To Whom It May Concern:

Sheri Nebeker, our school's esteemed Math Department Chair, Instructional Coach, and mentor, is an exceptional educator and a true asset to the Weber School District. She embodies the spirit of "I Love Teaching" in every aspect of her work.

Sheri is a leader among her peers, always willing to share her knowledge, ideas, and expertise with colleagues throughout the district. Her unwavering integrity, responsibility, and ambition are truly inspiring. She is incredibly organized, conducts herself with the utmost professionalism, and consistently completes tasks with accuracy and thoroughness.

Sheri's creative and visionary approach to challenges and the pursuit of progress is truly commendable. She not only generates innovative ideas but also possesses the determination to see them through to implementation. I have personally witnessed her tireless efforts to improve her own teaching abilities and her dedication to sharing her knowledge and skills with other teachers.

Sheri's positive attitude and eagerness to improve her skills and understanding of best practices are contagious. She consistently supports and leads initiatives, driven by her desire to serve others. Her relentless hard work, focus, and drive make her an invaluable asset to the education profession. Sheri is always the go-to person, known for her quick response time and effectiveness in supporting the needs of all students, teachers, and staff.

It is my sincere pleasure to recommend Sheri Nebeker for the Weber School District I Love Teaching award. Her lasting positive impact on our school community is undeniable.

Sincerely,
