Dear Wendall Quesinberry:

On behalf of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Speech & Dramatic Arts Association, I extend congratulations to Tomahawk HS, director Michele Balda, and your students who participated in the State One-Act Play Contest, held as part of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Theatre Festival, November 16-18, 2023 at UW-Green Bay. Your school's commitment to performing arts gives your student-artists a means for creative expression and enhances their socio-emotional learning as we emerge from a global pandemic, when connecting with peers is of critical importance.

The cast of the play, She Wrote, Died, Then Wrote Some More received the All State Award for their production, commemorating their advancement and participation in the State Festival. Additionally, the production earned: Ensemble Award, and Technical Theatre Award. Plus, earning Outstanding Acting Awards - Murphy Koth as "Alina Devereaux", Xan Sutton as "Nicholas Springfield", Trey Morrison as "Stefan Stade"

Thank you for supporting interscholastic performing arts in your school district. You should be extremely proud of this entire cast and crew who represented Tomahawk HS and your district in such an outstanding manner. We look forward to their continued participation in future festivals.

Sincerely,

Adam J. Jacobi
Executive Director
