

Based on Staff and Parent feedback the DHS Principal must possess the following Leadership Skills and and be able to address the following needs.

The DHS Principal must exhibit a proven history of building a safe, inclusive, and comfortable school climate and culture through authentic relationship-building with all stakeholders

The DHS Principal must exhibit a proven history of building relationships with students, teachers, staff and community members

The DHS Principal must invest in the staff to ensure high quality teaching and learning within DHS.

The DHS Principal must demonstrate respect for faculty and staff at all times, regardless of the circumstance.

The DHS Principal must demonstrate an understanding of how to discipline a student in a way which preserves the child's dignity and avoids bias.

The DHS Principal must provide and promote a safe and inclusive learning environment

The DHS Principal must Address the needs of all students

Based on Student feedback the DHS principal must possess the following Leadership Skills.

The new DHS Principal must treat all students with kindness and respect every day*

The new DHS Principal must show interest in each student

The new DHS Principal must be trustworthy

The new DHS Principal understands how to support teachers in educating all students, regardless of learning styles

The new DHS Principal must show respect and kindness toward all my teachers

The new DHS Principal must show respect and kindness toward the custodial and kitchen staff*

*Level 5 > 80