Coppell ISD

Update 93 represents the second of the post-legislative updates and encompasses changes in law from the 82nd Legislative Session. Update 93 addresses a variety of major topics, including financial exigency, genetic nondiscrimination, reports of educator misconduct, partnership programs with community colleges, student early mental health intervention and suicide prevention, student expulsion for serious misbehavior while in DAEP, and student records.

Also included in Update 93 are local policies that address employee standards of conduct, challenges to instructional materials, bullying, and harassment.

Please note that Update 93 does not include local policy recommendations on student food allergies. The Texas Department of State Health Services will be publishing policy guidelines on that issue by May 1, 2012. Policy recommendations will follow.

Please bear in mind that the (LEGAL) policies reflect the ever-changing legal context for governance and management of the district. They should NOT be adopted but, rather, should inform local decision making. The (LOCAL) policy recommendations in this update will need close attention by both the administration and the board to ensure that they reflect the practices of the district and the intentions of the board. Board action is needed to adopt, revise, or repeal (LOCAL) policy.

In addition to the updated policies, your Localized Update 93 packet contains:

- INSTRUCTIONS . . . providing specific, policy-by-policy directions on how this update, if accepted as prepared, should be incorporated into your Localized Policy Manual.
- EXPLANATORY NOTES . . . summarizing changes to the policies in each code. Please note that, where appropriate, the Explanatory Notes ask you to verify that a particular policy reflects your current practice and to advise us of changes needed so that our records and your manual accurately track the district's practice.

Vantage Points—A Board Member's Guide to Update 93 may be found in the separately wrapped package accompanying this packet. Vantage Points offers a highly summarized overview of the update and is intended to provide local officials a first glance at the scope of the update—as a prelude to studying the detailed Explanatory Notes and policy text within the packet. Please distribute the enclosed copies of Vantage Points to your board members at the earliest possible opportunity, preferably with their review copies of this update.

Update 93 policies are so identified in the lower left-hand corner of each policy page. If you have any questions concerning this update, please call your policy consultant, Amy Kadlecek, at 800-580-7529 or 512-467-0222.

Regarding board action on Update 93 . . .

- Board action on Localized Update 93 must occur within a properly posted, open meeting of the board and may be addressed on the agenda posting as “Policy Update 93, affecting (LOCAL) policies (see attached list of codes).” Policy On Line districts have access to a list of the (LOCAL) policies included in the update through the Local Manual Updates application in myTASB. Other districts may generate a list of the (LOCAL) policy codes added, revised, or deleted (and the titles/subtitles of those policies) using the Instruction Sheet as a guide and attach that list to the posting. BoardBook compilers should use “Policy Update 93, affecting (LOCAL) policies” as the agenda item and, as agenda sub-items, the code and name of each of the (LOCAL) policies affected by the update.
- Special Note About Adoption of FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL): Many of the Update 93 recommendations regarding FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are based on HB 1942, which is effective beginning with the 2012–13 school year. Based on the effective date of HB 1942, some districts may want to implement the Update 93 policy recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) effective with the 2012–13 school year so that any current (LOCAL) policies at FFH and FFI are not affected until then. The Update 93 policy recommendations are being provided at this time so districts can begin development of next year’s student handbooks and codes of conduct. Policy Service will release the 2012–2013 Model Student Handbook and 2012 Model Student Code of Conduct on March 20.

If you wish to delay the effective date of the Update 93 recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL), the board may indicate in the motion for action that the Update 93 changes to FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective on a future date. A suggested motion for board action on Localized Update 93 is as follows:

“I move that the board add, revise, or delete (LOCAL) policies as recommended by TASB Policy Service and according to the Instruction Sheet for TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93 [with the following changes:]. FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective [insert specific date, not school year].”

- The board’s action on Localized Update 93 must be reflected in board minutes. The Instruction Sheet—annotated to reflect any changes made by the board—and the Explanatory Notes for the update should be filed with the minutes where they make up the authoritative record of your board’s actions. Include a copy of new, replaced, or rescinded (LOCAL) policies.
- In constructing the separate historical record of the manual, the emphasis is on tracking the history of individual policies. For guidance on maintaining this record, please refer to the Policy Administrator’s Guide at http://www.tasb.org/services/policy/mytasb/admin_guide/index.aspx.

Regarding manual maintenance and administrative regulations . . .

- Notify your policy consultant of any changes made by the board so that Policy Service records—forming the basis for subsequent updating recommendations—exactly mirror your manual.

- The update should be incorporated into each of the district's Localized Policy Manuals as soon as practicable. If the district uses Policy On Line, you will need to notify us of the board's action on Update 93 so that your district's Localized Policy Manual as it appears on TASB's Web server can be updated. Policy On Line staff may be reached by phone (800-580-7529 or 512-467-0222), fax (512-467-3618, using the Update 93 Adoption Notification Form enclosed), e-mail (pol-support@tasb.org), or Internet feedback form (<http://www.tasb.org/policy/pol/private/polfdbk.html>).
 - Administrative procedures and documents—including formal (REGULATIONS), handbooks, and guides—that may be affected by Update 93 policy changes should be inspected and revised by the district as needed.

PLEASE NOTE: This localized update packet and the Update 93 Vantage Points may not be considered as legal advice and are not intended as a substitute for the advice of the board's own legal counsel.

District: Coppel ISD
ATTN (LOCAL) POLICY REVIEW

Please note: Unless otherwise noted, references to legislative bills throughout these explanatory notes refer to bills from the 82nd Regular Legislative Session. Bills from the First Called Session of the 82nd Legislature are so noted. All referenced bills have already gone into effect unless otherwise noted.

AIA (LEGAL) ACCOUNTABILITY
ACCREDITATION AND PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

From HB 2135, we have added a provision allowing the commissioner to award a distinction designation to a campus with a significant number of students below grade 9 who perform satisfactorily on an end-of-course assessment. See CAMPUS DESIGNATIONS, beginning on page 4.

As reflected also on page 4, SB 653 created the Texas Juvenile Justice Department to take over the responsibilities previously held by the Texas Youth Commission, which has been abolished.

BBBA (LEGAL) ELECTIONS
REPORTING CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Two existing statutory provisions from the Election Code have been added to this legally referenced policy. The first requires a specific-purpose committee for supporting or opposing a board candidate to file its campaign treasurer appointment with the secretary of the district. The second provision, related to the process used to terminate the campaign treasurer appointment of an inactive candidate or committee, requires the board to define "inactive candidate or political committee" and requires written notice to the affected candidate or committee about the termination.

A new provision from HB 336 includes a requirement for larger districts to post on their Web sites certain campaign reports filed under Election Code Chapter 254. Reports must be posted not later than the fifth business day after the report is filed with the district. See INTERNET POSTING on page 2.

BDAF (LEGAL) OFFICERS AND OFFICIALS
SELECTION AND DUTIES OF CHIEF TAX OFFICIALS

We have made several changes to this legally referenced policy on assessing and collecting taxes, including:

- Deleting an existing statutory provision giving the county appraisal district responsibility for appraising school district property located within the appraisal district, since this text has been moved to CCH.
- At REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS, updating the name of the licensing agency to the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation and adding the existing requirement for school district tax officials to satisfy certification requirements. In addition, we have clarified that the board designates the district's tax officials.
- Revising item 4 at DUTIES of the ASSESSOR to reflect new language from HB 843 that allows, by agreement of the assessor and tax payer, electronic delivery of tax bills.
- Reordering provisions so that more general provisions appear first in the policy.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

BDF (LEGAL) BOARD INTERNAL ORGANIZATION CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEES

At COMPOSITION, SB 736 allows a board to appoint representatives of local domestic violence programs to the school health advisory council (SHAC).

BQ (LEGAL) PLANNING AND DECISION-MAKING PROCESS

The elements of the DISTRICT IMPROVEMENT PLAN have been revised as a result of HB 1386. Beginning with the 2012–13 school year, the district improvement plan must include any suicide prevention programs adopted by the district, in accordance with the Health and Safety Code. See item 3 on page 3.

See the explanatory note for FFB.

C (LEGAL) BUSINESS AND SUPPORT SERVICES

We have revised the C section table of contents to rename CDH, now subtitled Public and Private Facilities, and CW, now titled Naming Facilities.

CCG (LEGAL) LOCAL REVENUE SOURCES AD VALOREM TAXES

Beginning on page 10, changes to this legally referenced policy address tax exemptions for DISABLED VETERANS and their surviving spouses.

From SB 516 (approved by voters in November 2011) are new provisions allowing a SURVIVING SPOUSE of a disabled veteran to continue to receive the property tax exemption for a residential homestead after the veteran's death. A homestead will qualify if:

- It received the exemption from property taxes under the disabled veteran's exemption;
- The property was the residence homestead of the surviving spouse when the disabled veteran died;
- The property remains the residence homestead of the surviving spouse; and
- The surviving spouse has not remarried.

A surviving spouse who moves his or her residence homestead and has not remarried since the death of the disabled veteran may also qualify for an exemption on the new residence homestead.

Another provision from SB 201 provides for a PRORATED EXEMPTION based on a veteran's disability if the veteran or a surviving spouse qualified for an exemption for only part of a tax year.

CCH (LEGAL) LOCAL REVENUE SOURCES APPRAISAL DISTRICT

We have moved from BDAF(LEGAL) an existing statutory provision giving the county appraisal district responsibility for appraising school district property located within the appraisal district. See APPRAISAL FUNCTION on page 1.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

CQA (LEGAL) TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES DISTRICT, CAMPUS, AND CLASSROOM WEB SITES

Two new REQUIRED INTERNET POSTINGS have been added:

- At item 13, HB 1942 requires a district to post the procedure for reporting bullying as established in the district's local bullying policy; and
- At item 14, HB 336 requires certain larger districts to post a campaign-related report required by Election Code Chapter 254.

CRD (LEGAL) INSURANCE AND ANNUITIES MANAGEMENT HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE

SB 155, as reflected at CONTINUATION COVERAGE on page 5, clarifies an employee's ability to continue health insurance through the summer after the employee has resigned. Previous law provided that an employee who resigns after the last day of instruction could continue health insurance until the first anniversary of the date participation in or coverage in the health insurance was first made available to district employees for the last instructional year.

The new law provides that the employee may continue coverage through the earlier of the date described above or the last calendar day before the first day of instruction of the next school year.

D (LEGAL) PERSONNEL

We have revised the D section table of contents to rename DAB, now subtitled Genetic Nondiscrimination. Provisions on Objective Criteria for Personnel Decisions, previously at DAB, have been moved to DAC.

DAA (LEGAL) EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVES EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

A cross-reference to DAB has been added next to the reference to genetic information at NONDISCRIMINATION—IN GENERAL. DAB, Genetic Nondiscrimination, is a new code at Update 93 that includes material from the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act. See the explanatory note for DAB, below.

At RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION, on page 3, we have added an existing statutory provision that prohibits the district from directly or indirectly asking about the religious affiliation of a person applying for employment.

The other changes to this legally referenced policy result from final rules on the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), effective March 25, 2011. Changes include:

- Reorganization of existing provisions to accommodate new material;
- At MITIGATING MEASURES beginning on page 4, clarification that "ordinary eyeglasses and contact lenses" as defined in the regulations will be considered in determining whether an impairment substantially limits a major life activity;

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

- New definitions of 'PHYSICAL OR MENTAL IMPAIRMENT' and 'MAJOR LIFE ACTIVITIES' on page 5;
- Clarification that the district has no duty to provide REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS when an individual meets the definition of disability solely under the "regarded as" prong of the definition (see page 6);
- On page 7, a prohibition on the use of QUALIFICATION STANDARDS that screen out or tend to screen out individuals with disabilities unless the standards are shown to be job related for the position and consistent with business necessity; and
- New references to the legal authority addressing use of SERVICE ANIMALS by employees.

For more information on the ADA rules, see www.federalregister.gov/articles/2011/03/25/2011-6056/regulations-to-implement-the-equal-employment-provisions-of-the-americans-with-disabilities-act.

Please note: Policy Service records reflect that your school district employs 15 or more employees. If this information is no longer correct, contact your policy consultant for appropriate policy provisions.

DAB (LEGAL) EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVES GENETIC NONDISCRIMINATION

This new legally referenced policy includes information on Title II of the federal Genetic Information Non-discrimination Act (GINA). In general, GINA prohibits discrimination against employees or applicants based on genetic information; restricts districts from requesting, requiring, or purchasing genetic information; and strictly limits the disclosure of genetic information. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission adopted final regulations, effective January 10, 2011.

As explained in the Note at the beginning of the legally referenced policy, GINA only applies to districts with 15 or more employees. However, this legally referenced policy is recommended for inclusion in all school district policy manuals because of possible fluctuations in a district's number of employees, which could trigger application of the statutory provisions for a district not previously subject to the provisions.

This policy organizes the material into four main sections: definitions, notices, prohibited practices, and confidentiality.

Districts subject to GINA must post a workplace notice with excerpts from the regulation and information about filing a complaint. TASB HR Services has updated its work-site posters, available in the TASB Bookstore at <http://store.tasb.org>, to include the required notification provisions.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has further information on GINA, available at: <http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/types/genetic.cfm>.

DAB (LOCAL) EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVES GENETIC NONDISCRIMINATION

We have moved material addressing Objective Criteria for Personnel Decisions to DAC. DAB now addresses Genetic Nondiscrimination.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

DAC (LOCAL) EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVES
OBJECTIVE CRITERIA FOR PERSONNEL DECISIONS

This local policy text addressing Objective Criteria for Personnel Decisions has been moved unchanged from DAB to accommodate new material now at that code addressing the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA).

DBAA (LEGAL) EMPLOYMENT REQUIREMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS
CRIMINAL HISTORY AND CREDIT REPORTS

From new State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules, effective December 19, 2011, we have added a definition of "reported criminal history." SBEC has defined this term to mean information concerning any formal criminal justice system charges and dispositions. See SBEC NOTIFICATION on page 5.

DBB (LEGAL) EMPLOYMENT REQUIREMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS
MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS AND COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

We have added on page 2 a provision from the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) regulations addressing receipt of GENETIC INFORMATION when a district lawfully requests medical information not related to a request for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). If the district's request for medical information includes specific language telling the provider not to include any genetic information, any release of genetic information will be deemed inadvertent.

A similar provision has been added in this update at DECA(LEGAL) to address requests for medical information pursuant to the FMLA.

Please note: Policy Service records reflect that your school district employs 15 or more employees. If this information is no longer correct, contact your policy consultant for appropriate policy provisions.

DECA (LEGAL) LEAVES AND ABSENCES
FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

In Section III on Notices and Medical Certification, we have added to this legally referenced policy a provision from the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) regulations for districts subject to GINA. [See DAB(LEGAL) for information about the applicability of GINA.] The regulations address receipt of GENETIC INFORMATION when a district lawfully requests medical information pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). See page 15. If the district's request for medical information includes specific language telling the provider not to include any genetic information, any release of genetic information will be deemed inadvertent.

A similar provision has been added in this update at DBB(LEGAL) to address requests for medical information not made pursuant to the FMLA.

DF (LEGAL) TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

At REPORT TO SBEC OF EDUCATOR MISCONDUCT, beginning on page 4, we have added a new provision from amended State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules, effective December 19, 2011, explaining that a superintendent may notify SBEC of any educator misconduct that the superintendent believes in good faith may be subject to sanctions by SBEC. This new provision has also been added to DH(LEGAL) in Update 93.

The amended rules also affected the definition of "SOLICITATION OF A ROMANTIC RELATIONSHIP," beginning on page 5. The revised definition explains that a romantic relationship is often characterized by a strong emotional or sexual attachment, but does not include relationships that arise out of legitimate contexts, such as familial connections or longtime acquaintance. The list of acts that may constitute evidence that an educator has solicited a romantic relationship must be considered in context and now includes creating or transmitting sexually suggestive photographs or images, or encouraging the student to transmit sexually suggestive photographs or images and requesting sexual contact, or any activity intended for the sexual gratification of the educator.

