Move that the Board of Education of the Livonia Public Schools School District approve the terms of the agreement reached with the Livonia Secretarial Association, and approved by their membership, to amend the collective bargaining agreement between the parties, effective July 1, 2017, to reflect an agreement on the wage reopener for 2017-2018, as well as a one year extension of the current contract through the 2018-2019 school year.

RATIONALE

The Board, through its designated representative, has met with the Livonia Secretarial Association pursuant to a wage reopener for 2017-2018. The issues bargained by the parties were wages and medical insurance. A tentative agreement has been reached between the parties, which calls for the wage schedule to reflect an increase for the 2017-2018 contract year. The Board, through its designated representative, has also met with the LSA on a one-year extension of the current contract through the 2018-19 school year.
