Information about the play:

Set in the 1940's during a harsh winter storm, a young couple, Robert and Claire Williams, arrive at an old house just before a snowstorm isolates them. Since her child's death, the wife has been in a sanitarium and the guilt and tensions of their loss has all but destroyed their relationship. They try to rebuild their mutual trust, but soon Claire starts to hear voices and she begins to see the pale figure of a young girl but Robert sees nothing. As the snow and night falls, the voices of a happy family playing joyfully grow louder and more insistent until.....
