To: John, Toni, Pat

This letter is to inform you that I will be retiring effective June 20, 2022. This has been a VERY difficult decision as I absolutely LOVE my job--teaching PreK has been the icing on my teaching career. After much agonizing and 10 years of being on the fence about retirement, I feel this is the best decision for me. My heart says no to retirement but my body says yes.

I am grateful for the years I have taught in Browning. When I signed on in June of 1981, (my salary was $9,600 with 4 years of experience and an MA degree!) I had no idea that I would spend the rest of my career in Browning. It has been a wild ride but oh so rewarding. I am actually teaching the grandchildren of former students and teaching the great grandchildren of former colleagues. Thank you so much for the experience of teaching in Browning. Hopefully retirement will be as rewarding.

Sincerely,
Ruth R Shea
