shall submit the form to the trict's designee who shall appoint a reconsideration committee.

The reconsideration committee shall include at least one member of the instructional staff who has experience using the challenged resource with students or is familiar with the challenged resource's content. Other members of the committee shall include at least 1 district-level staff member, 1 campus administrator, 1 librarian, 1 teacher, and 1 parent. The parent should be from the -from the same school level as where the challenged resource is available. in addition to any other appropriate individuals. The committee shall be comprised of an odd number of participants and, shall be randomly selected., and strive to include one less number of parents than district staff.

The District shall establish a process of compiling parents who represent at least one campus from each middle school feeder pattern and who are willing and able to serve on reconsideration committees. parent review committee by which the district is to randomly select parent participants in the reconsideration process. [See EFB (REGULATION).]

All members of the committee shall review read the challenged resource in its entirety. As soon as reasonably possible, the committee shall meet and determine whether the challenged resource conforms to the principles of selection set out in this policy. The committee shall weigh the strengths and weaknesses of the challenged resource as a whole rather than on passages or sections that may be taken out of context and the committee is and -to determine if material in guestion remains educationally suitable. The committee can decide if a book is restricted, unrestricted, or removed. If a committee decides that the book is restricted access, then written parental/legal guardian permission shall be required. The committee's decision is by shall determine by majority vote, through an anonymous ballot., whether or not the challenged resource shall remain in use. When the decision is made to restrict access to a challenged resource, the decision shall apply district-wide and shall be implemented in a timely manner. Library materials subject to restricted access shall be moved to a restricted access area; however, the titles of the library materials shall remain viewable. The committee shall prepare a written report of its findings and provide copies to the principal, the Superintendent or designee, and the complainant.

The decision_recommendation of the reconsideration committee shall apply district-wide and is in effect for two school years following the school year it was challenged. A book shall not be reconsidered again for reinstatement or removal until after two school years.

Spring Branch ISD 101920
INSTRUCTIONAL RES	OURCES, LIBRARY MATERIALS	EF B (LOCAL)
Appeal	The complainant may appeal the decision of the reconsid committee in accordance with appropriate complaint polie starting with the appropriate administrator. [See DGBA, F GF.]	cies,
Staff Training	The principal or designee shall annually review policies E (LEGAL), EFB (LOCAL), EF (REGULATION), and CQ (L their entirety with the staff.

EFB(LOCAL)