DFE (LEGAL) TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT RESIGNATION

Amended State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules, effective December 19, 2011, addressing SANCTIONS FOR ABANDONMENT OF CONTRACT have been added, beginning on page 1. Previously the deadline for the board to submit a written complaint to SBEC was within 30 calendar days after the educator submitted a written resignation. Under the amended rules, a board must file the complaint within 30 days of the effective date of the separation. Unless there is a written agreement to the contrary, the effective date of separation is the first day that the educator fails to appear for work without permission. A former provision allowing the district to designate an effective date not later than 14 days after the educator fails to report for duty has been deleted.

The amended rules also list the documents that must be attached to the written complaint, which include the resignation letter, if any; any agreement regarding the effective date of separation from employment; the educator's contract; and board meeting minutes indicating that the board found no good cause for the resignation. If the board does not meet within 30 calendar days of the separation from employment, the minutes may be submitted within 10 calendar days of the next board meeting.

DH (LEGAL) EMPLOYEE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Revisions to this legally referenced policy are from amended State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules, effective December 19, 2011, and include:

- A new definition of "reported criminal history" to mean information concerning any formal criminal justice system charges and dispositions;
- Reordering of the list of circumstances a superintendent must report to match the order in the rules; and
- A new provision explaining that a superintendent may notify SBEC of any educator misconduct that the superintendent believes in good faith may be subject to sanctions by SBEC.

On page 2, we have also added an existing statutory provision requiring a superintendent to provide NOTICE to the board and the educator that the superintendent has filed a written report with SBEC.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

DH (LOCAL) EMPLOYEE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Recommended changes at ARRESTS, INDICTMENTS, CONVICTIONS, AND OTHER ADJUDICATIONS, item 4, reflect revisions to the drug and alcohol related offenses described in Administrative Code Chapter 19, section 249.16(b). As revised, crimes involving moral turpitude include conspiracy to possess a controlled substance or any misdemeanor or felony transfer, sale, distribution, or conspiracy to transfer, sell, or distribute a controlled substance. In addition, felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) is listed as a crime involving moral turpitude, replacing previous text that included acts constituting public intoxication, operating a vehicle under the influence, or disorderly conduct. An act constituting neglect under the Family Code is also a crime involving moral turpitude.

Minor stylistic revisions have been made throughout the policy.

Please note: We have retained the district's locally developed language resulting from an OCR agreement, including the second paragraph of the policy and the paragraph at VIOLATIONS OF STANDARDS OF CONDUCT. We have also retained your locally developed text at ELECTRONIC MEDIA – USE WITH STUDENTS and PERSONAL USE.

DH (EXHIBIT) EMPLOYEE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Based on amended State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) rules, effective December 19, 2011, we have revised the heading of this exhibit to read EDUCATORS' CODE OF ETHICS.

We have also revised Standards 3.6 and 3.9 to better match Administrative Code language:

- Standard 3.6 now prohibits an educator from soliciting or engaging in sexual conduct or a romantic relationship with a student "or minor."
- Standard 3.9 has been adjusted to clarify that the list of electronic communications an educator should not engage in with a student or minor is not an exhaustive list. The list of factors that may be considered in assessing whether a communication is inappropriate is also not exhaustive.

EB (LEGAL) SCHOOL YEAR

HB 1555 creates an EXCEPTION from the general prohibition on scheduling the first day of instruction before the fourth Monday in August. A district may schedule the first day of school on or after the first Monday in August at a campus, or at not more than 20 percent of the district's campuses, if the district enrolls 190,000 or more students and the district funds supplemental days of instruction in addition to the statutorily required days of instruction at each campus. Each campus must be undergoing comprehensive reform as determined by the board, and a majority of the students on each campus must be educationally disadvantaged. Currently this exception only applies to Houston ISD.

EEM (LEGAL) INSTRUCTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS JUVENILE RESIDENTIAL FACILITIES

As reflected on page 1 at DEFINITIONS, SB 653 created the Texas Juvenile Justice Department to take over the responsibilities previously held by the Texas Youth Commission, which has been abolished.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

EFA (LOCAL) INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

SB 6 (First Called Session) made significant revisions to the law on instructional materials, including replacing the term “textbooks” with “instructional materials.” As a result, we recommend deletion of the district’s locally developed language in the first paragraph at DEFINITIONS addressing instructional resources so that the text does not conflict with the language at OBJECTIVES.

We have added recommended text in the last paragraph at SELECTION CRITERIA, that appears to have been inadvertently deleted previously.

Other recommended changes include:

- Adding a margin note for your locally developed DEFINITION at RECONSIDERATION COMMITTEE;
- Clarifying that the SELECTION CRITERIA apply to the selection of all instructional resources; and
- Adding principal or designee throughout at INFORMAL RECONSIDERATION.

The district’s extensive locally developed text has been retained, with minor editing for consistency with policy style, at the DEFINITIONS for DAYS and CONCERNED PARTY; CHALLENGED MATERIALS, INFORMAL RECONSIDERATION, FORMAL RECONSIDERATION; APPEAL TO THE SUPERINTENDENT; APPEAL TO THE BOARD; GUIDELINES; and CRITERIA FOR REMOVING OR LIMITING ACCESS. If the language at these provisions no longer reflects current district practice, please contact your policy consultant for appropriate revisions.

EFA (EXHIBIT) INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Our records indicate that you have an exhibit at this code that you may need to review and revise in light of the changes in this update. Please advise us:

- If this exhibit is obsolete and should be deleted from Policy Service’s records of your localized policy manual; or
- If you have revisions that you wish to submit to Policy Service for editorial and legal review and incorporation into Policy Service records.

EHBC (LEGAL) SPECIAL PROGRAMS COMPENSATORY/ACCELERATED SERVICES

HB 3708 and SB 975 establish a new type of PUBLIC JUNIOR COLLEGE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM. See page 4. Beginning September 1, 2012, a school district may partner with a community college district in which the school district is located to provide a dropout recovery program on the community college campus for students to successfully complete and receive a high school diploma from the school district. See the explanatory note for GNC, below.

Information on MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE INDIRECT COST has also been added to this legally referenced policy, beginning on page 9. As revised by the State Board of Education in November 2011, for the 2011–12 school year the indirect cost allotments increased for compensatory, special, bilingual, and career and technical education. Indirect cost allotments for gifted and talented programs were not changed.

Beginning with the 2012–13 school year, a district may choose to use a greater indirect cost allotment than specified to the extent the district receives less funding per weighted student in maintenance and operations revenue than in the 2011–12 school year.

EHLB (LEGAL) SPECIAL PROGRAMS
HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY

As reflected throughout this legally referenced policy, SB 653 created the Texas Juvenile Justice Department to take over the responsibilities previously held by the Texas Youth Commission, which has been abolished.

FDB (LEGAL) ADMISSIONS
INTRADISTRICT TRANSFERS AND CLASSROOM ASSIGN-
MENTS

Applicable with the 2012–13 school year, HB 1942 provides new options for a school district to transfer STUDENTS WHO ENGAGE IN BULLYING, as reflected on page 3.

Districts are currently permitted to transfer a victim of bullying. The new law now allows a board to transfer a student who has engaged in bullying to another classroom within the same campus or another campus within the district. A transfer to another campus requires consultation with a parent. The decision to transfer a student receiving special education services must be made by an ARD committee.

HB 1942 also established a new definition of bullying, as referenced in this policy and included in FFI(LEGAL), also issued at this update. See the explanatory note for FFI.

FDB (LOCAL) ADMISSIONS
INTRADISTRICT TRANSFERS AND CLASSROOM ASSIGN-
MENTS

As explained above, beginning with the 2012–13 school year, HB 1942 allows a board to transfer a student who engaged in bullying in addition to a student who was a victim of bullying. As a result, we recommend a change to the Note in this local policy to refer to transfers of victims of bullying or students “who engaged in bullying.”

We have retained, with minor editing for consistency with policy style, the district’s locally developed provisions addressing TRANSFERS BETWEEN SCHOOLS for students in HIGH SCHOOL and students in ELEMENTARY AND MIDDLE SCHOOLS. Please review these transfer provisions and contact your policy consultant if adjustments are needed.

FEB (LEGAL) ATTENDANCE
ATTENDANCE ACCOUNTING

As added by HB 3708 and SB 975, effective September 1, 2012, a student who is not on campus when attendance is taken may be considered in attendance if the student is participating in a DROPOUT RECOVERY EDUCATION PROGRAM operated by a public junior college under Education Code 29.402. See page 4.

FFB (LEGAL) STUDENT WELFARE
CRISIS INTERVENTION

This new legally referenced policy addressing crisis intervention includes new provisions from HB 1386 on early mental health intervention and suicide prevention programs.

HB 1386 requires that the Texas Department of State Health Services (TDSHS) and TEA provide a list of recommended early mental health intervention and suicide prevention programs for implementation in public schools within the general education setting. Each school district may select a program or programs from the list to implement.

The board may adopt a POLICY concerning early mental health intervention and suicide prevention that:

- Establishes procedures for providing notice to the student's parent or guardian within a reasonable amount of time after identification of the early warning signs;
- Includes a reporting mechanism;
- Permits the district to designate at least one person to act as a liaison officer for purposes of identifying students in need of early mental health intervention or suicide prevention;
- Sets out available counseling alternatives; and
- Prohibits the use of medical screening to identify a student without prior consent of the student's parent or guardian.

The policy and procedures must be included in the student handbook and district improvement plan. See the explanatory note for BQ(LEGAL).

District policy and procedures are not intended to give a school district the authority to prescribe medications. All medical decisions are to be made by the student's parent or guardian.

TASB Policy Service has developed sample language for districts that wish to adopt a local policy on this topic. If you would like to see the sample text for this optional policy, please contact your policy consultant at 800-580-7529.

FFF (LEGAL) STUDENT WELFARE
STUDENT SAFETY

This new legally referenced policy includes material from SB 407 on programs addressing visual material depicting minors. By January 1, 2012, the Texas School Safety Center (TxSSC) and the attorney general must develop programs for use by school districts that address:

- The legal consequences and penalties of sharing visual material depicting a minor engaged in sexual conduct;

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

- Other consequences such as negative effects on relationships, loss of educational and employment opportunities, and possible removal from school programs and extracurricular activities;
- The characteristics of the Internet and other networks that might affect visual material such as replication and distribution to a worldwide audience;
- The prevention of, identification of, response to, and reporting of incidents of bullying; and
- The connection between bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, and a minor sharing visual material depicting a minor engaged in sexual conduct.

The TxSSC Web site on SB 407 is available at <http://www.txssc.txstate.edu/K12/sexting>; the Sexting Prevention Educational Program is available at <http://beforeyoutext.com/>.

Annually and beginning with the 2012–13 school year, each district is required to provide information on these educational programs to parents and students at an appropriate grade level.

FFH (LOCAL) STUDENT WELFARE
FREEDOM FROM DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RE-TALIATION

Special Note About Adoption of FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL): Many of the Update 93 recommendations regarding FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are based on HB 1942, which is effective beginning with the 2012–13 school year. Based on the effective date of HB 1942, some districts may want to implement the Update 93 policy recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) effective with the 2012–13 school year so that any current (LOCAL) policies at FFH and FFI are not affected until then. The Update 93 policy recommendations are being provided at this time so districts can begin development of next year’s student handbooks and codes of conduct. Policy Service will release the 2012–2013 Model Student Handbook and 2012 Model Student Code of Conduct on March 20.

If you wish to delay the effective date of the Update 93 recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL), the board may indicate in the motion for action that the Update 93 changes to FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective on a future date. A suggested motion for board action on Localized Update 93 is as follows:

*“I move that the board add, revise, or delete (LOCAL) policies as recommended by TASB Policy Service and according to the Instruction Sheet for TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93 [with the following changes:]. FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective [insert specific date, not school year].”

Most of the recommended revisions to this local policy are to coordinate the district’s response when alleged conduct could constitute prohibited conduct, as defined at FFH (discrimination, harassment, and dating violence), and/or bullying, as defined at FFI. As indicated in the Note on page 1, the district will need to use FFH and FFI in conjunction in these circumstances, since the district may have additional notification obligations if the conduct also constitutes bullying.

Recommended changes at INVESTIGATION OF THE REPORT specify that if the district official determines that the alleged conduct would not constitute prohibited conduct as defined by the policy, the district official will then refer the complaint for consideration under FFI so that the district may consider whether the alleged conduct constitutes bullying. When the district official determines that the alleged conduct could constitute prohibited conduct and thus proceeds with an investigation under FFH, the district official must also determine whether the allegations constitute bullying. If appropriate, the district must take interim action to address prohibited conduct or bullying during the investigation.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

At CONCLUDING THE INVESTIGATION, new recommended text requires the investigation report to include a determination of whether prohibited conduct or bullying occurred since the DISTRICT ACTION will depend on what type of conduct the investigation reveals.

- If PROHIBITED CONDUCT occurred, the district will take appropriate disciplinary action and may take corrective action reasonably calculated to address the conduct. Examples of CORRECTIVE ACTION are included in the policy.
- If BULLYING occurred, the district will refer to FFI for appropriate notice to parents and district action and to FDB for transfer provisions.
- If IMPROPER CONDUCT occurred that did not rise to the level of prohibited conduct or bullying, the policy clarifies that the district may still take disciplinary or other corrective action to address the conduct.

Other recommended changes to the policy include:

- The addition of a definition and examples of GENDER-BASED HARASSMENT, which includes harassment of a non-sexual nature based on the student's gender or gender stereotyping, including the failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity. Although this recommended local policy has always prohibited harassment based on gender, the federal Office for Civil Rights (OCR) has recently been emphasizing a need for districts to define and provide examples of gender-based harassment in local policy.
- Clarification that retaliation is prohibited at STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION and that the district prohibits RETALIATION by a student or district employee against a student involved in an incident or report of prohibited conduct. The EXAMPLES of retaliation have been updated accordingly.
- The addition of humiliating conduct in the EXAMPLES of prohibited harassment on page 1, since this is often listed as an example by the OCR.
- Reordering of the provisions addressing FALSE CLAIMS, STUDENT REPORTS, and EMPLOYEE REPORTS for better flow. The employee reporting standard has also been broadened to require a report if the employee suspects prohibited conduct occurred.
- Revising the paragraph on ACCESS TO POLICY AND PROCEDURES to match the new legal requirements for bullying policies and procedures, as described at FFI.

Please note: Your locally developed text at STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION and COUNSELING from the district's OCR agreement of 1996 has been retained, unchanged.

FFI (LEGAL) STUDENT WELFARE
FREEDOM FROM BULLYING

This new legally referenced policy on bullying includes material from HB 1942, effective with the 2012–13 school year.

As mentioned above, HB 1942 established a new DEFINITION of bullying. The definition retains much of the previous definition, but clarifies that bullying includes engaging in expression through electronic means. It removes language stating that the existence of bullying is determined by the board or designee. Behavior is considered bullying if the conduct exploits an imbalance of power between the students involved through written or verbal expression or physical conduct and interferes with a student's education or substantially disrupts the operation of a school.

HB 1942 also requires a board to adopt a POLICY, and any necessary procedures, that:

- Prohibits bullying of a student;

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

- Prohibits retaliation against any person who in good faith provided information concerning an incident of bullying, including a victim or witness;
- Establishes a procedure to provide notice of an incident of bullying to the parents of the victim and the bully within a reasonable amount of time after the incident;
- Establishes actions a student should take to obtain assistance and intervention in response to bullying;
- Sets out the available counseling options for a victim of or witness to bullying, or a student who engages in bullying;
- Establishes a procedure for reporting incidents of bullying, investigating reported incidents, and determining whether the reported incident occurred;
- Prohibits the discipline of a student who reasonably uses self-defense in a bullying incident and is found to have been the victim in the incident; and
- Requires that any discipline of a student with disabilities found to have engaged in bullying comply with applicable requirements of federal law, including the IDEA.

