

Recognition
Board of Trustee Meeting
Sept. 12, 2017

LAGRONE ATC State Winners

Members of the LaGrone ATC Law Enforcement Post 518 finished their state level competition at The University of Texas at Arlington this past July. The 21 members were divided into teams that specialize and compete in different areas.

Team #1 Liz Lumbreras, Ivan Hernandez, Adriana Loreda and Guillermo Ibarra.

Intoxicated Driver Exercise – First place

Suicidal/Mental Person Diffusion – First place

Team #2 Taylor Johnson, Jennifer Crespo, Kris Fernandez and Ryder Peeters

Unknown Call for Police – Third place

Team #3 Citlalli Curiel, Kristen Moore, Adrian Ameida and Gerardo Miranda.

Arrest, Search & Seizure Exercise – Third place

Crime Scene Search – Third place

Individual Event: Physical Agility

Citlalli Curiel – Second place

Guillermo Ibarra – Third place

Explorer Captain Liz Lumbreras was awarded a $750 scholarship.

Exploring is a program designed by Learning for Life (a sub-division of the Boy Scouts of America) for young adults, both male and female, ages 14 - 20 that share an attraction to a specific career such as law enforcement.

Many different law enforcement agencies sponsor Explorer programs in the education of participants to become our future law enforcement officers or to have a career in law enforcement. The program provides an ideal link between the academic environment and the real world.

The sponsor is Andrea King, criminal justice instructor.

DENTON ISD Back-to-School Supporters

Denton ISD would like to recognize the following businesses and organizations for their partnership in providing school supplies during a variety of back-to-school drives this summer.

Interfaith Ministries coordinated the annual Apple Tree Project, which provides back-to-school assistance for families in need in the form of school supplies and gift cards for shoes. Ernestina Lopez, outreach and development specialist is representing them.

Health Services of North Texas hosted their “Good Start Back to School Giveaway” event, serving 860 children and their families with health education, backpacks and school supplies. Their representatives are Doreen Rue, chief executive officer, and Teri Johnson, community outreach director.

The City of Denton also hosted a Back-to-School Event, providing backpacks and school supplies for the local community, as well as free vision screenings and immunizations. Representing the Denton Police Department is Cleopatra Birckbichler, background investigator/recruiter.

Kroger in Denton and Lantana conducted school supply drives in their stores, donating more than four pallets of supplies to campuses. Little Guys’ Movers and representatives from the Denton Food Pantry assisted in moving the pallets of supplies to the district’s warehouse. Tanci Paulson, volunteer, is with Denton Food Pantry.

Mission Moms provided school supplies for students in need at Adkins, Blanton, and E.P. Rayzor Elementary schools and Harpool Middle School. Mission Moms is represented by Kathryn Flores, volunteer.

Argyle United Methodist Church provided a hundred uniforms and school supplies to Borman Elementary School students through their UP-Ministry program. Argyle UMC and the UP Ministry is represented by Jennifer Lillis.

Members of the Trinity United Methodist Church collected school supplies for W.S. Ryan Elementary School. Representing Trinity UMC is Jean Peterson, member.

We would like to thank the numerous donors and organizations that continue to support our school district in all ways – big and small.