

Pursuant to the School Board's Annual Agenda, adopted in January, the discussion of strategic goals should begin in May. Last month, the school board assigned the top ideas from each of the stakeholder categories to District Exit Outcomes. That work is attached in the document "Stakeholder Input by EO". A history of previous school board goals is also attached. I recommend the school board review the data and discuss how to start developing goals next month.