The policy and procedures adopted by the board must be included in student and employee handbooks on an annual basis and in the district improvement plan. The procedures for reporting bullying must be posted on a district's Web site "to the extent practicable."

FFI (LOCAL) STUDENT WELFARE
FREEDOM FROM BULLYING

Special Note About Adoption of FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL): Many of the Update 93 recommendations regarding FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are based on HB 1942, which is effective beginning with the 2012–13 school year. Based on the effective date of HB 1942, some districts may want to implement the Update 93 policy recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) effective with the 2012–13 school year so that any current (LOCAL) policies at FFH and FFI are not affected until then. The Update 93 policy recommendations are being provided at this time so districts can begin development of next year's student handbooks and codes of conduct. Policy Service will release the 2012–2013 Model Student Handbook and 2012 Model Student Code of Conduct on March 20.

If you wish to delay the effective date of the Update 93 recommendations for FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL), the board may indicate in the motion for action that the Update 93 changes to FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective on a future date. A suggested motion for board action on Localized Update 93 is as follows:

"I move that the board add, revise, or delete (LOCAL) policies as recommended by TASB Policy Service and according to the Instruction Sheet for TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93 [with the following changes:]. FFH(LOCAL) and FFI(LOCAL) are adopted effective [insert specific date, not school year]."

Recommended changes to this policy reflect the new local policy requirements added by HB 1942, as explained above:

- Conduct that is reported to the district as alleged bullying may also constitute prohibited conduct (discrimination, harassment, and dating violence), as defined at FFH; therefore, the Note on page 1 requires the consideration of both FFH and FFI when an allegation is made.
- The DEFINITION of bullying has been revised to match the statutory definition.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

- We have added a new provision prohibiting RETALIATION by a student or district employee against any person who reports bullying, serves as a witness, or otherwise participates in an investigation. EXAMPLES of retaliation have also been included.
- At STUDENT REPORT, we have added text to clarify that the purpose of the report is for the student to obtain assistance and intervention.
- New provisions at PROHIBITED CONDUCT emphasize that alleged bullying may also constitute prohibited conduct, as defined at FFH (discrimination, harassment, and dating violence). If the principal determines that the allegations would constitute prohibited conduct, the investigation will proceed under FFH and that investigation will need to include a determination on both prohibited conduct and bullying.
- At CONCLUDING THE INVESTIGATION, we have added a requirement that the investigation report include a determination of whether the victim used reasonable self-defense. This is based on the new law, which states that a student who is a victim of bullying and who used reasonable self-defense in response to the bullying cannot be subject to disciplinary action. See also DISCIPLINE.
- If BULLYING occurred, the district shall take appropriate disciplinary action, may take corrective action reasonably calculated to address the conduct, and shall refer to FDB for TRANSFER provisions. Examples of CORRECTIVE ACTION are included in the policy. As stated in the new law, the discipline of a student with a disability is subject to state and federal law. In addition, the principal must notify the victim, the student who engaged in bullying, and any students who witnessed the bullying of available COUNSELING options.
- If IMPROPER CONDUCT occurred that did not rise to the level of prohibited conduct or bullying, the policy clarifies that the district may still take disciplinary or other corrective action to address the conduct.
- New requirements govern publication of the policy and any accompanying procedures. These must be distributed annually in the employee and student handbooks and posted on the district's Web site to the extent practicable. The policy continues to require that the materials be available at each campus and the district's administrative offices.

Other recommended changes to the policy include:

- Reordering of the provisions addressing student FALSE CLAIMS and REPORT FORMAT for better flow.
- Broadening of the employee reporting standard to require a report if the employee suspects bullying occurred, whether of a single student or a group of students.

If your district has a designated staff member who coordinates districtwide anti-bullying programs and you would like to include that person's contact information in the district's bullying policy, please contact your policy consultant for sample policy text.

FL (LEGAL) STUDENT RECORDS

New Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) regulations, effective January 3, 2012, resulted in several changes to this legally referenced policy, including:

- New definitions of 'AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE' and 'EDUCATION PROGRAM,' on page 6.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

- Beginning on page 9, a new provision clarifying that ORGANIZATIONS CONDUCTING STUDIES for or on behalf of districts must destroy personally identifiable information when no longer needed. These organizations are no longer permitted to return the information to the district in lieu of destroying the information. Another new provision at this margin note provides that a district may redisclose personally identifiable information from education records as part of an agreement with an organization conducting a study for or on behalf of the district.
- On page 17, the new rules clarify that a district may designate as DIRECTORY INFORMATION student ID numbers or other unique personal identifiers displayed on a student ID badge if the number or identifier cannot be used by itself without a PIN, password, or other factor to gain access to education records. If a student or other person could access student records using only the ID number or identifier, then the district could not list the student ID number or identifier as directory information.

FNAA (LEGAL) STUDENT EXPRESSION
DISTRIBUTION OF NONSCHOOL LITERATURE

We have added to this legally referenced policy on distribution of nonschool literature, at NO VIEWPOINT DISCRIMINATION, the recent Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals case Morgan v. Swanson. In this case, the Fifth Circuit recognized that private, non-disruptive, student-to-student speech expressing a religious viewpoint is protected speech under the First Amendment and a district may not discriminate against a student based on that speech.

At TIME, PLACE, AND MANNER LIMITATIONS, we have revised the text to refer to permissible viewpoint-neutral regulations and have added a citation to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals case Canady v. Bossier Parish School Board.

FO (LEGAL) STUDENT DISCIPLINE

As mentioned above, HB 1942, effective with the 2012–13 school year, adopts a new definition of bullying. As a result, we have revised item 7 on page 1 to explain that the definition of bullying has the meaning provided by Education Code 37.0832 as included in FFI.

FOC (EXHIBIT) STUDENT DISCIPLINE
PLACEMENT IN A DISCIPLINARY ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION SETTING

As reflected in this exhibit, at Penal Code Section 20A.02, HB 260 changed the felony offense of “trafficking of persons” to “smuggling of persons.”

FOD (LEGAL) STUDENT DISCIPLINE
EXPULSION

HB 968 revises the provisions addressing permissive expulsion for persistent misbehavior in DAEP to permit expulsion when a student engages in documented SERIOUS MISBEHAVIOR IN DAEP despite documented behavioral interventions. See page 4. These changes apply beginning with the 2012–13 school year.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

“Serious misbehavior” is defined to include deliberate violent behavior that poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others; extortion; coercion; and conduct that constitutes the offense of public lewdness, indecent exposure, criminal mischief, hazing, or harassment of a student or district employee. Previous language permitting removal for “persistent misbehavior” has been deleted.

FODA (LEGAL) EXPULSION JUVENILE JUSTICE ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM

As explained above, HB 968 revises the provisions addressing permissive expulsion for persistent misbehavior in a DAEP to permit expulsion when a student engages in documented serious misbehavior despite documented behavioral interventions. A MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between a district and a county juvenile board regarding the establishment and operation of a JJAEP must now establish, consistent with HB 968, that a student may be placed in the JJAEP if the student engages in “serious misbehavior” as defined by Education Code 37.007(c). See page 5.

G (LEGAL) COMMUNITY AND GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

We have revised the G section table of contents to add the new code GC, Public Notices.

GC (LEGAL) PUBLIC NOTICES

This new legally referenced policy includes provisions from HB 1812 that govern newspaper publication of notices when the law does not specify the manner of publication, including the number of times the notice must be published or the period during which the notice must be published.

If a district is required to publish notice in a county with a population between 30,000 and 36,000 that borders the Red River or in a county that does not have a newspaper meeting the requirements for regular newspaper publication, the district may select a newspaper for publication with less stringent requirements. See SELECTION OF NEWSPAPER IN CERTAIN COUNTIES on page 2.

The legal RATE FOR PUBLICATION is defined as the newspaper’s lowest published rate for classified advertising. If no newspaper in the district or county will publish the notice at or below the legal rate, a district may publish the notice using an alternate method of publication, as specified in the policy.

GNC (LEGAL) RELATIONS WITH EDUCATIONAL ENTITIES COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

HB 3708 and SB 975 establish a new type of DROPOUT RECOVERY PROGRAM. Beginning September 1, 2012, a school district may partner with a community college district in which the school district is located to provide a dropout recovery program on the community college campus for students to successfully complete and receive a high school diploma from the school district. The APPLICABILITY requirements for colleges and school districts to participate in the program are included on page 3 and limit which colleges and districts may enter into such an agreement. These applicability provisions expire September 1, 2013.

To be eligible to enroll in the program, a student must be under 26 years of age and either: (1) lack no more than three course credits to graduate or (2) have failed to perform satisfactorily on state assessments needed to graduate.

Explanatory Notes
TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 93

As reflected at FUNDING, the school district must pay the college district a negotiated amount for each enrolled student, not to exceed a certain amount. The student is included in the school district's ADA.

Note: The following provisions apply beginning with the 2011–12 school year. For transition provisions relating to the accreditation and accountability system adopted by the 81st Legislature, see Education Code 39.116.

ACCREDITATION

Each district must be accredited by TEA. A district that is not accredited may not receive funds from TEA or hold itself out as operating a public school of this state. Education Code 11.001, 39.052(f)

ACCREDITATION
STATUSES

The Commissioner shall determine criteria for the following accreditation statuses:

1. Accredited
2. Accredited-warned
3. Accredited-probation

Education Code 39.051

ACCREDITATION
CRITERIA

In determining the accreditation status of the District, the Commissioner shall consider performance on student achievement indicators [see STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT INDICATORS, below] and financial accountability [see CFA].

The Commissioner may also consider:

1. The District's compliance with statutory requirements and requirements imposed by rule of the Commissioner or State Board of Education that relate to:
 - a. Reports required by state or federal law or court order;
 - b. High school graduation requirements; or
 - c. Extracurricular activities, student health and safety, purchasing, elementary class size limits, removal of a disruptive student from the classroom, at-risk programs, and prekindergarten programs.
2. The effectiveness of the District's programs for special populations; and
3. The effectiveness of the District's career and technology program.

The District's accreditation status may be raised or lowered based on the District's performance. The District's accreditation status may be lowered based on the performance of one or more cam-uses in the District that is below a standard required by Education Code Chapter 39, Subchapter F.

Education Code 39.052(b)

STUDENT
INDICATORS

The Commissioner shall adopt a set of indicators of student achievement. The student achievement indicators shall include:

1. The results of state assessments, including the results of assessments required for graduation and retaken by students;
2. Dropout rates; and
3. High school graduation rates.

Performance on the state assessment and dropout rate indicators shall be compared to state standards and required improvement. State standards shall be adopted by the Commissioner.

“Required improvement” is the progress necessary for the campus or District to meet state standards and, for the state assessment indicator, the progress necessary for the students to meet each of the performance standards under Education Code 39.0241 (state assessment standards).

Education Code 39.053

NOTICE OF STATUS

The Commissioner shall notify the District if the District has received an accreditation status of accredited-warned or accredited-probation, or a campus’s performance is below standard. The District must notify the parents of students enrolled in the District and property owners in the District of the accreditation status and its implications. Education Code 39.052(e)

QUALITY OF LEARNING
INDICATORS

In addition to the student achievement indicators, the Commissioner shall adopt indicators of the quality of learning for the purpose of preparing performance reports [see AIB]. The quality of learning indicators must include:

1. The percentage of graduating students who meet the course requirements for the Minimum High School Program, the Recommended High School Program, and the Advanced/Distinguished Achievement High School Program;
2. The results of the SAT, ACT, articulated postsecondary degree programs, and certified workforce training programs;
3. For students who have failed to satisfy the state standard on an assessment, the performance of those students on subsequent assessments, aggregated by grade level and subject area;

4. For each campus, the number of students, disaggregated by major student subpopulations, who agree to take courses under the Minimum High School Program;
5. The percentage of students provided accelerated instruction after unsatisfactory performance on a state assessment, the subject of the assessment on which each student failed to perform satisfactorily, the results of second and third administrations of the assessment, the percentage of such students promoted through the grade placement committee process, and the performance of those students in the following school year on the state assessments;
6. The percentage of students of limited English proficiency exempted from the administration of an assessment;
7. The percentage of students in a special education program assessed through alternative assessment instruments;
8. The percentage of students who satisfy the college readiness measure;
9. The measure of progress toward dual language proficiency for students of limited English proficiency;
10. The percentage of students who are not educationally disadvantaged;
11. The percentage of students who enroll and begin instruction at an institution of higher education in the school year following high school graduation; and
12. The percentage of students who successfully complete the first year of instruction at an institution of higher education without needing a developmental education course.

Education Code 39.301

PERFORMANCE RATINGS

Each year, the Commissioner shall assign each district and campus a performance rating of either acceptable or unacceptable performance. The Commissioner shall evaluate against state standards and consider the performance of each campus in the District on the basis of the campus's performance on the student achievement indicators.

Acceptable performance shall be defined as meeting the state standard established by the Commissioner, based on:

1. Student performance in the current school year; or
2. Student performance as averaged over the current school year and the preceding two school years.

The Commissioner may assign an acceptable performance rating if the campus or District:

1. Performs satisfactorily on 85 percent of the measures the Commissioner determines appropriate with respect to the student achievement indicators. The Commissioner may grant an exception from this criterion only in special circumstances; and
2. Does not fail to perform satisfactorily on the same measure for two consecutive school years.

The Commissioner may grant an exception to the District or a campus if the performance is within a certain percentage, determined by the Commissioner, of the minimum performance standard for the measure of evaluation, or if the District or campus satisfies alternative performance criteria established by the Commissioner.

Education Code 39.054

A student ordered by a juvenile court into a residential program or facility operated by or under contract with the Texas Juvenile Justice Department or another governmental entity is not considered to be a student of the District in which the program or facility is physically located. Education Code 39.055

DESIGNATIONS

The Commissioner shall award distinction designations. The District or campus may not be awarded a distinction designation unless the District or campus has acceptable performance on the student achievement indicators. Education Code 39.201

The Commissioner shall establish a recognized and exemplary rating for districts and campuses. Education Code 39.202

CAMPUS
DESIGNATIONS

The Commissioner shall award distinction designations to campuses that meet one or more of the following criteria:

1. The campus is ranked in the top 25 percent of campuses in the state in annual improvement in student achievement.
2. The campus demonstrates an ability to significantly diminish or eliminate performance differentials between student sub-populations and the campus is ranked in the top 25 percent of campuses in this state under performance criteria adopted by the Commissioner.
3. The campus satisfies the criteria developed by the Commissioner for the following programs or the following specific categories of performance:

- a. Academic achievement in English language arts, mathematics, science, or social studies;
- b. Fine arts;
- c. Physical education;
- d. 21st Century Workforce Development program; and
- e. Second language acquisition program.

In addition, the Commissioner may award a distinction designation to a campus with a significant number of students below grade 9 who perform satisfactorily on an end-of-course assessment instrument. [See EKB]

Education Code 39.203

EXCELLENCE
EXEMPTIONS

Except as listed below, a school or district that is rated exemplary is exempt from requirements and prohibitions imposed under the Education Code, including regulations adopted under the Education Code.

An exemplary campus or district is not exempt from:

1. A prohibition on conduct that constitutes a criminal offense;
2. Requirements imposed by federal law or rule, including requirements for special education or bilingual education programs;
3. A requirement, restriction, or prohibition relating to:
 - a. Curriculum essential knowledge and skills or high school graduation requirements;
 - b. Public school accountability;
 - c. Extracurricular activities;
 - d. Health and safety;
 - e. Purchasing;
 - f. Elementary class size limits;
 - g. Removal of a disruptive student from the classroom;
 - h. At-risk programs;
 - i. Prekindergarten programs;
 - j. Rights and benefits of school employees;
 - k. Special education programs; or

I. Bilingual education programs.

The Commissioner may exempt an exemplary campus from class size limits if the campus submits a written plan showing steps that will be taken to ensure that the exemption will not be harmful to the academic achievement of the students on the school campus. If granted, the exemption remains in effect until the Commissioner determines that achievement levels of the campus have declined.

