

September 7, the first Monday in September, is Labor Day. The school board should identify another date in early September for the regular school board meeting.