

Student-Parent Handbook

Elementary/Secondary

Summary of Changes

2017-2018

Page 34 - Bullying: Added statements due to new bullying laws:

- “David’s Law” – SB 179 makes it clear that bullying does not have to involve a pattern of repeated behavior. “A single, significant act” might be sufficient to meet the definition of bullying.
- Students who have experienced bullying or who have witnessed bullying of another student and who wish to report the incident anonymously should follow their school’s process for reporting the incident.