A specific-purpose committee for supporting or opposing a candidate for the Board shall file its campaign treasurer appointment with the secretary of the District. Election Code 252.006

TERMINATION OF CAMPAIGN
TREASURER
APPOINTMENT

The Board by order may adopt a process by which the secretary of the District may terminate the campaign treasurer appointment of an inactive candidate or political committee that is required to file a campaign treasurer appointment with the secretary of the District.

The order must define “inactive candidate or political committee” and require written notice to the affected candidate or committee of the proposed termination and the effect of termination on the campaign treasurer appointment.

A candidate or political committee is inactive if the candidate or committee:

1. Has never filed or has ceased to file reports under Election Code Chapter 254;
2. In the case of a candidate, has not been elected to an office for which a candidate is required to file a campaign treasurer appointment with the Board; and
3. Has not filed a final report under Election Code 254.065 or 254.125, or a dissolution report under Election Code 254.126 or 254.159.

Before the secretary of the District may terminate a campaign treasurer appointment, the Board must consider the proposed termination in a regularly scheduled open meeting.

The termination of a campaign treasurer appointment under this section takes effect on the 30th day after the date of the meeting at which the Board votes to terminate the appointment. Following that meeting, the secretary of the District shall promptly notify the affected candidate or political committee that the appointment has been terminated. The notice must state the effective date of the termination.

This access is in addition to the public's access to the information through other electronic or print distribution of the information.

The report must be available to the public on the District's Web site not later than the fifth business day after the date the report is filed with the District.

Before making a report available on its Web site, the District may remove each portion, other than city, state, and zip code, of the address of a person listed as having made a political contribution to the person filing the report. MAINTENANCE TAX The Board may levy, assess, and collect annual ad valorem taxes for the maintenance of the District's schools. Education Code 45.002

TAX RATE CAP If authorized by a majority of qualified voters of the District voting at an election held for that purpose, the District may impose a maintenance tax rate at a rate not to exceed the rate stated in the proposition. For any year, the maintenance tax rate per $100 of taxable value adopted by the District may not exceed the rate equal to the sum of $0.17 and the product of the state compression percentage, as determined under Education Code 42.2516, multiplied by $1.50.

A rate that exceeds this maximum rate for the year in which the tax is to be imposed is void. A district with a tax rate that is void under this subsection may, subject to requirements imposed by other law, adopt a rate for that year that does not exceed the specified maximum rate for that year.

Notwithstanding any other law, a district that levied a maintenance tax for the 2005 tax year at a rate greater than $1.50 per $100 of taxable value in the District as permitted by special law may not levy a maintenance tax at a rate that exceeds the rate per $100 of taxable value that is equal to the sum of $0.17 and the product of the state compression percentage, as determined under Education Code 42.2516, multiplied by the rate of the maintenance tax levied by the District for the 2005 tax year.

Education Code 45.003(a), (d)–(f)

APPRAISAL ROLL By August 1 or as soon thereafter as practicable, the District's tax assessor shall submit to the Board the District's appraisal roll, showing the total appraised, assessed, and taxable values of all property and the total taxable value of new property.

Note: The Texas comptroller of public accounts annually publishes Truth in Taxation: A Guide for Setting School District Tax Rates. School districts should consult the Truth in Taxation guide, available in print form or through the comptroller's Web site at <http://www.window.state.tx.us/taxinfo/proptax/tnt11/pdf/96-1212.pdf>, for detailed guidance on setting local property tax rates.

By August 1 or as soon thereafter as practicable, the District's tax collector shall certify to the Board the estimates and amounts required by law.

CERTIFIED ESTIMATE	By April 30, the chief appraiser shall prepare and certify an estimate of the taxable value of District property. Tax Code 26.01(e)
MEETING ON BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX RATE	The Board shall call a public meeting to discuss and adopt its budget and proposed tax rate. The Board must provide notice of the budget and proposed tax rate meeting, as described below. The budget must be adopted before the adoption of the tax rate for the tax year in which the fiscal year covered by the budget begins. [See CE]
PUBLISHED NOTICE	The Board President shall provide for publication of notice of the budget and proposed tax rate meeting in a daily, weekly, or biweekly newspaper published in the District. If no daily, weekly, or biweekly newspaper is published in the District, the President shall provide for publication of notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the District's central administrative office is located. The notice shall be published not earlier than the 30th day or later than the tenth day before the date of the hearing.
FORM OF NOTICE	The published notice of the public meeting to discuss and adopt the budget and the proposed tax rate must meet the size, format, and content requirements dictated by law. The notice is not valid if it does not substantially conform to the language and format prescribed by the comptroller.
TAXPAYER INJUNCTION	If the District has not complied with the published notice requirements in the FORM OF NOTICE described above, and the requirements for DISTRICTS WITH JULY 1 FISCAL YEAR below, if applicable, and the failure to comply was not in good faith, a person who owns taxable property in the District is entitled to an injunction restraining the collection of taxes by the District. An action to enjoin the collection of taxes must be filed before the date the District delivers substantially all of its tax bills.
DISTRICTS WITH JULY 1 FISCAL YEAR	A district with a fiscal year beginning July 1 may use the certified estimate of the taxable value of District property in preparing the published notice if the District does not receive the certified appraisal roll on or before June 7. A district that uses a certified estimate may adopt a budget at the public meeting designated in the published notice prepared using the estimate, but the District may not adopt a tax rate before the District receives the certified appraisal roll for the District. After receipt of the certified appraisal roll, the District must publish a revised notice and hold another public meeting before the District may adopt a tax rate that exceeds:

If the debt service rate calculated under Education Code 44.004(c)(5)(A)(ii)(b) decreases after the publication of the notice required by this section, the Board President is not required to publish another notice or call another meeting to discuss and adopt the budget and the proposed lower tax rate.

Education Code 44.004

TAX RATE

Before the later of September 30 or the 60th day after the date the certified appraisal roll is received, the Board shall adopt a tax rate for the current tax year that reflects the two components, maintenance and operations expenditures and the debt service rate calculated under Education Code 44.004(c)(5)(A)(ii)(b), and shall notify the assessor of the tax rate adopted. The two components shall be approved separately. Tax Code 26.05(a)

The Board may not impose property taxes in any year until it has adopted a tax rate for that year, and the annual tax rate must be set by ordinance, resolution, or order. The vote on the ordinance, resolution, or order setting the tax rate must be separate from the vote adopting the budget. The budget shall be adopted before the adoption of the tax rate. Tax Code 26.05(b); Education Code 44.004(g)

EXCEPTION

The District may adopt a budget after the District adopts a tax rate for the tax year in which the fiscal year covered by the budget begins if the District elects to adopt a tax rate before receiving the certified appraisal roll for the District. If the District adopts a tax rate before the adoption of the budget, the effective tax rate and the rollback tax rate of the District shall be calculated based on the certified estimate of taxable value. Education Code 44.004(j); Tax Code 26.01(e), .05(g)

This additional amount may not exceed the amount the District receives in state aid for the current tax year under Education Code 42.2514. DISTRICT CONTRIBUTION	The District shall, for each fiscal year, pay an amount equal to the number of participating employees multiplied by $1,800.
MINIMUM EFFORT
MAXIMUM EFFORT	Subject to the minimum effort requirement, a district that paid amounts for the 2000–01 school year for employees' health coverage shall, for each fiscal year, continue to pay at least the same amounts for each participating employee, computed as follows: the District shall divide the amount the District paid during the 2000–01 school year for the prior group health coverage plan by the total number of full-time employees in the 2000–01 school year and multiply the result by the number of full-time employees in the fiscal year for which the computation is made. If, for the 2000–01 school year, the District provided group health coverage to its employees through a self-funded insurance plan, the amount the District paid during that school year for the plan includes only the amount of regular contributions made by the District.
	Insurance Code 1581.052
EXCESS FUNDS	If the amount the District is required to pay for maintenance of effort exceeds $1,800 per participating employee, the District may use the excess only to provide employee compensation at a rate greater than the rate of compensation that the District paid an employee in the 2000–01 school year, benefits, or both. Insurance Code 1581, Subch. B

[See DEAB]
EXCEPTION	The District is not required to contribute these amounts for a retiree who retired from TRS before September 1, 2005. Gov't Code 825.4092; Insurance Code 1575.204
DESIGNATION OF COMPENSATION FOR BENEFITS	An employee who is covered by a cafeteria plan or who is eligible to pay health care premiums through a premium conversion plan may elect to designate a portion of the employee's compensation to be used as health care supplementation. [See DEAB]

BASED ON LACK OF DISABILITY

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Texas Commission on Human Rights Act do not provide a basis for a claim that an individual was subject to discrimination because of the individual's lack of disability. 42 U.S.C. 12201(g); 29 CFR 1630.4(b); Labor Code 21.005(c)

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

"Disability" means:

1. An actual disability: a physical or mental impairment [see definition, below] that substantially limits one or more of an individual's major life activities;
2. A record of having such an impairment; or
3. Being regarded as having such an impairment.

An impairment that substantially limits one major life activity need not limit other major life activities in order to be considered a disability. An impairment that is episodic or in remission is a disability if it would substantially limit a major life activity when active.

'REGARDED AS'
HAVING AN IMPAIRMENT

An individual meets the requirement of being "regarded as" having an impairment if the individual establishes that he or she has been subjected to an action prohibited by the ADA because of an actual or perceived physical or mental impairment whether or not the impairment limits or is perceived to limit a major life activity.

TRANSITORY AND MINOR

The "regarded as" prong of the definition does not apply to impairments that are transitory or minor. A transitory impairment is one with an actual or expected duration of six months or less. The "transitory" exception does not apply to the "actual disability" or "record of disability" prongs of the definition.

MITIGATING MEASURES

The determination of whether an impairment substantially limits a major life activity shall be made without regard to the ameliorative effects of mitigating measures, such as medication, medical sup-

Ordinary eyeglasses and contact lenses are lenses that are intended to fully correct visual acuity or to eliminate refractive error.

2. Any mental or psychological disorder, such as an intellectual disability (formerly termed "mental retardation"), organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

29 CFR 1630.3(h)

'MAJOR LIFE

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

The District is required, absent undue hardship, to make a reasonable accommodation to an otherwise qualified individual who meets the definition of disability under the "actual disability" or "record of disability" prongs. The District is not required to provide a reasonable accommodation to an individual who meets the definition of disability solely under the "regarded as" prong. 42 U.S.C. 12112(b)(5); 29 CFR 1630.4(o)(4), .9; 29 U.S.C. 794; 34 CFR 104.11; Labor Code 21.128 [See DBB regarding medical examinations and inquiries under the Americans with Disabilities Act]

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), "genetic information" means information about:

1. An individual's genetic tests;
2. The genetic tests of that individual's family members;
3. The manifestation of disease or disorder in family members of the individual (family medical history);
4. An individual's request for or receipt of genetic services, or the participation in clinical research that includes genetic services by the individual or a family member of the individual; or
5. The genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or by a pregnant woman who is a family member of the individual and the genetic information of any embryo legally held by the individual or family member using an assisted reproductive technology.

"Genetic information" does not include information about the sex or age of the individual, the sex or age of family members, or information about the race or ethnicity of the individual or family members that is not derived from a genetic test.

29 CFR 1635.3(c)

"Genetic test" means an analysis of human DNA, RNA, chromosomes, proteins, or metabolites that detects genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes. Genetic tests include, for example:

1. A test to determine whether someone has the BRCA1 or BRCA2 variant evidencing a predisposition to breast cancer, a test to determine whether someone has a genetic variant associated with hereditary nonpolyposis colon cancer, and a test for a genetic variant for Huntington's Disease;
2. Carrier screening for adults using genetic analysis to determine the risk of conditions such as cystic fibrosis, sickle cell anemia, spinal muscular atrophy, or fragile X syndrome in future offspring;
3. Amniocentesis and other evaluations used to determine the presence of genetic abnormalities in a fetus during pregnancy;

EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVES
GENETIC NONDISCRIMINATION

DAB
(LEGAL)

4. Newborn screening analysis that uses DNA, RNA, protein, or metabolite analysis to detect or indicate genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes, such as a test for PKU performed so that treatment can begin before a disease manifests;
5. Pre-implantation genetic diagnosis performed on embryos created using in vitro fertilization;
6. Pharmacogenetic tests that detect genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes that indicate how an individual will react to a drug or a particular dosage of a drug;
7. DNA testing to detect genetic markers that are associated with information about ancestry; and
8. DNA testing that reveals family relationships, such as paternity.

Examples of tests or procedures that are not genetic tests are:

1. An analysis of proteins or metabolites that does not detect genotypes, mutations, or chromosomal changes;
2. A medical examination that tests for the presence of a virus that is not composed of human DNA, RNA, chromosomes, proteins, or metabolites;
3. A test for infectious and communicable diseases that may be transmitted through food handling;
4. Complete blood counts, cholesterol tests, and liver-function tests.

A test for the presence of alcohol or illegal drugs is not a genetic test. However, a test to determine whether an individual has a genetic predisposition for alcoholism or drug use is a genetic test.

29 CFR 1635.3(f)

NOTICES

The District shall post in conspicuous places on its premises, where notices to employees and applicants for employment are customarily posted, a notice setting forth excerpts from or summaries of the pertinent provisions of the GINA regulation and information pertinent to the filing of a complaint. 29 CFR 1635.10(c)

PROHIBITED
DISCRIMINATION

The District shall not discriminate against an individual on the basis of genetic information in regard to hiring, discharge, compensation, or terms, conditions, or privileges of employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a cause of action for disparate impact is not available under GINA. 42 U.S.C. 2000ff-1(a); 29 CFR 1635.4

ACQUISITION	Except as set forth below or otherwise provided in the GINA regulations, the District shall not request, require, or purchase genetic information of an individual or family member of the individual. 42 U.S.C. 2000ff-1(b); 29 CFR 1635.8(a) “Request” includes: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Making requests for information about an individual’s current health status in a way that is likely to result in the District’s obtaining genetic information. 29 CFR 1635.8(a)

MANIFESTED CONDITION	The District shall not be considered to be in violation of the GINA regulations based on the use, acquisition, or disclosure of medical information about a manifested disease, disorder, or pathological condition of an employee or member, even if the disease, disorder, or pathological condition has or may have a genetic basis or component. However, genetic information about a manifested disease, disorder, or pathological condition is subject to the requirements and prohibitions of GINA. 29 CFR 1635.12 “Manifestation” or “manifested” means, with respect to a disease, disorder, or pathological condition, that an individual has been or could reasonably be diagnosed with the disease, disorder, or pathological condition by a health-care professional with appropriate training and expertise in the field of medicine involved. requests or requires genetic information of the individual or family member of the individual. This exception applies in situations where a manager or supervisor learns genetic information about an individual by:

1. Overhearing a conversation between the individual and others;
2. Receiving the information during a casual conversation, including in response to an ordinary expression of concern that is the subject of the conversation. This exception does not apply where a manager or supervisor follows up with questions that are probing in nature, such as whether other family members have the condition or whether the individual has been tested for the condition, because the supervisor or official should know that these questions are likely to result in the acquisition of genetic information;
3. Receiving unsolicited information (e.g., where a manager or supervisor receives an unsolicited e-mail about the health of an employee's family member from a co-worker); or
4. Accessing a social media platform that the manager or supervisor was given permission to access by the creator of the profile at issue (e.g., a supervisor and employee are connected on a social networking site and the employee provides family medical history on his page).

