Subject: Staff Recognition

Description: Browning High School Athletic Department would like to acknowledge the following Staff for their accomplishments in fall and winter athletics.

Darryl "Poorboy" Croff – Northwest A Girls Basketball Co-Coach of the Year. Poorboy is in his second season as our Head Girls Basketball Coach and was voted among his peers for this great honor of Coach of Year. He works hard at preparing his teams to become great athletes and outstanding citizens.

Josephine Wagner – Administrative Assistant Josephine does an outstanding job in the Athletic Department. She does a tremendous amount of work in the Athletic Department. She is stays on top of purchase orders, billing, athletic trips, concessions, fundraising, filing, ordering of equipment. She has a great relationship with other staff and students of the high school. She is always there to help staff and students when they are needing help with something.

Theresa Steele – Concessions and ticket booth worker, Theresa does an amazing job getting the concession food ready for each of our athletic events. After a long day preparing the food for concessions, she goes into the ticket booth at our athletic events and does a great job taking in the ticket sales to our events. She puts in the time after each event to clean up and put everything away for the day.
