

Required Documentation of Eminent Domain Authority in Texas

What action must be taken: Per Senate Bill 18 enacted by the 82nd Legislature, all public and private entities authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain in Texas are required to submit a letter to the Comptroller of Public Accounts detailing their legal authority to exercise this power. The letter must be sent by certified, return receipt mail not later than December 31, 2012. (Per the bill, the authority of an entity to exercise the power of eminent domain expires on September 1, 2013, unless the letter has been submitted by the deadline.)

About this form: This form is designed to guide entities in submitting the required information on eminent domain authority. Once the fields have been completed, the form can be printed and mailed via certified, return receipt to the address provided to meet the requirements of the bill.

General Authority
 Wylie Independent School District is an entity with authority to exercise the power of eminent domain because it is an independent school district created in accordance with the laws of Texas. Specifically, the Texas Education Code states:
 An independent school district may, by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, acquire the fee simple title to real property on which to construct school buildings or for any other public use necessary for the district.
 Tex. Educ. Code § 11.155 (a).
 Jointly with other governmental entities
 The District also has authority to exercise the power of eminent domain if it creates an athletic stadium authority pursuant to Chapter 45, Subchapter F of The Texas Education Code.
 For the purpose of carrying out any power conferred by this subchapter, an authority may acquire the fee simple title to land and other property and easements by condemnation in the manner provided by Chapter 21, Property Code.
 Tex. Educ. Code § 45.161.
 In addition, the District may exercise the power of eminent domain jointly with a municipality for limited purposes under Texas Local Government Code, Chapter 273.
 A municipality may, in accordance with this chapter, acquire property separately or jointly with another municipality or other governmental entity by gift, dedication, or purchase, with or without condemnation.
 Condemnation of property under this chapter shall be in accordance with state law relating to eminent domain, which may be Chapter 21, Property Code, or any other state law governing and relating to the condemnation of land for public purposes by a municipality.
 Tex. Local Gov't Code §§ 273.001, .002.

9. Please indicate the first year in which this entity exercised eminent domain authority (if known): _____

DISCLAIMER: Chapter 2206, Subchapter C, Government Code (as added by Senate Bill 18, 82nd Regular Session) requires the Comptroller of Public Account to collect information and report to the Legislature all entities in the state of Texas that have the authority to exercise the power of eminent domain. Entities that provide information to the Comptroller represent and warrant that the information is accurate and complete to the best of their knowledge. Entities that provide information acknowledge that it is their responsibility to submit a letter by certified mail, return receipt requested to the Comptroller's office, indicating that the Entity is authorized to exercise eminent domain authority and to identify each law that grants such authority. The Entity further acknowledges that the Comptroller's office is not responsible to submit said letter, nor is it responsible for the Entity's failure to submit said letter as required by law, and that such failure may cause the entity's power of eminent domain to expire on September 1, 2013. The Entity also acknowledges that the Comptroller of Public Accounts is a state agency subject to Chapter 552 of the Texas Gov't Code (the "Texas Public Information Act") and court interpretations thereof, and that the information submitted to this office may be subject to disclosure to the public under Section 552.101, et seq., of the Code.