29 CFR 1635.8(b)(1)(ii)

REQUESTS FOR MEDICAL
INFORMATION

If the District acquires genetic information in response to a lawful request for medical information, the acquisition of genetic information will not generally be considered inadvertent unless the District directs the individual and/or health-care provider from whom it requested medical information not to provide genetic information [see SAFE HARBOR, below]. 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(1)(i)(A)

Situations involving lawful requests for medical information include, for example:

1. Requests for documentation to support a request for reasonable accommodation under federal, state, or local law;
2. Requests for medical information as required, authorized, or permitted by federal, state, or local law, such as where an employee requests leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) to attend to the employee's own serious health condition or where an employee complies with the FMLA's employee return to work certification requirements; or

(LEGAL)

3. Requests for documentation to support leave that is not governed by federal, state, or local laws requiring leave, as long as the documentation required to support the request otherwise complies with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other laws limiting the District's access to medical information.

29 CFR 1635.8(b)(1)(i)(D)

SAFE HARBOR

Any receipt of genetic information in response to a request for medical information shall be deemed inadvertent if the District uses language such as the following:

"The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of an individual or family member of the individual, except as specifically allowed by this law. To comply with this law, we are asking that you not provide any genetic information when responding to this request for medical information. 'Genetic information,' as defined by GINA, includes an individual's family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual's family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services."

The District's failure to give such a notice or to use this or similar language will not prevent the District from establishing that a particular receipt of genetic information was inadvertent if the request for medical information was not likely to result in the District's obtaining genetic information (for example, where an overly broad response is received in response to a tailored request for medical information).

29 CFR 1635.8(b)(1)(i)(B), (C)

EMPLOYMENT EXAMINATIONS

The prohibition on acquisition of genetic information applies to medical examinations related to employment. The District shall tell health-care providers not to collect genetic information, including family medical history, as part of a medical examination intended to determine the ability to perform a job. 29 CFR 1635.8(d)

REMEDIAL
MEASURES

The District shall take additional reasonable measures within its control if it learns that genetic information is being requested or required in medical examinations related to employment. Such reasonable measures may depend on the facts and circumstances under which a request for genetic information was made, and may include no longer using the services of a health-care professional who continues to request or require genetic information during medical examinations after being informed not to do so. 29 CFR 1635.8(d)

HEALTH OR GENETIC SERVICES

The general prohibition against requesting, requiring, or purchasing genetic information does not apply where the District offers health or genetic services, including services offered as part of a voluntary wellness program, if the conditions at 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(2) are met.

The District may not offer a financial inducement for individuals to provide genetic information but may offer financial inducements for completion of health risk assessments that include questions about family medical history or other genetic information. The District shall make clear, in language reasonably likely to be understood by those completing the health risk assessment, that the inducement will be made available whether or not the participant answers questions regarding genetic information.

The District may offer financial inducements to encourage individuals who have voluntarily provided genetic information (e.g., family medical history) that indicates that they are at increased risk of acquiring a health condition in the future to participate in disease management programs or other programs that promote healthy lifestyles, and/or to meet particular health goals as part of a health or genetic service. However, the District must also offer these programs to individuals with current health conditions and/or to individuals whose lifestyle choices put them at increased risk of developing a condition.

29 CFR 1635.8(b)(2)

LEAVE REQUESTS

The general prohibition against requesting, requiring, or purchasing genetic information does not apply where the District requests family medical history to comply with the certification provisions of the FMLA or state or local family and medical leave laws, or pursuant to a policy (even in the absence of requirements of federal, state, or local leave laws) that permits the use of leave to care for a sick family member and that requires all employees to provide information about the health condition of the family member to substantiate the need for leave. 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(3)

PUBLICLY AVAILABLE
INFORMATION

The general prohibition against requesting, requiring, or purchasing genetic information does not apply where the District acquires genetic information from documents that are commercially and publicly available for review or purchase, including newspapers, magazines, periodicals, or books, or through electronic media, such as information communicated through television, movies, or the Internet, except that this exception does not apply to:

2. Genetic information acquired through sources with limited access, such as social networking sites and other media sources which require access permission from a specific individual or where access is conditioned on membership in a particular group, unless the District can show that access is routinely granted to all who request it;
3. Genetic information obtained through commercially and publicly available sources if the District sought access to those sources with the intent of obtaining genetic information; or
4. Genetic information obtained through media sources, whether or not commercially and publicly available, if the District is likely to acquire genetic information by accessing those sources, such as Web sites and online discussion groups that focus on issues such as genetic testing of individuals and genetic discrimination.

29 CFR 1635.8(b)(4)

WORKPLACE
MONITORING

The general prohibition against requesting, requiring, or purchasing genetic information does not apply where the District acquires genetic information for use in the genetic monitoring of the biological effects of toxic substances in the workplace. Such monitoring must meet the criteria at 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(5). 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(5)

INQUIRIES MADE OF FAMILY MEMBERS

The District does not violate the GINA regulations when it requests, requires, or purchases information about a manifested disease, disorder, or pathological condition of an employee whose family member is also employed by the District or who is receiving health or genetic services on a voluntary basis. For example, the District does not violate the GINA regulations by asking someone whose sister also works for the District to take a post-offer medical examination that does not include requests for genetic information. 29 CFR 1635.8(c)

CONFIDENTIALITY

A district that possesses genetic information in writing about an employee must maintain such information on forms and in medical files (including where the information exists in electronic forms and files) that are separate from personnel files. The District must treat such information as a confidential medical record. The District may maintain genetic information about an employee in the same file in which it maintains confidential medical information under the ADA.

Genetic information placed in personnel files before November 21, 2009, need not be removed. The District will not be liable under the GINA regulations for the mere existence of the information in the file. However, the prohibitions on use and disclosure of genetic information apply to all genetic information that meets the statutory definition, including genetic information requested, required, or purchased before November 21, 2009.

Genetic information that the District receives orally need not be reduced to writing but may not be disclosed, except as permitted by 29 CFR part 1635.

Genetic information that the District acquires through sources that are commercially and publicly available, as provided by 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(4), is not considered confidential genetic information but may not be used to discriminate against an individual.

29 CFR 1635.9(a)

DISCLOSURE PERMITTED

A district that possesses any genetic information, regardless of how the District obtained the information (except for genetic information acquired through commercially and publicly available sources), may disclose the information:

1. To the employee (or family member if the family member is receiving genetic services) about whom the information pertains upon receipt of the employee's written request;
2. To an occupational or other health researcher if the research is conducted in compliance with the regulations and protections at 45 CFR part 46;
3. In response to an order of a court. The District may disclose only the genetic information expressly authorized by the order. If the order was secured without the knowledge of the employee to whom the information refers, the District shall inform the employee of the order and any genetic information that was disclosed pursuant to the order;
4. To government officials investigating compliance with Title II of GINA if the information is relevant to the investigation;
5. To the extent the information is disclosed in support of an employee's compliance with the certification provisions of the FMLA or certification requirements under state family and medical leave laws; or
6. To a federal, state, or local public health agency, only with regard to information about the manifestation of a disease or disorder that concerns a contagious disease that presents an imminent hazard of death or life-threatening illness, provided that the individual whose family member is the subject of the disclosure is notified of such disclosure.

SBEC NOTIFICATION

The Superintendent shall promptly notify SBEC in writing by filing a report with the TEA staff within seven calendar days of the date the Superintendent obtains or has knowledge of information indicating that an applicant for or holder of a certificate issued by SBEC has a reported criminal history.

DISCHARGE OF CONVICTED
EMPLOYEES

The District shall discharge or refuse to hire an employee or applicant for employment if the District obtains information through a CHRI review that:

1. The employee or applicant has been convicted of:
 - a. A felony under Penal Code Title 5;
 - b. An offense requiring registration as a sex offender under Code of Criminal Procedure Chapter 62; or
 - c. An offense under the laws of another state or federal law that is equivalent to an offense under paragraphs a or b; and
2. At the time the offense occurred, the victim of the offense was under 18 years of age or was enrolled in a public school.

EXCEPTION

However, the District is not required to discharge or refuse to hire an employee or applicant if the person committed an offense under Title 5, Penal Code and:

2. The employee or applicant for employment satisfied all terms of the court order entered on conviction.

CERTIFICATION TO SBEC Each school year, the Superintendent shall certify to the Commissioner that the District has complied with the above provisions.

SANCTIONS SBEC may impose a sanction on an educator who does not discharge an employee or refuse to hire an applicant if the educator knows or should have known, through a criminal history record information review, that the employee or applicant has been convicted of an offense described above.

OPTIONAL TERMINATION The District may discharge an employee if the District obtains information of the employee's conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude that the employee did not disclose to SBEC or to the District. An employee so discharged is considered to have been discharged for misconduct for the purposes of Labor Code 207.044 (unemployment compensation).

CONSUMER CREDIT REPORTS DEFINITIONS "Adverse action" includes a denial of employment or any other decision for employment purposes that adversely affects any current or prospective employee.

"Consumer report" includes any information from a consumer reporting agency that is used or expected to be used as a factor in establishing the person's eligibility for employment.

"Consumer reporting agency" is an agency that, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties.

"Employment purposes" when used in connection with a consumer report means a report used for the purpose of evaluating a person for employment, promotion, reassignment, or retention as an employee.

15 U.S.C. 1681a

OBTAINING REPORTS The District may not procure a consumer report for employment purposes unless:

ADVERSE ACTION

Before taking any adverse action based on the consumer report, the District shall provide the applicant or employee a copy of the consumer report and a written description of the person's rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, as prescribed by the Federal Trade Commission.

15 U.S.C. 1681b(b)(2)

Note: The following provisions apply to a district that uses consumer reports.

ADDRESS
DISCREPANCIES

"Notice of address discrepancy" means a notice sent to a user by a consumer reporting agency that informs the user of a substantial difference between the address for the consumer that the user provided to request the consumer report and the address(es) in the agency's file for the consumer.

The District must develop and implement reasonable policies and procedures designed to enable the District, when it receives a notice of address discrepancy, to form a reasonable belief that a consumer report relates to the consumer about whom it has requested the report.

If the District regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnishes information to the consumer reporting agency from which it received the notice of address discrepancy, the District must also develop and implement reasonable policies and procedures for furnishing an address for the consumer, which the District has reasonably confirmed is accurate, to the consumer reporting agency.

DISPOSAL OF RECORDS

The District must properly dispose of a consumer report by taking reasonable measures to protect against unauthorized access to or use of the information.

"Dispose" includes discarding or abandoning the consumer report, or selling, donating, or transferring any medium, including computer equipment, upon which the consumer report is stored.

Examples of reasonable measures include:

A driver shall not operate a school bus, school activity bus, or multifunction school activity bus unless he or she has in his or her possession the original, or photographic copy, of the medical examiner's certificate stating that the driver is physically qualified to drive a school bus, school activity bus, or multifunction school activity bus. *Trans. BLOODBORNE
PATHOGEN CONTROL

A district that employs employees who provide services in a public or private facility providing health care-related services, including a home health-care organization, or who otherwise have a risk of exposure to blood or other material potentially containing bloodborne pathogens in connection with exposure to sharps shall comply with the minimum standards set by the Texas Department of State Health Services (TDSHS). This includes a district that operates a public school health clinic.

'SHARPS' DEFINED

"Sharps" means an object used or encountered in a health-care setting that can be reasonably anticipated to penetrate the skin or any other part of the body and to result in an exposure incident, including a needle device, a scalpel, a lancet, a piece of broken glass, a broken capillary tube, an exposed end of a dental wire, or a dental knife, drill, or bur.

MINIMUM STANDARDS

The minimum standards in the TDSHS Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan require the District to:

1. Develop, review annually, update as necessary, and document its actions regarding a comprehensive exposure control plan appropriate to the District and its particular facilities;
2. Provide, at District expense, personal protective equipment and Hepatitis B vaccinations to affected employees, and if an

The District shall not conduct a medical examination or make inquiries of a job applicant as to whether such applicant is an individual with a disability or as to the nature or severity of a disability, except as provided below. However, the District is permitted to make pre-employment inquiries into the ability of an applicant to perform job-related functions, such as asking an applicant to describe or demonstrate how, with or without reasonable accommodation, the applicant will be able to perform job-related functions. 42 U.S.C. 12112(d)(2); 29 CFR 1630.14(a)

The District may require a medical examination (and/or inquiry) after an offer of employment has been made to a job applicant and prior to the beginning of employment duties and may condition the offer on the results of such examination (and/or inquiry), provided all entering employees in the same job category are subjected to such an examination (and/or inquiry) regardless of disability.

The District may require a medical examination (and/or inquiry) of an employee that is job related and consistent with business necessity and may make inquiries into the ability of an employee to perform job-related functions.

The Board may adopt a policy providing for placing an educator on leave of absence for temporary disability if, in the Board's judgment and in consultation with a physician who has performed a thorough medical examination of the educator, the educator's condition interferes with the performance of regular duties. Such a policy must reserve to the educator the right to present to the Board testimony or other information relevant to the educator's fitness to continue the performance of regular duties. SECTION I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

COVERED EMPLOYER All public elementary and secondary schools are “covered employers” under the FMLA, without regard to the number of employees employed. The term “employer” includes any person who acts directly or indirectly in the interest of the District to any of the District’s employees. 29 U.S.C. 2611(4), 2618(a); 29 CFR 825.104(a)

ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEE “Eligible employee” means an employee who:

1. Has been employed by the District for at least 12 months. The 12 months need not be consecutive;
2. Has been employed by the District for at least 1,250 hours of service during the 12-months immediately preceding the commencement of leave; and
3. Is employed at a worksite where 50 or more employees are employed by the District within 75 miles of that worksite.

29 U.S.C. 2611(2); 29 CFR 825.110

[A district that has no eligible employees must comply with the requirements at GENERAL NOTICE, below.]

QUALIFYING REASONS FOR LEAVE The District shall grant leave to eligible employees:

1. For the birth of a son or daughter, and to care for the newborn child;
2. For placement with the employee of a son or daughter for adoption or foster care [For the definitions of “adoption” and “foster care,” see 29 CFR 825.122];
3. To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent with a serious health condition;
4. Because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the employee’s job [For the definition of “serious health condition,” see 29 CFR 825.113];
5. Because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee’s spouse, son, daughter, or parent is a covered military member on covered active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) [For the definition of “covered military member,” see 29 CFR 825.126(b). For the definition of “covered active duty,” see 29 U.S.C. 2611(14)]; and
6. To care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty if the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of the service-member. [For the definitions of “covered servicemember” and “serious injury or illness,” see 29 U.S.C. 2611(15), (18)]

29 U.S.C. 2612(a); 29 CFR 825.112

For provisions regarding treatment for substance abuse, see 29 CFR 825.119.

QUALIFYING
EXIGENCY

An eligible employee may take FMLA leave for one or more of the following qualifying exigencies:

1. Short-notice deployment.
2. Military events and related activities.
3. Childcare and school activities.
4. Financial and legal arrangements.
5. Counseling.
6. Rest and recuperation.
7. Post-deployment activities.
8. Additional activities provided that the District and employee agree that the leave shall qualify as an exigency and agree to both the timing and duration.

29 CFR 826.126

PREGNANCY OR BIRTH

Both the mother and father are entitled to FMLA leave to be with a healthy newborn child (i.e., bonding time) during the 12-month period beginning on the date of birth. In addition, the mother is entitled to FMLA leave for incapacity due to pregnancy, for prenatal care, or for her own serious health condition following the birth of the child. The mother is entitled to leave for incapacity due to pregnancy even though she does not receive treatment from a health-care provider during the absence and even if the absence does not last for more than three consecutive calendar days. The husband is entitled to FMLA leave if needed to care for his pregnant spouse who is incapacitated, during her prenatal care, or following the birth of a child if the spouse has a serious health condition. [For the definition of “needed to care for,” see 29 CFR 825.124] 29 CFR 825.120

DEFINITIONS
'NEXT OF KIN'

“Next of kin of a covered servicemember” (for purposes of military caregiver leave) means:

1. The blood relative specifically designated in writing by the covered servicemember as his or her nearest blood relative for purposes of military caregiver leave under the FMLA. The designated individual shall be deemed to be the covered servicemember's only next of kin; or

2. When no such designation has been made, the nearest blood relative other than the covered servicemember's spouse, parent, son, or daughter, in the following order of priority:
 - a. Blood relatives who have been granted legal custody of the covered servicemember by court decree or statutory provisions,
 - b. Brothers and sisters,
 - c. Grandparents,
 - d. Aunts and uncles, and
 - e. First cousins.

