B. National Board Certified Teachers

Midway ISD is proud to recognize four newly certified National Board Certified Teachers (NBCTs): Angela Brown (HE), Christy Baish (PHE), Josh Dietert (MHS), and Sharon Cramer (PHE). With these new certifications, Midway ISD now has 20 NBCTs districtwide. National Board Certification is the profession's highest voluntary credential, recognizing educators who meet rigorous standards through a comprehensive, performance-based assessment process.

C. Texas School Board Recognition Month

January is Texas School Board Appreciation Month, a time to recognize the dedicated service of local school board members across the state. Midway ISD is grateful for the seven elected trustees who volunteer countless hours to support student success, staff excellence, and strong district governance. Collectively, the Midway ISD Board of Trustees brings decades of leadership experience and a deep personal connection to our schools as parents and alumni. We sincerely thank them for their commitment to public education and to the Midway community.
