

I-Team

The integration specialists, better known as the I-Team, of Coppell ISD showcase efforts made this year to integrate technology into the classroom environment. This amazing group of instructional leaders worked hand and hand with teachers in developing lessons using technology. Efforts were focused on not using technology for technology's sake, but because of the impact it has on student learning and achievement.