If there are multiple family members with the same level of relationship to the covered servicemember, all such family members shall be considered the covered servicemember's next of kin and may take FMLA leave to provide care to the covered servicemember, either consecutively or simultaneously.

29 CFR 825.127(b)(3)

'PARENT'

"Parent" (for purposes of family, medical, and qualifying exigency leave) means a biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a son or daughter. This term does not include parents "in law." 29 CFR 825.122(b)

For the definition of "parent of a covered servicemember" for purposes of military caregiver leave, see 29 CFR 825.127(b)(2).

'SON OR DAUGHTER'

"Son or daughter" (for purposes of family and medical leave) means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is either under age 18, or age 18 or older and "incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability" at the time that FMLA leave is to commence. 29 CFR 825.122(c)

For the definition of "son or daughter on active duty or call to active duty status" for purposes of qualifying exigency leave, see 29 CFR 825.126(b)(1).

For the definition of "son or daughter of a covered servicemember" for purposes of military caregiver leave, see 29 CFR 825.127(b)(1).

'SPOUSE' "Spouse" means a husband or wife as defined or recognized under state law for purposes of marriage in the state where the employee resides, including common law marriage in states where it is recognized. 29 CFR 825.122(a)

SECTION II: LEAVE ENTITLEMENT AND USE

AMOUNT OF LEAVE Except in the case of military caregiver leave, an eligible employee's FMLA leave entitlement is limited to a total of 12 workweeks of leave during a 12-month period for any one or more of the qualifying reasons.

A husband and wife who are employed by the same district may be limited to a combined total of 12 weeks of FMLA leave during any 12-month period if leave is taken for the birth of a son or daughter, the placement of a child for adoption or foster care, or to care for a parent with a serious health condition.

29 U.S.C. 2612(a), (f); 29 CFR 825.120(a)(3), .200, .201

DETERMINING THE 12-MONTH PERIOD Except with respect to military caregiver leave, the District may choose any one of the following methods for determining the "12-month period" in which the 12 weeks of leave entitlement occurs:

1. The calendar year;
2. Any fixed 12-month "leave year," such as a fiscal year or a year starting on an employee's "anniversary" date;
3. The 12-month period measured forward from the date any employee's first FMLA leave begins; or
4. A "rolling" 12-month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any FMLA leave.

29 CFR 825.200(b)

MILITARY CAREGIVER LEAVE In the case of military caregiver leave, an eligible employee's FMLA leave entitlement is limited to a total of 26 workweeks of leave during a "single 12-month period." The "single 12-month period" is measured forward from the date an employee's first FMLA leave to care for the covered servicemember begins, regardless of the method used by the District to determine the 12-month period for other FMLA leaves. During the "single 12-month period," an eligible employee's FMLA leave entitlement is limited to a combined total of 26 workweeks of FMLA leave for any qualifying reason. 29 CFR 825.200(f), (g)

A husband and wife who are employed by the same district may be limited to a combined total of 26 weeks of FMLA leave during the "single 12-month period" if leave is taken as military caregiver

SUMMER VACATION
AND OTHER
EXTENDED BREAKS

If the District's activity temporarily ceases and employees generally are not expected to report for work for one or more weeks (e.g., a school closing for two weeks for the Christmas/New Year holiday), those days do not count against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. Similarly, the period during the summer vacation when the employee would not have been required to report for duty is not counted against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. 29 CFR 825.200(h), .601(a)

INTERMITTENT OR REDUCED LEAVE SCHEDULE

FMLA leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule under certain circumstances. "Intermittent leave" is FMLA leave taken in separate blocks of time due to a single qualifying reason. A "reduced leave schedule" is a leave schedule that reduces an employee's usual number of working hours per work-week, or hours per workday.

For leave taken because of the employee's own serious health condition, to care for a parent, son, or daughter with a serious health condition, or military caregiver leave, there must be a medical need for leave and it must be that such medical need can be best accommodated through an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. Leave due to a qualifying exigency may also be taken on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis.

When leave is taken after the birth of a healthy child or placement of a healthy child for adoption or foster care, an employee may take leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule only if the District agrees.

29 U.S.C. 2612(b); 29 CFR 825.202

TRANSFER TO ALTERNATIVE POSITION

If an employee requests intermittent or reduced schedule leave that is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the District may require the employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates recurring periods of leave than does the employee's regular position. 29 U.S.C. 2612(b)(2); 29 CFR 825.204

CALCULATING LEAVE USE

When an employee takes leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule, only the amount of leave actually taken may be counted toward the employee's leave entitlement. The District must account for intermittent or reduced schedule leave using an increment no greater than the shortest period of time that the District

LEAVES AND ABSENCES

(LEGAL)

uses to account for use of other forms of leave, provided the increment is not greater than one hour. 29 CFR 825.205

SPECIAL RULES FOR INSTRUCTIONAL
EMPLOYEES

Special rules apply to certain employees of the District. These special rules affect leave taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule, or taken near the end of an academic term (semester) by instructional employees.

“Instructional employees” are those whose principal function is to teach and instruct students in a class, a small group, or an individual setting. This term includes not only teachers, but also athletic coaches, driving instructors, and special education assistants such as signers for the hearing impaired. It does not include teacher assistants or aides who do not have as their principal job actual teaching or instructing, nor does it include auxiliary personnel such as counselors, psychologists, or curriculum specialists. It also does not include cafeteria workers, maintenance workers, or bus drivers.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE NOTICE OF FORESEEABLE LEAVE

If an instructional employee does not give required notice of foreseeable leave to be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule, the District may require the employee to take leave of a particular duration or to transfer temporarily to an alternative position. Alternatively, the District may require the employee to delay the taking of leave until the notice provision is met. 29 CFR 601(b)

20 PERCENT RULE

If an eligible instructional employee needs intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule to care for a family member with a serious health condition, to care for a covered service-member, or for the employee's own serious health condition; the leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment; and the employee would be on leave for more than 20 percent of the total number of working days over the period the leave would extend, the District may require the employee to choose:

1. To take leave for a period or periods of a particular duration, not greater than the duration of the planned treatment; or
2. To transfer temporarily to an available alternative position for which the employee is qualified, which has equivalent pay and benefits and which better accommodates recurring periods of leave than does the employee's regular position.

“Periods of a particular duration” means a block or blocks of time beginning no earlier than the first day for which leave is needed and ending no later than the last day on which leave is needed, and may include one uninterrupted period of leave. If an employee chooses to take leave for “periods of a particular duration” in the case of intermittent or reduced schedule leave, the entire period of leave taken will count as FMLA leave.

29 U.S.C. 2618(c); 29 CFR 825.601, .603

LEAVE AT THE END OF A SEMESTER

As a rule, the District may not require an employee to take more FMLA leave than the employee needs. The FMLA recognizes exceptions where instructional employees begin leave near the end of a semester. As set forth below, the District may in certain cases require the employee to take leave until the end of the semester.

The school semester, or "academic term," typically ends near the end of the calendar year and the end of spring each school year. In no case may a school have more than two academic terms or semesters each year for purposes of the FMLA.

If the District requires the employee to take leave until the end of the semester, only the period of leave until the employee is ready and able to return to work shall be charged against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. Any additional leave required by the District to the end of the semester is not counted as FMLA leave; however, the District shall maintain the employee's group health insurance and restore the employee to the same or equivalent job, including other benefits, at the end of the leave.

29 U.S.C. 2618(d); 29 CFR 825.603

MORE THAN FIVE WEEKS BEFORE
END OF SEMESTER

The District may require an instructional employee to continue taking leave until the end of the semester if:

1. The employee begins leave more than five weeks before the end of the semester;
2. The leave will last at least three weeks; and
3. The employee would return to work during the three-week period before the end of the semester.

DURING LAST FIVE WEEKS OF SEMESTER

The District may require an instructional employee to continue taking leave until the end of the semester if:

1. The employee begins leave during the last five weeks of the semester for any reason other than the employee's own serious health condition or a qualifying exigency;
2. The leave will last more than two weeks; and
3. The employee would return to work during the two-week period before the end of the semester.

DURING LAST THREE WEEKS OF SEMESTER	The District may require an instructional employee to continue taking leave until the end of the semester if the employee begins leave during the three-week period before the end of the semester for any reason other than the employee's own serious health condition or a qualifying exigency. 29 CFR 825.602
SUBSTITUTION OF PAID LEAVE	Generally, FMLA leave is unpaid leave. However, an employee may choose to substitute accrued paid leave for unpaid FMLA leave. If an employee does not choose to substitute accrued paid leave, the District may require the employee to do so. The term "substitute" means that the paid leave provided by the District, and accrued pursuant to established policies of the District, will run concurrently with the unpaid FMLA leave. An employee's ability to substitute accrued paid leave is determined by the terms and conditions of the District's normal leave policy. 29 U.S.C. 2612(d); 29 CFR 825.207(a)
COMPENSATORY TIME	If an employee requests and is permitted to use accrued compensatory time to receive pay during FMLA leave, or if the District requires such use, the compensatory time taken may be counted against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. 29 CFR 825.207(f)
FMLA AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION	A serious health condition may result from injury to the employee "on or off" the job. If the District designates the leave as FMLA leave, the leave counts against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. Because the workers' compensation absence is not unpaid, neither the employee nor the District may require the substitution of paid leave. However, the District and an employee may agree, where state law permits, to have paid leave supplement workers' compensation benefits. If the health-care provider treating the employee for the workers' compensation injury certifies that the employee is able to return to a "light duty job" but is unable to return to the same or equivalent job, the employee may decline the District's offer of a "light duty job." As a result, the employee may lose workers' compensation payments, but is entitled to remain on unpaid FMLA leave until the employee's FMLA leave entitlement is exhausted. As of the date workers' compensation benefits cease, the substitution provision becomes applicable and either the employee may elect or the District may require the use of accrued paid leave. 29 CFR 825.207(d)
MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH BENEFITS	During any FMLA leave, the District must maintain the employee's coverage under any group health plan on the same conditions as coverage would have been provided if the employee had been continuously employed during the entire leave period.

An employee may choose not to retain group health plan coverage during FMLA leave. However, when the employee returns from leave, the employee is entitled to be reinstated on the same terms as before taking leave without any qualifying period, physical examination, exclusion of pre-existing conditions, and the like.

29 U.S.C. 2614(c); 29 CFR 825.209

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

During FMLA leave, the employee must continue to pay the employee's share of group health plan premiums. If premiums are raised or lowered, the employee would be required to pay the new premium rates. 29 CFR 825.210

FAILURE TO PAY
PREMIUMS

Unless the District has an established policy providing a longer grace period, the District's obligations to maintain health insurance coverage cease if an employee's premium payment is more than 30 days late. In order to terminate the employee's coverage, the District must provide written notice to the employee that the payment has not been received. Such notice must be mailed to the employee at least 15 days before coverage is to cease, advising that coverage will be dropped on a specified date at least 15 days after the date of the letter unless the payment has been received by that date. Coverage for the employee may be terminated at the end of the 30-day grace period, if the required 15-day notice has been provided.

Upon the employee's return from FMLA leave, the District must still restore the employee to coverage/benefits equivalent to those the employee would have had if leave had not been taken and the premium payment(s) had not been missed. The employee may not be required to meet any qualification requirements imposed by the plan, including any new preexisting condition waiting period, to wait for an open season, or to pass a medical examination to obtain reinstatement of coverage.

29 CFR 825.212

RECOVERY OF BENEFIT COST

If an employee fails to return to work after FMLA leave has been exhausted or expires, a District may recover from the employee its share of health plan premiums during the employee's unpaid FMLA leave, unless the employee's failure to return is due to one of the reasons set forth in the regulations. The District may not recover its share of health insurance premiums for any period of FMLA leave covered by paid leave. 29 CFR 825.213

RIGHT TO REINSTATEMENT

On return from FMLA leave, an employee is entitled to be returned to the same position the employee held when leave began, or to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. An employee is entitled to reinstatement even if the employee has been replaced or his or her position has been restructured to accommodate the employee's absence. However, an employee has no greater right to reinstatement or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during the FMLA leave period. 29 CFR 825.214(a), .216(a)

MOONLIGHTING
DURING LEAVE

If the District has a uniformly applied policy governing outside or supplemental employment, the policy may continue to apply to an employee while on FMLA leave. A district that does not have such a policy may not deny FMLA benefits on the basis of outside or supplemental employment unless the FMLA leave was fraudulently obtained. 29 U.S.C. 2618(e); 29 CFR 825.216(e)

REINSTATEMENT OF SCHOOL
EMPLOYEES

The District shall make the determination of how an employee is to be restored to "an equivalent position" upon return from FMLA leave on the basis of established Board policies and practices. The "established policies" must be in writing, must be made known to the employee before the taking of FMLA leave, and must clearly explain the employee's restoration rights upon return from leave. Any established policy which is used as the basis for restoration of an employee to "an equivalent position" must provide substantially the same protections as provided in the FMLA. For example, an employee may not be restored to a position requiring additional licensure or certification. 29 CFR 825.604

PAY INCREASES AND BONUSES

An employee is entitled to any unconditional pay increases that may have occurred during the FMLA leave period, such as cost of living increases. Pay increases conditioned upon seniority, length of service, or work performed must be granted in accordance with the District's policy or practice with respect to other employees on an equivalent leave status for a reason that does not qualify as FMLA leave.

Equivalent pay includes any bonus or payment, whether it is discretionary or non-discretionary. However, if a bonus or other payment is based on the achievement of a specified goal such as hours worked, products sold, or perfect attendance, and the employee has not met the goal due to FMLA leave, then the payment may be denied, unless otherwise paid to employees on an equivalent leave status for a reason that does not qualify as FMLA leave. For example, if an employee who used paid vacation leave for a non-FMLA purpose would receive the payment, then an employee who used paid vacation leave for an FMLA-protected purpose also must receive the payment.

29 CFR 825.215(c)

KEY EMPLOYEES

The District may deny job restoration to a key employee if such denial is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the operations of the District. 29 U.S.C. 2614(b); 29 CFR 825.217-.219

SECTION III: NOTICES AND MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

EMPLOYER NOTICES
GENERAL NOTICE

Every covered employer must post on its premises a notice explaining the FMLA's provisions and providing information concerning the procedures for filing complaints with the Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division. The notice must be posted prominently where it can be readily seen by employees and applicants for employment. Covered employers must post this general notice even if no employees are eligible for FMLA leave.

If the District has any eligible employees, it shall also:

1. Include the notice in employee handbooks or other written guidance to employees concerning employee benefits or leave rights, if such written materials exist; or
2. Distribute a copy of the general notice to each new employee upon hiring.

Electronic posting is sufficient if it meets the other requirements of this section.

If the District's workforce is comprised of a significant portion of workers who are not literate in English, the District shall provide the general notice in a language in which the employees are literate.

The District may use Department of Labor (DOL) form WHD 1420 or may use another format so long as the information provided includes, at a minimum, all of the information contained in that notice.

29 CFR 825.300(a)

ELIGIBILITY NOTICE

When an employee requests FMLA leave, or when the District acquires knowledge that an employee's leave may be for an FMLA-qualifying reason, the District must notify the employee of the employee's eligibility to take FMLA leave. If the employee is not eligible for FMLA leave, the notice must state at least one reason why the employee is not eligible.

