- Students will demonstrate evidence of mastery of Algebra I by the end of 9th grade.
- Students will demonstrate evidence of reading on grade level by the end of 3rd grade.

Purpose of Report:

The purpose of this report is to provide campus and district ADA percentages for the 2023-2024 school year (August 10 – May 24, 2024) and to compare this data to prior years.

Objective:

The objective is to routinely analyze and monitor Denton ISD's attendance data with the goal of improving student attendance. By making this data readily accessible throughout the school year, the district will raise awareness of school attendance and monitor trends and changes across the district. The district will also provide transparent communication, training, and support; where needed, to improve student attendance in Denton ISD.

Operational Impact:

The analysis and monitoring of attendance data will increase the funding received from ADA, increase academic success, and school completion, and support the district Value Statements.

Results:

There are 180 instructional days in this school year. The district ADA for the 2023-2024 school year is 94.58%, this is a slight increase from last school year when the ADA was 94.50%. While we slowly continue to improve in our yearly ADA, like most school districts in Texas, we are not where we were pre-COVID.

At the elementary level, the three campuses with the highest ADA were: EP Rayzor (96.73%), Adkins (96.49%), and Blanton (96.33%). The campuses with the lowest ADA were: Paloma Creek (93.66%), Bell (93.91%), and Evers (94.38%).

At the middle school level, the two campuses with the highest ADA were: Harpool (96.07%) and Crownover (95.97%). The two campuses with the lowest ADA were: McMath (94.09%) and Myers (94.14%).

At the high school level, the campus with the highest ADA was Guyer (95.13%) and the lowest ADA was Braswell (92.83%).
