Moises L. Alfaro, Ed.D.

Mathis I.S.D. School Board of Trustees Member

Moises L. Alfaro is a current board member of the Mathis I.S.D. currently in his 7th year of service. He is a former educator having taught in the Pasadena I.S.D. (1997-1998) and Mathis I.S.D. as an elementary bilingual education teacher (1998-2004). Moises has also served as an assistant principal and principal of Mathis Intermediate School and associate principal for the Mathis High School for International Studies School (2004-2012). Currently he works as an HSE (Health, Safety, and Environmental) Manager for Brown and Root Industrial Services at the Celanese Chemical Plant in Bishop, Texas. Moises also works part-time for the Education Service Center Region 2 as a field supervisor for the Crossroads adult education program.

Moises was educated at the University of Texas at Austin having graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology in 1995. In 2004, Moises obtained a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Texas A&M University-Kingsville and in 2011 received a doctorate in Educational Leadership from TAMUK as well.

In the 2011-2012 school year, Moises received the TASSP (Texas Association of Secondary School Principals) Assistant/Associate Principal of the year award for Region 2. Moises' dissertation was also selected to be presented at the AABRI (Academic and Business Research Institute) Conference in 2012. Moises also had the honor of being a keynote speaker at the 2011 Mathis High School graduation.

Moises is a life-long resident of Mathis where he attended public school and currently resides with his wife [REDACTED] and two children, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is a retired elementary teacher from Mathis ISD; [REDACTED] recently graduated from UT Health-School of Health Professions with a Master's Degree in Respiratory Health; and [REDACTED] is in his second year of medical school at the Long School of Medicine at UT Health in San Antonio.
