Principal’s General Narrative: The Jr. High School teaching staff has worked diligently and has done a great job in preparing the students for academic, athletic, musical, and testing endeavors. The first semester was a successful one and as the students return to school for the very busy second semester, the teachers are ready to pick up where they left off in their preparing students for all the activities they will be undertaking.

The Jr. High School staff would like to let you know that they appreciate your efforts in making it possible for them to accomplish great things with the students in their charge.

Respectfully, George T. “Stoney” Burks
