1. Welcome-Present: Sarah Biggs, Lindsey Namanny, Diana Miller, Amanda Sarver, Matt Knight, Kierstin Gaskin, and Angela Teal.
 - a. Absent:
2. Review of the Previous Month
 - a. The first week of school focused on teaching the students core values and the 3Rs via a group agreement activity
 - b. 3R/climate and culture update.
 - i. Knight Flight- games are played and prizes are given at every assembly.
 - ii. Knight of the Week- Every Thursday, a student is awarded the Knight of the Week award. They get some school swag, a custom shoutout in their classroom, a photo on Carousel, and they get to present the next Knight of the Week.
 - iii. 3R Star- the top staff member and student receive a prize. These two were recognized at our first assembly and received a prize. They were also both able to throw a Knight Flight to win the school/their class a prize.
 - iv. Positive Notes- 522 students have received a positive note
 1. 3R coins this year- Several have already been given out. It is an awesome experience to share with students.
 - v. Back to school night- had a decent turnout for a very hot day outside. Next year, we will try out In-Service Week for our Back to School night.
 - vi. Max Jones, Oregon Regional Teacher of the Year Award recipient.
 - vii. New door system
 - c. Academic Update
 - i. Incompletes- Diana. We have already made up quite a few incompletes so far this year.
 - ii. Cell Phone Executive Order- the cell phone policy is in the works with great results. Students are connecting more, engaged in school and academics. Plus, students are respectful when they are redirected and reminded of the rule.
 - iii. PLC work- teaching and admin staff are working on data meetings every week after students leave.
 - iv. Attendance- sickness is going around so attendance is down but we are overall off to a great start.
 1. Goal to increase 4% attendance rate.
 - v. Enrollment has increased for us here at NVHS! We have roughly 430 students who come in person as compared to just under 400 in years past.
