Volunteers

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) requires that non-exempt employees must be compensated for all hours they are required or permitted to work. Thus, even though employees volunteer to work beyond their normally scheduled hours, the employer must compensate employees for those hours worked. An individual is considered to be a volunteer only if the following conditions are met:

- A. Services are performed for which no compensation is received beyond expenses of a nominal fee; and
- B. Services rendered are not the same type services that the individual is employed to perform for the school employer.

Example: A custodial employee wishing to volunteer as a lay coach for a sport team. This individual is not considered an employee while volunteering.