The District must provide the eligibility notice within five business days, absent extenuating circumstances. Notification of eligibility may be oral or in writing. The District may use DOL form WH-381 to provide such notification to employees. The District shall translate the notice in any situation in which it is required to translate the general notice.

29 CFR 825.300(b)

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
NOTICE

Each time the District provides an eligibility notice to an employee, the District shall also provide a written rights and responsibilities notice. The rights and responsibilities notice must include the information required by the FMLA regulations at 29 CFR 825.300(c)(1).

The District may use DOL form WH-381 to provide such notification to employees. The District may adapt the prototype notice as appropriate to meet these notice requirements. The notice may be distributed electronically if it meets the other requirements of this section. The District shall translate the notice in any situation in which it is required to translate the general notice.

29 CFR 825.300(c)

DESIGNATION
NOTICE

When the District has enough information to determine whether leave is being taken for an FMLA-qualifying reason, the District must notify the employee whether the leave will be designated as FMLA leave. If the District determines that the leave will not be designated as FMLA-qualifying, the District must notify the employee of that determination. Absent extenuating circumstances, the District must provide the designation notice within five business days.

The District may use DOL form WH-382 to provide such notification to employees. If the leave is not designated as FMLA leave because it does not meet the requirements of the Act, the notice to the employee that the leave is not designated as FMLA leave may be in the form of a simple written statement.

The designation notice must include the information required by the FMLA regulations at 29 CFR 825.300(d)(1) (substitution of paid leave), (d)(3) (fitness for duty certification), and (d)(6) (amount of leave charged against FMLA entitlement). For further provisions on designation of leave, see 29 CFR 825.301.

29 CFR 825.300(d)

RETROACTIVE
DESIGNATION

The District may retroactively designate leave as FMLA leave, with appropriate notice to the employee, if the District's failure to timely designate leave does not cause harm or injury to the employee. In addition, the District and an employee may agree that leave will be retroactively designated as FMLA leave. 29 CFR 825.301(d)

DECA
(LEGAL)

EMPLOYEE NOTICE An employee giving notice of the need for FMLA leave must state a qualifying reason for the leave and otherwise satisfy the requirements for notice of foreseeable and unforeseeable leave, below. The employee does not need to expressly assert rights under the Act or even mention the FMLA. 29 CFR 825.301

FORESEEABLE LEAVE An employee must provide at least 30 days' advance notice before FMLA leave is to begin if the need for leave is foreseeable based upon an expected birth, placement for adoption or foster care, or planned medical treatment of the employee, a family member, or a covered servicemember. If 30 days' notice is not practicable, the employee must give notice as soon as practicable. For leave due to a qualifying exigency, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable regardless of how far in advance the leave is foreseeable.

When planning medical treatment, the employee must consult with the District and make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to disrupt unduly the District's operations, subject to the approval of the health-care provider.

29 CFR 825.302

UNFORESEEABLE LEAVE When the approximate timing of leave is not foreseeable, an employee must provide notice to the District as soon as practicable under the facts and circumstances of the particular case. It generally should be practicable for the employee to provide notice of leave that is unforeseeable within the time prescribed by the District's usual and customary notice requirements applicable to such leave. 29 CFR 825.303

COMPLIANCE WITH DISTRICT REQUIREMENTS The District may require an employee to comply with its usual and customary notice and procedural requirements for requesting leave, absent unusual circumstances. If an employee does not comply with usual notice and procedural requirements, and no unusual circumstances justify the failure to comply, FMLA leave may be delayed or denied. 29 CFR 825.302(d)–.303(c)

CERTIFICATION OF LEAVE The District may require that an employee's FMLA leave be supported by certification, as described below. The District must give notice of a requirement for certification each time certification is required. At the time the District requests certification, the District must advise the employee of the consequences of failure to provide adequate certification. 29 CFR 825.305(a)

TIMING In most cases, the District should request certification at the time the employee gives notice of the need for leave or within five business days thereafter or, in the case of unforeseen leave, within five business days after the leave commences. The District may request certification at a later date if the District later has reason to question the appropriateness of the leave or its duration. The employee must provide the requested certification to the District within 15 calendar days after the District's request, unless it is not practicable under the particular circumstances to do so despite the employee's diligent, good faith efforts. 29 CFR 825.305(b)

INCOMPLETE OR INSUFFICIENT
CERTIFICATION

The District shall advise an employee if it finds a certification incomplete or insufficient and shall state in writing what additional information is necessary to make the certification complete and sufficient. The District must provide the employee with seven calendar days (unless not practicable under the particular circumstances despite the employee's diligent, good faith efforts) to cure any such deficiency.

A certification is "incomplete" if one or more of the applicable entries have not been completed. A certification is "insufficient" if it is complete, but the information provided is vague, ambiguous, or non-responsive. A certification that is not returned to the District is not considered incomplete or insufficient, but constitutes a failure to provide certification.

29 CFR 825.305(c)

MEDICAL CERTIFICATION OF SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION

When leave is taken because of an employee's own serious health condition, or the serious health condition of a family member, the District may require the employee to obtain medical certification from a health-care provider. The District may use DOL optional form WH-380-E when the employee needs leave due to the employee's own serious health condition and optional form WH-380-F when the employee needs leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition. The District may not require information beyond that specified in the FMLA regulations.

An employee may choose to comply with the certification requirement by providing the District with an authorization, release, or waiver allowing the District to communicate directly with the health-care provider.

For the definition of "health-care provider," see 29 CFR 825.125.

29 CFR 825.306

GENETIC
INFORMATION

A district subject to the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) shall comply with the GINA rules with respect to a request for medical information. 29 CFR 1635.8(b)(1)(i)(A) [See DAB]

AUTHENTICATION AND CLARIFICATION

If an employee submits a complete and sufficient certification signed by the health-care provider, the District may not request additional information from the health-care provider. However, the District may contact the health-care provider for purposes of clarification and authentication of the certification after the District has given the employee an opportunity to cure any deficiencies, as set forth above. To make such contact, the District must use a health-care provider, a human resources professional, a leave administrator, or a management official. Under no circumstances may the employee's direct supervisor contact the employee's health-care provider.

“Authentication” means providing the health-care provider with a copy of the certification and requesting verification that the information on the form was completed and/or authorized by the health-care provider who signed the document; no additional medical information may be requested.

“Clarification” means contacting the health-care provider to understand the handwriting on the certification or to understand the meaning of a response. The District may not ask the health-care provider for additional information beyond that required by the certification form. The requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy Rule must be satisfied when individually identifiable health information of an employee is shared with the District by a HIPAA-covered health-care provider.

SECOND AND THIRD
OPINIONS

If the District has reason to doubt the validity of a medical certification, the District may require the employee to obtain a second opinion at the District's expense. If the opinions of the employee's and the District's designated health-care providers differ, the District may require the employee to obtain certification from a third health-care provider, again at the District's expense. 29 CFR 825.307(b), (c)

FOREIGN MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

If the employee or a family member is visiting another country, or a family member resides in another country, and a serious health condition develops, the District shall accept medical certification as well as second and third opinions from a health-care provider who practices in that country. If the certification is in a language other than English, the employee must provide the District with a written translation of the certification upon request. 29 CFR 825.307(f)

RECERTIFICATION

The District may request recertification no more often than every 30 days and only in connection with an absence by the employee, except as set forth in the FMLA regulations. The District must allow at least 15 calendar days for the employee to provide recertification.

As part of the recertification for leave taken because of a serious health condition, the District may provide the health-care provider with a record of the employee's absence pattern and ask the health-care provider if the serious health condition and need for leave is consistent with such a pattern.

29 CFR 308

CERTIFICATION—
QUALIFYING
EXIGENCY LEAVE

The first time an employee requests leave because of a qualifying exigency, the District may require the employee to provide a copy of the covered military member's active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military which indicates that the covered military member is on active duty or call to active duty status in support of a contingency operation, and the dates of the covered military member's active duty service.

The District may also require that the leave be supported by a certification that addresses the information at 29 CFR 825.309(b). The District may use DOL optional form WH-384, or another form containing the same basic information, for this certification. The District may not require information beyond that specified in the regulations.

29 CFR 825.309

CERTIFICATION—
MILITARY
CAREGIVER LEAVE

When an employee takes military caregiver leave, the District may require the employee to obtain a certification completed by an authorized health-care provider of the covered servicemember. In addition, the District may request that the employee and/or covered servicemember address in the certification the information at 29 CFR 825.310(c). The District may also require the employee to provide confirmation of a covered family relationship to the seriously injured or ill servicemember.

The District may use DOL optional form WH-385, or another form containing the same basic information, for this certification. The District may not require information beyond that specified in the regulations. The District must accept as sufficient certification "invitational travel orders" ("ITOs") or "invitational travel authorizations" ("ITAs") issued to any family member to join an injured or ill servicemember at his or her bedside.

The District may seek authentication and/or clarification of the certification under the procedures described above. Second and third opinions, and recertifications, are not permitted for leave to care for a covered servicemember.

INTENT TO RETURN TO WORK The District may require an employee on FMLA leave to report periodically on the employee's status and intent to return to work. The District's policy regarding such reports may not be discriminatory and must take into account all of the relevant facts and circumstances related to the individual employee's leave situation. 29 CFR 825.311

FITNESS FOR DUTY CERTIFICATION As a condition of restoring an employee who took FMLA leave due to the employee's own serious health condition, the District may have a uniformly applied policy or practice that requires all similarly situated employees (i.e., same occupation, same serious health condition) who take leave for such conditions to obtain and present certification from the employee's health-care provider that the employee is able to resume work. The District may require that the certification specifically address the employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the employee's job. 29 CFR 825.312

FAILURE TO PROVIDE CERTIFICATION If the employee fails to provide the District with a complete and sufficient certification, despite the opportunity to cure, or fails to provide any certification, the District may deny the taking of FMLA leave. This provision applies in any case where the District requests a certification, including any clarifications necessary to determine if certifications are authentic and sufficient. 29 CFR 825.305

For failure to provide timely certification of foreseeable leave, see 29 CFR 825.313(a). For failure to provide timely certification of unforeseeable leave, see 29 CFR 825.313(b). For failure to provide timely recertification, see 29 CFR 825.313(c). For failure to provide timely fitness-for-duty certification, see 29 CFR 825.313(d).

SECTION IV: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

RECORDS The District shall make, keep, and preserve records pertaining to its obligations under the FMLA in accordance with the recordkeeping requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and the FMLA regulations. The District shall keep these records for no less than three years and make them available for inspection, copying, and transcription by representatives of the DOL upon request.

If the District is preserving records electronically, the District must comply with 29 CFR 825.500(b). A district that has eligible employees must maintain records with the data set forth at 29 CFR 825.500(c). A district that has no eligible employees must maintain just the data at 29 CFR 825.500(c)(1). For districts in a joint employment situation, see 29 CFR 825.500(e).

DEFINITIONS

'ABUSE'

"Abuse" includes the following acts or omissions:

1. Mental or emotional injury to a student or minor that results in an observable and material impairment in the student's or minor's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
2. Causing or permitting a student or minor to be in a situation in which the student or minor sustains a mental or emotional injury that results in an observable and material impairment in the student's or minor's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
3. Physical injury that results in substantial harm to a student or minor, or the genuine threat of substantial harm from physical injury to the student or minor, including an injury that is at variance with the history or explanation given and excluding an accident or reasonable discipline; or
4. Sexual conduct harmful to a student's or minor's mental, emotional, or physical welfare.

'SOLICITATION OF A ROMANTIC
RELATIONSHIP'

"Solicitation of a romantic relationship" means deliberate or repeated acts that can be reasonably interpreted as the solicitation by an educator of a relationship with a student that is romantic in nature. A romantic relationship is often characterized by a strong emotional or sexual attachment and/or patterns of exclusivity, but does not include appropriate educator-student relationships that arise out of legitimate contexts such as familial connections or longtime acquaintance. The following acts, considered in context, may constitute prima facie evidence of the solicitation by an educator of a romantic relationship with a student:

1. Behavior, gestures, expressions, or communications with a student that are unrelated to the educator's job duties and evidence a romantic intent or interest in the student, including statements of love, affection, or attraction. Factors that may be considered in determining the romantic intent of such communications or behavior include:

An educator employed under a probationary contract for the following school year, or under a term or continuing contract, may relinquish the position and leave District employment at the end of the school year without penalty by filing a written resignation with the Board or the Board's designee not later than the 45th day before the first day of instruction of the following school year.

A written resignation mailed by prepaid certified or registered mail to the Board President or the Board's designee at the post office address of the District is considered filed at the time of mailing.

Education Code 21.105(a), .160(a), .210(a)

An unequivocal resignation filed not later than the 45th day before the first day of instruction of the following school year is effective upon filing with the District and the District cannot reject such a resignation. The resignation cannot be withdrawn by the teacher based on an argument that the District has not accepted the resignation. Fantroy v. Dallas Indep. Sch. Dist., Tex. Comm'r of Educ. Decision No. 034-R9-0206 (Mar. 5, 2009); Garcia v. Miles Indep. Sch. Dist., Tex. Comm'r of Educ. Decision No. 055-RI-503 (Nov. 30, 2006)

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES
INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

EFA (LOCAL)

The District shall provide a wide range of instructional resources for students and faculty that present varying levels of difficulty, diversity of appeal, and a variety of points of view. Although trained professional staff are afforded the freedom to select instructional resources for their use in accordance with this policy and the state-mandated curriculum, the ultimate authority for approval lies with the Board.

DEFINITIONS

RECONSIDERATION
COMMITTEE

The District "reconsideration committee" referred to in this policy is a committee appointed annually by the Superintendent or designee to hear requests for reconsideration of instructional resources. The committee shall include but not necessarily be limited to an elementary or secondary campus administrator, an elementary or secondary librarian, and an elementary, middle, or high school teacher. Alternates shall be named to serve in place of appointed members whose campus is involved at the informal reconsideration level.

DAYS

The term "days" as used in this policy shall mean days when the District is open for business.

CONCERNED PARTY

The term "concerned party" as used in this policy shall mean any parent or legal guardian of a District student, 18 year old student, an employee, or any resident of the District.

OBJECTIVES

In this policy, "instructional resources" refers to textbooks, library acquisitions, supplemental materials for classroom use, and any other instructional materials, including electronic resources, used for formal or informal teaching and learning purposes. The primary objectives of instructional resources are to deliver, support, enrich, and assist in implementing the District's educational program. [See EFAA for selection and adoption process of state-adopted instructional materials.]

The Board shall rely on District professional staff to select and acquire instructional resources that:

1. Enrich and support the curriculum, taking into consideration students' varied interests, abilities, learning styles, and maturity levels.
2. Stimulate growth in factual knowledge, enjoyment of reading, literary appreciation, aesthetic values, and societal standards.
3. Present various sides of controversial issues so that students have an opportunity to develop, under guidance, skills in critical analysis and in making informed judgments in their daily lives.

4. Represent many ethnic, religious, and cultural groups and their contributions to the national heritage and world community.
5. Provide a wide range of background information that will enable students to make intelligent judgments in their daily lives.

SELECTION CRITERIA

In the selection of instructional resources, especially library acquisitions and supplemental materials for classroom use, professional staff shall ensure that materials:

1. Support and are consistent with the general educational goals of the state and District and the aims and objectives of individual schools and specific courses consistent with the District and campus improvement plans.
2. Meet high standards in presentation, format, readability, content, accuracy, artistic or literary quality, and educational significance.
3. Are appropriate for the subject and for the age, ability level, learning styles, and social and emotional development of the students for whom they are selected.
4. Are designed to provide information that will motivate students to examine their own attitudes and behavior, to understand their rights, duties, and responsibilities as citizens, and to make informed judgments in their daily lives.

