Re: October, 2014 Report

- 1. Title I and State Compensatory Education – Currently, Ms. Jones and I are working to ensure that we have everyone who qualifies for free and reduce lunches are identified. Currently we have 292 students who qualified for this program. Ms. Jones is reviewing and processing the applications. This number drives our funding for Title 1 and SCE.
- 2. Dyslexia State Plan Overview – On October 7th, I attended this training in order to review and update our local plan.
- 3. PSLA, PASCD and Instructional Leadership – On October 8th, I attended the PSLA, PASCD and Instructional Leadership meetings.
- 4. HQ Meeting with Sharon Mills – On October 16, the Administrative team met with Sharon Mills, our Title I consultant from ESC, to finalize our HQ report.
- 5. Title III Fall Coordinator’s Meeting – On October 20th, the district coordinators from around the region met to learn about the new information from TEA and USDE.
- 6. PEIMS Coordinator’s Meeting – On October 21, I attended the PEIMS coordinator’s meeting to learn about the PEIMS updates from TEA.
- 7. ESL TETN – On October 23, I viewed the TETN on state assessment for our ESL students.
- 8. Migrant Service Update Webinar – On October 24th, I participated in the Migrant Service Update Webinar.
- 9. GT Coordinator’s Fall Meeting – On October 24, I attended the Fall Coordinator’s meeting for GT.
- 10. Curriculum Leadership – On October 27th, the admin team met with Brenda Foster and Lola West, our curriculum leadership consultants to review the data from our first round of instructional walks.
- 11. PBMAS – On October 29th, the admin team, special education teachers and Mrs. Hund met to discuss what is needed for the PBMAS plan that we are required to write. Our next meeting is November 5th. Plan is due in mid-November.

12. Shattered Dreams – the DEIC voted to hold another Shattered Dreams event this spring. We had our organizational meeting on October 29th. Our next meeting will be on November 12th.
