

SUBJECT: Consideration and possible approval of the continuation of a Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) unit at South Houston High School.

BACKGROUND: The Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) program at South Houston High School has been an integral part of the school for many years. The program aims to develop leadership skills, discipline, and a sense of civic duty among students. It provides a structured environment where students can learn about military history, customs, and physical fitness while also fostering personal growth and academic achievement. The continuation of the JROTC unit at South Houston High School will ensure that students continue to benefit from these opportunities. Additionally, the JROTC program supports community engagement through various service projects and events, further enriching the students' educational experience.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS: None

RECOMMENDATION: We recommend approval of the continuation of the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) unit at South Houston High School.