Recommendations for library acquisitions shall involve administrators, teachers, other District personnel, and community representatives, as appropriate. Gifts of instructional resources shall be evaluated according to these criteria and accepted or rejected accordingly.

Selection of materials is an ongoing process that includes the removal of resources no longer appropriate and the periodic replacement or repair of materials still of educational value.

CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES

The selection of library acquisitions on controversial issues shall endeavor to maintain a balanced collection representing various views. Library materials shall be chosen to clarify historical and contemporary forces by presenting and analyzing intergroup tension and conflict objectively, placing emphasis on recognizing and understanding social and economic problems. [See also EMB regarding instruction about controversial issues and EHAA regarding human sexuality instruction]

INFORMAL
RECONSIDERATION

The school receiving a complaint about the appropriateness of an instructional resource shall try to resolve the matter informally using the following procedure:

1. The principal or designee shall explain the school's selection process, the criteria for selection, and the qualifications of the professional staff who selected the questioned material.
2. The principal or designee shall explain the role the questioned material plays in the educational program, its intended educational usefulness, and any additional information regarding its use.
3. If appropriate, the principal or designee may offer a concerned parent other instructional material to be used by that parent's child in place of the challenged material.
4. If the complainant wishes to make a formal challenge, the principal or designee shall provide the complainant a copy of this policy and a Request for Reconsideration of Instructional Materials form [see EFA(EXHIBIT)].

FORMAL
RECONSIDERATION

For formal reconsideration, the concerned party shall complete and sign the Request for Reconsideration of Instructional Resources form and return it to the principal. The request procedures shall be as follows:

1. Within five days of receipt of the Request of Reconsideration of Instructional Resources form, the principal shall notify the Superintendent or designee who shall then inform the District reconsideration committee of the challenge and send the members materials for review and study. The principal shall identify one or more professionals to present the campus's position to the District reconsideration committee.
2. Within five days of receipt of the request, the concerned party and the District professional selecting or using the instructional resource that represents the campus shall be notified of the date for a hearing where they will be given the opportunity to present their reasons for requesting reconsideration orally or in writing.
3. Within 15 days of receipt of the request the committee shall conduct a hearing to consider the information presented by the concerned party and District professional selecting or using the instructional resource and determine whether the ma-

4. Minutes of the committee's hearing reflecting the deliberations and decisions of the committee shall be kept on file. A copy of the minutes shall be sent to the concerned party, the District professional selecting the instructional resource, and members of the committee.
5. The chair of the committee shall notify the concerned party and the District professional selecting or using the instructional resource of the committee's decision within ten days following the hearing.

APPEAL TO THE SUPERINTENDENT

Either the concerned party or the professional selecting or using the instructional resource may appeal any decision of the District reconsideration committee to the Superintendent or designee by filing a written request with the Superintendent or designee within seven days of the committee's decision. The Superintendent shall obtain a copy of the original complaint, the challenged material, the campus and the District reconsideration committee's decisions with accompanying records, and dates of the informal conference with the principal.

The Superintendent shall review these records and the minutes from the committee's hearings along with any administrative recommendation. The Superintendent's hearing shall not be limited to a review of the committee's hearing record. The Superintendent shall hear and consider all relevant and material evidence submitted by the parties at the hearing. The Superintendent shall hear the complaint within 15 days after the written request is filed with the Superintendent and shall communicate his or her decision within ten days following the hearing.

APPEAL TO THE BOARD

Either the concerned party or the District professional selecting or using the instructional resource may appeal any decision made at the Superintendent level to the Board by filing a written request with the Superintendent within seven days of the decision. The appeal procedures shall be as follows:

1. Upon receipt of the request, the Superintendent shall cause to be submitted to the Board within ten days a copy of the following:

2. The Board shall cause notice of the hearing date to be given to the concerned party within 15 days from the date the notice of appeals is received. The Board hearing shall be held within 30 days from receipt of the notice of the appeal to the Board.
 3. The Board may limit its review of the appeal to the record made at the Superintendent's hearing and oral argument, presented at the Board's hearing.

The appealing party is not entitled as a matter of right to present additional evidence to the Board unless he or she can satisfy the Board they were improperly prevented from presenting such evidence to the Superintendent or that such evidence was newly discovered since or not available for the Superintendent's hearing.

The Board shall render its decision within 15 days from completion of the Board's hearing and review.

GUIDELINES

The following guidelines shall be used by the committee(s), Board, and staff in responding to challenges of instructional resources:

1. Access to challenged material shall not be restricted during the reconsideration process.
2. A parent's ability to exercise control over reading, listening, or viewing matter extends only to his or her own children.
3. When instructional resources are challenged, the principles of the freedom to read, listen, and view must be defended as well.
4. It is important when considering material in a challenge that the entire instructional resource is read by all parties concerned.

CRITERIA FOR REMOVING OR LIMITING ACCESS

The following criteria shall be used for removing and limiting access:

1. The major criterion for the decision on challenged materials is the conformity of the material to the selection criteria enumerated in this policy. No challenged library material shall be removed solely because of the ideas expressed therein.

2. A decision to remove or limit access to instructional resources must be content neutral and directly related to legitimate pedagogical concerns. The basis for such decision to remove or limit access shall be sufficiently explained and demonstrated. COMPENSATORY
EDUCATION ALLOTMENT

The District is entitled to an annual compensatory education allotment for each student:

1. Who is educationally disadvantaged; or
2. Who does not have a disability and resides in a residential placement facility in the district in which the student's parent or legal guardian does not reside.

The number of educationally disadvantaged students is determined by the formula set forth at Education Code 42.152(b).

Education Code 42.152(a)–(b)

USE

The District shall use its compensatory education allotment to fund supplemental programs and services designed to eliminate any disparity in performance on state assessment instruments or disparity in the rates of high school completion between students at-risk of dropping out of school, as defined below, and all other students.

Specifically, the District may use the funds, other than an indirect cost allotment established by State Board rule, to meet the costs of providing a compensatory, intensive, or accelerated instruction program under Education Code 29.081, a disciplinary alternative education program (DAEP) under Education Code 37.008, or to support a Title I program, at a campus at which at least 40 percent of the students are educationally disadvantaged.

The District may also use allocated funds for:

1. A mentoring services program under Education Code 29.089;
2. An accelerated reading instruction program under Education Code 28.006(g);
3. A program for treatment of students who have dyslexia or a related disorder, as required by Education Code 38.003; and
4. A program under Education Code 29.081 specifically designed to serve students at risk of dropping out of school.

Education Code 42.152(c), (c-1), (c-2)

LIMIT ON DAEP
EXPENDITURES

The District may not use more than 18 percent of its compensatory education allotment for DAEPs.

The Commissioner may waive this limitation upon an annual petition, by the District's Board and site-based decision making committee, presenting the reason for the need to spend supplemental compensatory education funds on DAEPs.

DROPOUT PREVENTION STRATEGIES

A district with a high dropout rate, as determined by the Commissioner, shall submit a plan to the Commissioner describing the manner in which the District intends to use its compensatory education and high school allotments for developing and implementing research-based strategies for dropout prevention.

If the District is required to submit both a dropout prevention strategy plan and a plan to increase college enrollment [see GNC], the District must describe in its dropout prevention strategy plan how the activities identified in both plans will be coordinated. If the District is required to submit both a school improvement plan, due to failure to meet the required performance standard regarding dropout rates or completion rates, as well as a dropout prevention strategy plan, the District may request that its school improvement plan be used to satisfy both requirements.

The District shall submit the plan not later than December 1 of each school year preceding the school year in which the District will receive the compensatory education or high school allotment to which the plan applies. The plan must meet the requirements at 19 Administrative Code 89.1701(e).

The District may not spend or obligate more than 25 percent of the District's compensatory or high school allotment unless the Commissioner approves the plan.

ASSIGNMENTS

The Board or its designee may assign and transfer any student from one school facility or classroom to another facility or classroom within its jurisdiction. Education Code 25.031

The Board or its designee must make the decision concerning the assignment or transfer of a student on an individual basis and may not consider as a factor in its decision any matter relating to the national origin of the student or the student's ancestral language. Education Code 25.032

SIBLINGS

"Multiple birth sibling" means a twin, triplet, quadruplet, or other sibling resulting from a multiple birth.

"Parent" includes a person standing in parental relation.

PLACEMENT

The parent of multiple birth siblings who are assigned to the same grade level and school may request in writing, not later than the fourteenth day after the first day of enrollment, that the school place the siblings in the same classroom or in separate classrooms.

A school shall provide the placement requested. However, the District is not required to place multiple birth siblings in separate classrooms if the request would require the District to add an additional class to the grade level of the siblings.

The school may recommend to a parent the appropriate classroom placement and may provide professional educational advice to assist the parent with the decision.

These provisions do not affect:

1. A right or obligation regarding the individual placement decisions of the admission, review, and dismissal (ARD) committee with respect to students receiving special education services [see EHBAB]; or
2. The right of a teacher to remove a student from a classroom under Chapter 37 [see FOA].

REASSIGNMENT BY PRINCIPAL

At the end of the first grading period following the multiple birth siblings' enrollment in the school, if the principal of the school, in consultation with the teacher of each classroom in which the siblings are placed, determines that the requested classroom placement is disruptive to the school, the principal may determine the appropriate classroom placement for the siblings.

APPEAL

A parent may appeal the principal's classroom placement in the manner provided by District policy. During an appeal, the siblings shall remain in the classroom chosen by the parent. [See FNG]

This restriction does not prevent the person from attending a school-sponsored event that is open to the public as a member of the public. Education Code 25.001(b-2)

PETITIONS AND OBJECTIONS

The parent or person standing in parental relation may by written petition either:

1. Request the assignment or transfer of the student to a designated school or to a school to be designated by the Board; or
2. File objections to the assignment of the student to the school to which the student has been assigned.

Education Code 25.033, 26.003(a)(1)

PROCEDURE

Upon receiving a written petition, the Board shall proceed as follows:

1. If no hearing is requested, act on the petition not later than the 30th day after the petition is submitted and notify the petitioner of its conclusion; or
2. If a hearing is requested, designate a time and place for holding a hearing not later than the 30th day after the petition is submitted.

If a hearing is requested, it shall be conducted by the Board in compliance with the following:

1. The petitioner may present evidence relevant to the student.
2. The Board may conduct investigations as to the objection or request, examine any student involved, and employ agents, professional or otherwise, for the purpose of examinations and investigations.

BOARD'S DECISION

The decision of the Board, with or without a hearing, shall be final, unless the student, or the parent, guardian, or custodian of the student as next friend, files an exception to the decision as constituting a denial of any right of the student guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution.

If such an exception is filed, the Board may reconsider its decision. If the Board has not ruled on the exception before the 16th day after the date of the filing, the objection is considered overruled. If the exception is overruled, an appeal of the Board's decision may be filed in the district court of the county in which the Board is located.

STUDENTS WHO ARE VICTIMS OF BULLYING

On the request of a parent or other person with authority to act on behalf of a student who is a victim of bullying, the Board or its designee shall transfer the victim to:

The transfer of a student with a disability who receives special education services and who engaged in bullying may be made only by a duly constituted ARD committee under Education Code 37.004.

DEFINITION

"Bullying" has the meaning assigned by Education Code 37.0832. [See FFI]

The Board or designee shall verify that a student has been a victim of bullying before transferring the student. The Board may consider past student behavior when identifying a bully.

The determination by the Board or designee is final and may not be appealed. The procedures set forth at Education Code 25.034 [see PETITIONS AND OBJECTIONS, PROCEDURE, above] do not apply to a transfer under this provision.

The District is not required to provide transportation to a student who transfers to another campus under this provision.

A student residing in the same household as the transferred special education student is eligible for a transfer if:

1. The other student is entitled to attend school in the District [see FD];

RECOMMENDED PROGRAMS

The Texas Department of State Health Services (TDSHS), in coordination with TEA, shall provide and annually update a list of recommended best practice-based early mental health intervention and suicide prevention programs for implementation in public elementary, junior high, middle, and high schools within the general education setting. The District may select from the list a program or programs appropriate for implementation in the District.

The programs on the list must include components that provide for training counselors, teachers, nurses, administrators, and other staff, as well as law enforcement officers and social workers who regularly interact with students, to:

1. Recognize students at risk of committing suicide, including students who are or may be the victims of or who engage in bullying;
2. Recognize students displaying early warning signs and a possible need for early mental health intervention, which warning signs may include declining academic performance, depression, anxiety, isolation, unexplained changes in sleep or eating habits, and destructive behavior toward self and others; and
3. Intervene effectively with students described by items 1 or 2 above, by providing notice and referral to a parent or guardian so appropriate action, such as seeking mental health services, may be taken by a parent or guardian.

POLICY

The Board may adopt a policy concerning early mental health intervention and suicide prevention that:

1. Establishes a procedure for providing notice of a recommendation for early mental health intervention regarding a student to a parent or guardian of the student within a reasonable amount of time after the identification of early warning signs, which may include declining academic performance, depression, anxiety, isolation, unexplained changes in sleep or eating habits, and destructive behavior toward self and others;
2. Establishes a procedure for providing notice of a student identified as at risk of committing suicide to a parent or guardian of the student within a reasonable amount of time after the identification of early warning signs;
3. Establishes that the District may develop a reporting mechanism and may designate at least one person to act as a liaison officer in the District for the purposes of identifying students in need of early mental health intervention or suicide prevention; and

4. Sets out available counseling alternatives for a parent or guardian to consider when his or her child is identified as possibly being in need of early mental health intervention or suicide prevention.

The policy must prohibit the use without the prior consent of a student's parent or guardian of a medical screening of the student as part of the process of identifying whether the student is possibly in need of early mental health intervention or suicide prevention.

The policy and any necessary procedures adopted must be included in the annual student handbook and the district improvement plan under Education Code 11.252. [See BQ]

District policy and procedures are not intended to interfere with the rights of parents or guardians and the decision-making regarding the best interest of the child. District policy and procedures are intended to notify a parent or guardian of a need for mental health intervention so that a parent or guardian may take appropriate action. School districts do not have the authority to prescribe medications. Any and all medical decisions are to be made by a parent or guardian of a student.

1. Specify the circumstances, consistent with Education Code Chapter 37, Subchapter A, under which a student may be removed from a classroom, campus, or disciplinary alternative education program (DAEP).
2. Specify the conditions that authorize or require a principal or other appropriate administrator to transfer a student to DAEP.
3. Outline conditions under which a student may be suspended, as provided by Education Code 37.005 [see FOB], or expelled, as provided by Education Code 37.007 [see FOD].
4. Specify that consideration will be given, as a factor in each decision concerning suspension, removal to a DAEP, expulsion, or placement in a juvenile justice alternative education program, regardless of whether the decision concerns a mandatory or discretionary action, to:
 - a. Self-defense;
 - b. Intent or lack of intent at the time the student engaged in the conduct;
 - c. A student's disciplinary history; or
 - d. A disability that substantially impairs the student's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of the student's conduct.
5. Provide guidelines for setting the length of removal to a DAEP or of expulsion. Except as provided by Education Code 37.007(e) (Gun-Free Schools Act [see FOD]), the District is not required to specify a minimum term of removal or expulsion.

 - a. Managing students in the classroom and on school grounds;
 - b. Disciplining students; and
 - c. Preventing and intervening in student discipline problems, including bullying, harassment, and making hit lists.

The methods adopted must provide that a student who is enrolled in a special education program under Education Code Chapter 29, Subchapter A, may not be disciplined for bullying, harassment, or making of hit lists until an admission, review, and dismissal (ARD) committee meeting has been held to review the conduct. [See FOF]

ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES

If the District elects to contract with the juvenile board for the placement of students who are expelled for conduct for which expulsion is permitted but not required under Education Code 37.007, and the juvenile board and the District are unable to reach an agreement in the MOU, either party may request that the issues of dispute be referred to a binding arbitration process that uses a qualified alternative dispute resolution arbitrator.
