Special Recognitions

Superintendent's Award

Spicewood Elementary Principal Tiffany Brantley recognized fifth-grade students Millie Sue Rust and Eduardo Aguilar as the December Superintendent's Award recipients. Ms. Brantley shared reflections from the students' teachers and classmates, highlighting the character traits and positive contributions that made each student deserving of this recognition. Ms. Brantley then presented the students with gifts, and Dr. Jeff Gasaway concluded the recognition by awarding each student a certificate and gift card in celebration of their achievement.

Going the Extra Mile Award

Spicewood Elementary Principal Tiffany Brantley recognized fourth-grade teacher Danielle Harmon as the December GEM Award recipient. Ms. Brantley shared remarks from colleagues and students that highlighted Ms. Harmon's positive impact on the campus, her dedication to excellence in the classroom, and her genuine care for every student she serves. In recognition of this honor, Ms. Harmon received a gift from her campus administrators, along with an award and certificate presented by Dr. Jeff Gasaway.

Spotlight on Excellence

Dr. Jeff Gasaway recognized Highland Lakes Elementary teacher Jennifer Cline as the December Spotlight on Excellence Award recipient. A video message from Principal Suzie Neuenschwander was shared, highlighting the many qualities that led to Ms. Cline's nomination, including her strong connections with students, her caring approach, and her ability to make every child feel valued and supported. Dr. Gasaway concluded the recognition by presenting Ms. Cline with an award and certificate in honor of her achievement.

Spotlight on Engagement

Yarda Leflet recognized Colt Elementary first-grade teacher Tracy Farmer as the December Spotlight on Engagement recipient, highlighting the enthusiasm, purpose, and joy she brings to the campus each day. Ms. Leflet emphasized the meaningful and hands-on learning experiences Ms. Farmer creates in her classroom that students remember long after they leave her. In recognition of the honor, Ms. Farmer received an award from Ms. Leflet and a certificate presented by Dr. Gasaway.

TMEA Distinguished Educator

Marble Falls High School Choir Director Bryce Gage announced that High School Principal Patrick Hinson has been selected as a TMEA Distinguished Educator. Mr. Gage provided background information on the organization and outlined the nomination process, including the submission of an essay highlighting the many reasons Mr. Hinson was deserving of this recognition. He noted Mr. Hinson's steadfast support of fine arts, his leadership on campus, and his genuine commitment to students and staff, all of which reflect the values celebrated by the TMEA Distinguished Educator honor.
