Dear School Representative,

A student of yours has received the following scholarship and educational opportunity to attend one of the nation's largest gatherings of Indian producers at the 31st Membership Meeting of the Intertribal Agriculture Council, held at the Hard Rock Hotel & Resort in Las Vegas, NV, December 10th – 14th, 2017.

Youth scholarship recipients will meet with nations from around the country and exchange ideas about rural life, agriculture and their Tribal heritage. We sincerely hope that this individual's school will support the outstanding accomplishment of earning this national opportunity by forgiving the youth's absence from class during the dates outlined above.

The Intertribal Agriculture Council (IAC) Scholarship will cover all expenses for travel and conference attendance for over 50 youth and their adult chaperones, representing more than 35 tribal nations from across the country. Youth that have earned this scholarship are outlined in the footer of this letter.

Conference participants will interact with presentations addressing food as an economic development tool, successful resource conservation programs from Tribes around the nation, and pathways to a successful career in agriculture. Youth will realize their influence on their home communities as they learn to effectively advocate for national policies, such as the upcoming 2018 Farm Bill. Designed specifically for youth leadership development, this conference will employ team-driven and community focused assignments exercising the technologies available today while embracing the cultures present. This youth led movement brings together a national level of the next generation of Indian Country's leadership, an infrequent opportunity!

Thank you for your consideration to this matter. Should there be questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ross R. Racine
