

Minidoka County School District

Superintendent's Report

February 11, 2019

Correspondence

- School Board Recognition – We received a certificate from the Idaho School Boards Association recognizing the work that our Board does for our community. I appreciate the great Board we have and their dedication to our District!
- Huntley Lawsuit – We have received an update on the case indicating that “the Court decided to abstain from making any substantive decision until the Idaho Supreme Court's ruling in Zeyen v. Pocatello School District.”
- Idaho State Rehabilitation Council Annual Report – We received a copy of this report, which I will have available at the Board meeting. Please contact me if you would like to review it prior to the meeting.

Information/Updates

- Bond Information – There was another successful Ad Hoc Bond Committee meeting at Minidoka Memorial Hospital January 28. There were 22 in attendance, with about 6 new members in attendance. Their next meeting will be Monday February 11 during our Board meeting. We held a Bond Information Meeting at the East Minico Auditorium January 29.

Meetings/Activities

- Staff/Building Visits:
I participated in two different Food Service Employee meetings where I shared information about the Bond and discussed the need for teamwork.

I also attended staff meetings at Heyburn and Rupert sharing information about the bond and am scheduled to attend the Total Learning Center staff meeting February 6.
- Committee/Community Meetings:
I presented bond information at the Rupert City Council meeting on January 22. Trustee Anderson was also there. I also presented at the Rupert Rotary Club and Heyburn City Council meetings on January 23, and Trustee Stevenson and I presented at the Acequia City Council meeting on February 4.

Suzette Miller and I met with Cassia Superintendent, Dr. Jim Shank and Debbie Critchfield on January 25 to discuss our respective bonds. Dr. Shank and I are considering writing a joint letter for publication prior to the bond.
