Educational Rationale

The trip is a part of an incentive for 8th graders to visit Milwaukee, Wisconsin with the purpose to explore the history and culture of the city and county as well as celebrate their educational growth over the course of the middle school years. The students will take part in visiting the Milwaukee County Zoo, Milwaukee Public Museum, Mayfair and Six Flags Great America. The goal is to reward students for the academic and behavioral development in middle as well as provide direct exposure to the structure and functions of Milwaukee. This is consistent with the standards of college and career readiness, as it relates to middle school students.
