

Elementary School Board Report

October 2024

We have had a great start to the month of October! We are continuing to focus on having students show Paw Pride (be respectful) throughout our school. We also started doing student shoutouts in which staff are noticing the positive things students are doing and then I share the shoutouts during my weekly school wide announcements and Paw Pride prize drawings.

Literacy Training:

We continue to work through our OL&LA literacy training, as we had another training date on October 9th. Teachers are working incredibly hard on the READ Act training dates and staying on course with the training pacing guide. I'm very excited to take some time as a team in the near future to reflect upon our learning and discuss how we can apply the learning to further enhance our instructional practices.

Fall Into Reading:

We had 108 students and their families attend our Fall Into Reading event a few weeks ago. This event was an opportunity for families to have a fun evening out enjoying reading, snacks and other family friendly activities, while also learning about our Title program at CRES. A huge thank you to all of the families who attended and to all of the amazing volunteers who made the night a great success. It was such a fun evening of learning and growing as a school community.

Reflection on Camp Invention:

CRES Camp Invention that took place during the summer of 2024 received a 100% parent satisfaction rating according to post-camp surveys. Here are some of the parent comments that were shared:

- ❖ "My child was super excited about this program and instantly came home and put together stuff with left over cardboard and supplies."
- ❖ "My daughter had a very positive learning experience and truly enjoyed the program. She felt empowered as a girl to learn and use skills."

- ❖ “My son has been talking about his Camp Invention experience since it started and even past the time that he’s been out of that. He wishes that it was longer. He had a lot of fun being able to do some of the things that he enjoys and learning new things about himself. He has found that he enjoys other things that he has never tried before.”
