

To: Shane Peters

From: Lori Graves

Date: July 7, 2025

RE: David Sokolowski

It is my recommendation that Bridgman Public Schools hire David Sokolowski as a special education teacher for Bridgman Elementary School. David was selected by an interview committee which consisted of one special education teacher, four general education teachers, and the building principal.

David has experience as an English Language Arts Interventionist. He has also taught second grade as a year long substitute. David has attended Kalamazoo Valley Community College and Purdue University Northwest.