

Construction Update December 8, 2008

1. New stadium lighting work has begun. Bases for light poles have been installed. Weather permitting, could be complete by early January.
2. The slab is complete for the new visitor restroom facility at Bulldog stadium. Block work was completed today. This facility should be completed in January.
3. Work has begun for additional dressing facilities at Bulldog stadium. Completion of this project should be in late January.
4. The construction of additional seating on the visitor stands at Bulldog stadium will begin when the soccer season is complete.
5. The construction phase of the new press box and additional seating on the home side of Bulldog stadium will begin this week. The completion date is August 1st.