September 2015

Week of September 1st - We are off to a flying start here at EBLC. We started off by reading Pete the Cat book and making a headband. They had so much fun making Pete the Cat headbands. The first letter they will be learning about is "A". Also, learning the rules and the routine in the classroom. Very important to follows rules!!

Week of September 7th - I think everyone enjoyed their Labor Day off. They will be continuing with their letters. This week's letter is B. Teachers will also be teaching the kids about using their manners and proper hygiene.

Week of September 14th - Well we have several things going on this week. Our letter this week is "C". We also have National Play Dough Day on Wednesday. The kids are going to love playing with play dough. I bet they can make some colorful creations. On Friday we will be celebrating Grandparents Day. Grandparents will be able to come and eat breakfast or lunch with their grandchild, take a picture and make a photo frame to put their picture in. Making memories!!!

Week of September 21st - Happy Birthday Johnny Appleseed. The kids will be learning about apples and Johnny Appleseed this week. This week's letter is "D". We will also be bringing in the first day of Fall on Wednesday. Loving the beautiful colors that Fall brings.

Week of September 28th - The letter of the week is "E". We will be learning about the Community helpers
